Bayfield Church Difficulty.

The following letter from the Rev. Robert Campbell, of Montreal, addressed to the Gazette of that city, gives a new phase to the recent induction of Mr. Moffat at Bayfield, to the pastoral charge of the portion of the Presbyterian congregation which did not enter the Union:—

(To the Editor of the Gazette)

SIR,—Will your correspondent, who has furnished such an elaborate account of the induction at Bayfield, still further enlighten your readers by answering the following questions:—1. Of what Church is Rev. Robert Burnet minister? The general impression is that said gentleman was shut out of the St. Andrew's Scotch Church, Hamilton, by the unanimous action of the people in that Church, wholly irrespective of the Union question, and that he has now no congregation. 2. What is meant by the "Union Act of the Howat Government?" The records of the Ontario Legislature show that the Union Acts were introduced into that body by a private member, and not by any member of the Government; and further, that they were opposed by no individual or party in the House. 3. Is the Rev. John Moffat, the new standard-bearer of the so-called Church of Scotland in Bayfield, to whose antecedents Mr. Burnet challenges the attention of all men, the individual to whose character the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, "in connection with the Church of Scotland," bore testimony, before the Union, in the following terms:—

"Whereas the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island has requested the advice of this Court relative to the case of Rev. Mr. Moffat, after due consideration of the circumstances, it was moved and unanimously agreed to that the Presbytery be enjoined to summon Mr. Moffat to appear before them, to answer the charges against him, and, on his failure to do so, to proceed against him in terms of the Church's procedure in such cases. Further, the Presbytery is enjoined at once to notify the Secretary of the Temporalities' Fund of the Church of Scotland in Canada of the facts of the case, lest Mr. Moffat should in the meantime become a recipient of the benefits of that fund.

"WILLIAM MACMILLAN,
"Clerk of Synod."

Those who issued this above significant document have never rehabilitated Mr. Moffat, so far as the Church at large has been informed.

Yurs truly,
REV. ROBERT CAMPBELL.

JOHN BUTLER,
1516 Assignee.

A Colorado paper, speaking of a recent wind-storm, says that the gale was thickly freckled with things strange to the eye, things living and dead, that flitted hither and thither, going and coming, appearing and disappearing among the rolling billows of sleet and dust; shingles, barrels, coal buckets, ashes, and cinders, fragments of frame houses, horses, mules, and wagons, while now and then a human form mutined down the gulch with the rush and roar of the tempest.

An enterprising grocer in the town of Santa Claus has adopted an original method of business. Each side of the store is fitted up for customers on its own account. In the general arrangement each side is a duplicate of the other, the difference being that one side is cash and the other credit. When a customer comes in, the first question asked is, "Do you wish to buy for cash or on account?" If it is a cash customer the goods and prices on the cash side are shown, but if it is one who wants credit, he is shown the other side, and for the first time in his life, perhaps, made to realize the value of ready money.
