M. F. H.

A MEMORY.

Then falsehood, trickery or brazen fraud
the high seats of public service scorned
the public good, then, like to a lightly standard here the battle fiercest raged, ere shone this trinity of signs nd 'round them patriots closed
o guard thee Newfoundland.

F.H.! to thee thy land was first
f all the lands of earth, hy soul enrapt her as the mother's arms
er first-born fondly folds, hy thoughts were ever searching for her good nd like the flood tide sweeping in her bays hy ardour rose at all that brought her fame.

* * * *

is pen proclaimed the prowess of thy breed tale replete with many a noble deed.
councils where he met the men of state
is voice was potent in the grave debate.
is country's cause he ever made his own,
or rested till the rights he sought were won.

e searched the records of his land to find
hs valiant deeds her history enshrined, riumphs and struggles of her pioneer age nd showed them forth in many a glowing page.

he forum heard his message clearly told
f stored resources of more wealth than gold;
hy lakes, fair beautious giants of energy,
nd all their latent power meant to thee;
hy timbered hills and valleys spreading fair,
or all thy alms and efforts were his care.

e sang the vistas of thy woodland ways
here oft he strolled the Humber's banks along.
he calm majestic grandeur of thy bays—
hy Spring-kissed valleys—stirred his soul to song.
he Autumn's splendor and the rain-fed rill
lyric gave, "The Dear Old Southside Hill."
he crystal 'berg, fantastically fair is fancy filled with beauteous forms and rare, nd all the wonders of our northern night hrilled his poetic spirit with delight.

e prayed that from within thee might arise
son of strenuous soul and high emprise, ho would achieve by power of voice and pen
ame for his land before the eyes of men;
ame for the noble deeds her sons have wrought, ame for himself, by dignity of thought,
hose hand should rout with all his land's consent
he vampire demagogues who sap her strength.

* * * *

ome, like the Spring, O son of destiny!
ome, like the storm and wake thy land as he.
he days are waiting thro' all their shining hours
he morns the evenings are listening for thy song—
he stars they seem to seek thee as they shine, nd the waves that dash themselves against our rugged forelands re calling, calling for thee through the night.
wake, awake! O patriot spirit of the Isle, awake!
wake! and stand once more
hy what those letters stood erstwhile, hy Justice—Truth—for Patriotic pride—
o love of Newfoundland.

D. CARROLL.

The Huntley's Fate.

The hull of the wrecked schooner Huntley which has been lying in the harbor for some considerable time, was yesterday towed out of the narrows by tugs and was taken to Freshwater Bay to be there allowed to drift ashore near the beach. The wreck was bought by Capt. A. Kean, who salved everything of value from it. The expense of having the vessel repaired would have been too great.

Will Dine Champions.

The B.I.S. Football team, champions for 1921, will be dined by the Society in the Club Rooms on Wednesday night next. Mr. Higgins, K.C., President of the Society will act as Chairman. The catering will be in the hands of the Ladies' Auxiliary, whose ability in this direction is well known. Included in the guests of the evening will be Jack Bell, the Halifax track team with managers Thomas and Goodland.

Milk Case Dismissed.

The milk case in which a farmer was charged with selling milk not up to the standard of the Inspection of Foods Act, was dismissed yesterday by Judge Morris on the grounds that the samples for analysis were not taken in accordance with the conditions precedent to a prosecution. This case had been several times postponed for various reasons.
