SPECIAL PRIZES.

For Best Milch Cow, fed with the North British Company's Nutritious Condiment, $12.50, Col. W. E. Starratt, Paradise.

Col. Starratt took in prizes the sum of $162.50, and sold "Oscar," a six months old bull calf to Hon. Hector McDougall for $60; "Nova," a heifer calf three and half months old to the same party for $60; and "Belle of Paradise," 2 years old, to a party in Kentville, for $100. The prices brought by these animals show most conclusively without further remarks of ours that keeping and raising thoroughbred animals PAYS. Another of his herd "Dew Drop," was declared by judges to be the best cow for milk on the ground. She gave 278¼ lbs. in seven days, an average of 20 buarts per day.

The following is the conclusion of His Honor the Governor's speech at the opening of the Exhibition:—

"There are one or two matters connected with this Exhibition to which, before closing, I would like to call your attention.

In the great Exhibition of 1854, not a single specimen of thoroughbred cattle appeared among the entries.

Only five years ago, at the Exhibition held here, there were but 46.

To-day you have 216 of that class. In five years they have more than quadrupled.

At the first Exhibition cattle were shown only in single specimens. A herd consists of six, and no man owned enough to entitle him to exhibit a herd. To-day we have eight herds on our entries. Of these three are Short Horns. three Ayrshires. These breeds are evidently the favourites of our farmers, the Short Horns for beef and the Ayrshires for milk and cheese. One herd of Devons and one of Jerseys shew that other valuable qualities have attracted the attention of some growers.

Herds of Short Horns, Ayrshires and Devons have been entered at previous Exhibitions, but this is the first appearance of a herd of Jerseys.

The system of registry for pure bred cattle was introduced in Nova Scotia in 1868. It began, as may well be supposed, on a very modest scale. There were three of the leading breeds admitted to registry.

So far as the Printed Herd Book enables me to judge there were registered:

	Bulls.	Cows.
Of Short Horns,	2	3
Devons,	3	1
Ayrshire,	2	4

In all 18 animals. Besides these there were two Hereford Bulls, but these do not appear to have been favourites; there being none of the breed registered since 1868.

There was not a single animal of the Jersey Breed on the register of the year.

In a single decade the number in the Register has swollen from 18 to 592.

Deductions must, of course, be made for those that have died—but on the other hand there are probably enough entitled to registry, but from carelessness or other reasons not put on the list—to restore the balance.

The number of grade cattle in the Province, composed of a mixture of the pure breed with the common cattle of the country, is very large; of these there appear among the entries on this occasion:—Of Special Grades not pure enough for Herd Register, 48; and of commoner Grades, 143—in all 191.

In every county of the Province the Common Breeds are more or less improved by this intermixture.

I might extend my remarks to other branches of farm produce, but I purposely confine myself to cattle, because first, that is one of the most important in reference to our immediate future, and for another very valid reason, that I have already trespassed as far as I dare upon your indulgence.

Let me only say in conclusion, that the gentlemen who from time to time have interested themselves in getting up and carrying out these Exhibitions, may look with pride on the success which has attended their efforts: They have truly served their country by the work they have done, and are entitled to the lasting gratitude of the people of Nova Scotia.

Among the names we most associate with this great progress, are in the past the late John Young, pioneer of Agricultural Science, and the late Dr. Forrester, the pioneer of Exhibitions.

Of these still living we owe much to a number of excellent men who have devoted themselves to the improvement of our agriculture, and whom it would be invidious to particularize—but I trust an exception will be allowed in the case of Col. Laurie, the energetic President, and Dr. Lawson, the indefatigable Secretary of the Board of Agriculture. I am sure a grateful country will never forget any of the men I have named or be insensible to the great benefits derived from their exertions and those of their fellow-laborers in the cause of Agriculture in the province."

IT'S THE HEIGHT OF FOLLY to neglect those premonitory symptoms of chronic ill health which develope themselves in the shape of debility, loss of appetite and sleep, in nervous sensations, dyspepsia, and an irregular state of the bowels. Remember them by timely measures or dread the worst. Deal summarily with the minor ailment before the greater assails you. Among the resources of the pharmacopia there is no surer and safer one in cases of debility, nervousness and dyspepsia, than Quinine, provided the remedy is judiciously used. Decisive cures of the above ailments are constantly produced by small doses frequently repeated. These have the effect of increasing muscular power, improving the appetite, and aiding digestion. Northrop & Lyman's Quinine Wine is an excellent substitute for the ordinary drug, and possesses a flavor which renders it peculiarly acceptable. It contains nothing in the slightest degree injurious to the most delicate invalid. Sherry Wine and certain aromatics are combined with the principal ingredient, the whole forming a chemical preparation, harmonious in composition, pleasant in taste, thorough and prompt in action. Besides invigorating the system, aiding digestion and promoting regularity in the habit of body, it relieves depression of the mind, which is an almost invariable forerunner of dyspepsia and nervous debility. It is extremely beneficial in cases of malarial fever and is a valuable safeguard against those maladies. When buying be particular to ask for the Quinine Wine prepared by Northrop & Lyman. Sold by all druggists.

☞For the benefit of our readers we giv this week a sure cure for colic or belly ache in horses. To one bottle Johnson's Anodyne Linime add same quantity of molasses and same quantity of water, and pour down the horse's throat.

A man recently asked in a drug store for a box of rough diamonds, but the druggist knew no such remedy. After much parley the druggist found that his customer wanted Parsons' Purgative Pills. He says, 'That's the only fit name for 'em."

DRY GOODS.

THE OLD TARIFF.

Two hundred and thirty-eight Packages of imported and Duties paid under the Old Tariff.

NEW SPRING GOODS,

This large importation, which consists chiefly of STAPLE GOODS, was made earlier in the season than usual to SAVE our customers paying the increased duties. In addition to the above we hold a very large stock, comprising a general assortment of Dry Goods, all of which we offer WHOLESALE and RETAIL and Novelties for all Departments, to make our Stock complete, and which could not be imported earlier. As these Goods come forward they will be subject to the Duties under the New Tariff. All consumers of Dry Goods who are in a position to lay in a stock of COTTONS and other STAPLE GOODS, should not fail to do so at once, as prices must advance when the present stock is exhausted.

AT OLD PRICES.

MILLINERY, GENTS' FURNISHINGS

GILBERT'S LANE

DYE WORKS,

ST. JOHN, N. B.

IT is a well-known fact that all classes of goods get rolled and faded before the material is half worn, and only require cleaning and dying to make them look as good as new. Carpets, Feathers, Curtains, Dress Goods, Shawls, Waterproof Mantles, Silks and Satins, Gentlemens' Overcoats, Pants, and Vests, &c, &c, dyed on reasonable terms. BLACK GOODS a specialty.

AGENTS.—Annapolis, W. J. SHANNON, Merchant; Digby, Miss WRIGHT, Millinery and Dry Goods; H. S. PIPER, MONITOR Office, Bridgetown.
