BRUCE.

The Episcopal congregation, Southampton, has presented E. W. Hunt with a fine dog skin overcoat.

Rev. Wm. Savage, who for some years has been the missionary to the Indians in the locality of Southampton, has retired from those onerous duties and moved with his family to Elora, where they purpose spending their remaining days.

Mrs. Angus McLeod died recently in Bruce township, aged 92 years.

The following are the salaries paid the different officials of Bruce: Treasurer, $1,500; clerk, $700; jailer, $650; turnkey, $375; matron, $250; caretaker, $375; chief constable, $100; auditors, $60 each and mileage; criminal auditors, $4 per day each; school inspectors, $1,000 salary each, and $500 to cover expenses; warden, $140; jail surgeon, $100; Mr. Ezra Briggs reappointed chief constable.

BRANT.

Some of the members of St. Jude's Church, in Brantford, are dissatisfied because they were not consulted in the matter of a choice of clergyman, and there is now a hitch in the proceedings.

ELGIN.

Robert Leeman, St. Thomas, received fatal injuries on Tuesday while unloading boiler plate on the M. C. R.

At the last meeting of the Elgin County Council a grant of $1,400 was made to the St. Thomas Collegiate Institute provided county pupils were admitted free. According to the act St. Thomas is entitled to $2,017 from the county, and the city Board of Education has decided to make application to the county judge in accordance with the provisions of the High School Act to have him make an award which will be binding for three years.

Ex-President Cleveland will pass west over the M. C. R. on train No. 19 on Saturday morning to attend the opening of the new university at Ann Arbor, Mich. He will return a week from Thursday.

ESSEX.

R. L. Tupper, of the Sandwich fish hatchery, is in Ottawa with 4,000,000 whitefish eggs for deposit in the Ottawa hatchery.

At the meeting of Baptist ministers in Detroit Monday, Rev. G. B. Davis, of Windsor, read a paper on "The exemption of church property from taxation," in which he took strong grounds in favor of taxing church property, just as any other property is taxed, and said that in no other way could an entire separation of state and church be effected. A lively discussion followed the reading of the paper, in which Rev. Mr. Davis' views were warmly approved by nearly every minister present.

There is trouble in school section 6, in Rochester township. The trustees lately appointed a secretary-treasurer, but the old secretary refuses to give up the books until he gets a clear discharge, and the trustees refuse this until they have examined the books. The matter will be brought up before Judge Horne.

C. Stan Allen has leased the Kingsville Reporter office. He is a manly fellow, and an ex-member of the staffs of the Wallaceburg Herald-Record, the Amherstburg Echo and the Windsor Record.

GREY.

Snow is now two feet and a half deep in the woods near Owen Sound.

KENT.

Sam Perrin, treasurer of the Lyceum Theater, Detroit, formerly lived in Chatham and Toronto. For some reason, best known to himself, he prefers to live under the stars and stripes, although he will come to Canada holidays and Sundays. Peter Rutherford, of Chatham, has instituted a suit against Mr. Perrin.

LAMBTON.

Gilbert Stuart, the Oil Springs burglar, had his examination on Monday. He pleaded guilty. He said he entered the store by a side door and secured $151. He purchased a complete outfit for himself, including a handsome gold case Elgin watch. He spent the balance of his money buying trinkets for a frail female in Detroit. Running short of funds he put the watch in hoak for $6, which went the way of the rest.

The annual banquet and social of the ladies of the Presbyterian Church of Brigden was held in the church Feb. 8 and 9. A large company was in attendance, Rev. J. C. McKee in the chair. The addresses were both humorous and instructive. The choir were at their best, aided by Miss Dawson, of Petrolea, a delightful singer. Mrs. A. E. Cooper, of London, charmed the audience with her renderings of "auld Scotch sangs" in a flexible and sweet voice, and Mr. Percy A. Carroll, also of London, outdid himself in "The Picture on the Wall," "The Death of Nelson," etc. Mrs. Rufus R. Haynes, with her usual grace and dignity, presided at the organ. It was the unanimous opinion of all who were present from home and abroad that this was the most elaborate and fashionable spread ever given in that part of Western Ontario. The receipts were $165.

MIDDLESEX.

London township has lost another of the earliest settlers and Ilderton one of her most respected citizens in the death of John Whillans on Tuesday. Deceased was in good health up to Thursday last, when he was seized with a paralytic stroke. Mr. Whillans came to this country 67 years ago from Roxboroughshire, Scotland, and settled in London township, where he has resided ever since. Deceased was 78 years of age, and leaves a widow and one son, William, to mourn his loss.

OXFORD.

Sixteen sheep have been killed during a few evenings on the new road in South Norwich.

Robert Scott, a well-known farmer of Blandford, died on Tuesday, from inflammation of the lungs. Deceased was about 40 years of age and was unmarried. He managed the farm of about 300 acres for his father, who is now quite feeble.

PERTH.

The Stratford Bridge Works were successful in securing on Saturday contracts for the erection of two iron bridges in the township of Logan.

The will of the late James Patterson, South Easthope, who died on Jan. 23, was entered for probate on Monday, in the Surrogate court in Stratford. He left $5,400, all of which he bequeathed to Miss Annie Booth, who resided with him.

WENTWORTH.

Dr. J. G. McLean, of Beamsville, is dead. The deceased was afflicted with la grippe about one year ago, whith deranged his mind, and for some time past he has been in Hamilton undergoing treatment.

WELLINGTON.

E. O'Connor, solicitor for Jos. Bruder, has written to the Guelph Council, stating that he had been instructed to bring an action against the corporation to recover damages sustained having O'Connor's horse frightened on the market square by boys coasting down the hill on Northumberland street. The horse ran away, upsetting the cutter and throwing Mr. Bruder and a lady friend violently to the ground, severely injuring both.

The directors of the Nassagaweya Agricultural Society have decided to open their show to Eramosa, Puslinch and Nelson on condition that they open to Nassagaweya. The fall show will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 4.

The residence of the late Dr. Orton in Guelph has been purchased by Dr. Howitt, for $5,000. The latter will build an addition and make other improvements.

Rev. Mr. MacMillan, Guelph, while leaving the Presbyterian meeting in Mount Forest on Monday last slipped on the sidewalk and sustained a fracture of one of the bones of the leg.

YORK.

About 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, 10th inst., a fire broke out in the residence of Mr. J. S. Paterson at Agincourt, which resulted in the total destruction of the house and contents, the family narrowly escaping in their night clothes. The loss is estimated at $5,000, and was issued in the London Mutual for $1,200. The cause of fire is not known.

The Huron and Middlesex.

The Annual Meeting—The Directors Re-Elected—A Splendid Showing.

The thirteenth annual meeting of the Huron and Middlesex Mutual Fire Insurance Company was held at the office of the Company, 101 Dundas street, on Tuesday, Feb. 2. The following gentlemen were present: Messrs. R. S. Murray, George Samwell, Exeter; D. M. Cameron, Strathroy; Henry Johnston, London; Richard Southam, James McKenzie, Union; E. Beltz, W. W. Fitzgerald, John B. Smyth, John Stephenson, A. O. Talbot, W. Spittal, N. McLeod and others.

The manager, Mr. Stephenson, then read the annual report for the year ending Dec. 31, 1891, as follows:

To the members of the Huron and Middlesex Mutual Fire Insurance Company, London:

Gentlemen,—Your directors beg to lay their report before you at this their thirteenth annual meeting on the business for the year ending 31st December, 1891, together with a summary of the transactions of the year, a statement of receipts and disbursements, assets and liabilities and the auditors' report thereon.

During the year 1,579 policies were issued, being an increase of 203 over the previous year, insuring property to the amount of $1,232,277. The total number of policies in force is 3,336, covering property to the amount of $2,583,986, showing an average on each policy of $775.

To the Directors of the Huron and Middlesex Mutual Fire Insurance Company:

Gentlemen,—We, the auditors appointed by you for the past year, beg to report that we have carefully examined the books and accounts of your company for the year ending 31st December, 1891, and compared all charges with the vouchers therefore, and that we find the same correct. We desire to record our thanks for the courtesy and assistance given us by the officers of the company at all times during our audit.

(Signed.) JOHN B. SMYTH, O. H. TALBOT, } Auditors.

London, Feb. 1, 1892.

Mr. Murray moved the adoption of the report and made a speech regarding the satisfactory showing made for the year 1891. Mr. D. M. Cameron seconded the motion, which was unanimously adopted.

The election of three directors was then proceeded with, and resulted in the re-election of Mr. D. M. Cameron, Henry Johnston and James McKenzie for the ensuing three years.

On motion of Mr. Cameron, seconded by Mr. Samwell, a vote of thanks was tendered to the officers and agents of the company for their efforts during the past year. The motion was suitably acknowledged by Messrs. Stephenson and Murray.

At a subsequent meeting of the directors Mr. Murray was re-elected president, and Mr. D. M. Cameron, vice-president, and J. B. Smyth and O. H. Talbot were appointed auditors.

Mr. Job Scales, of Toronto, writes: "A short time ago I was suffering from Kidney Complaint and Dyspepsia, sour stomach and lame back; in fact, I was completely prostrated and suffering intense pain. While in this state a friend recommended me to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I used one bottle, and the permanent manner in which it has cured and made a new man of me is such that I cannot withhold from the proprietors this expression of my gratitude."

"Is it safe to attend one of these bazars with only a five-dollar dill in your pocket?" "Well you have to take chances, of course."
