A RARE OPPORTUNITY

The undersigned is prepared to receive sealed tenders up to THE 30TH DAY OF JUNE, 1904, for the buildings, machinery, stock, etc., of the Alexandria Wood Export Company, Limited. The buildings are practically new and the machinery of the most modern type. The property can be easily changed from its original purpose to a furniture or wagon factory. It is situated in one of the most central and thriving towns in Ontario. As an evidence of the business done in the town, one of its factories has an output of about five thousand carriages annually. The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

ANGUS McDONALD, Assgnt.,
Alexandria, May 14, 1904.

CURRENT TRADE CONDITIONS. ONTARIO.

The past week's movement of lumber has been rather disappointing. There has been little evidence of an expansion in the demand, and while the conditions do not justify a pessimistic view of the future, it is believed that the volume of the year's business will compare unfavorably with that of last year. The percentage of the mill production placed under contract is considerably smaller than at the corresponding time one year ago. The lower grades of pine continue quite firm, but on the higher grades the manu-
