TO BE REPAIRED.—The schooner Nellie Clarke is at the head of Dunn's slip, West end, where she will be repaired by Mr. John A. Ruddock. The Nellie Clarke was ashore in Vineyard Sound and received considerable damage.

APPEAL.—At the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. managing committee, held last evening, it was decided to issue an appeal to the public for aid in the association's work. This step is rendered necessary in order to keep the work of the Y. M. C. A. up to its present standard.

SUMMERSIDE'S EXPORTS.—The grand total of the shipments from Summerside P. E. I. for the season is $623,367, of which $335,451 went to the Dominion and $287,916 to foreign ports. Of the latter amount $209,080 went to the United States, $66,876 to the West Indies and $11,960 to Europe.

A PECULIAR CASE.—Mr. Wm. Brown is lying quite ill at his home at Marysville. His case is somewhat peculiar. His illness began with a fit of hiccoughing, lasting for a day and a half, which was succeeded by a distressing cough. He is now improving under the care of Dr. I. C. Sharp.

A CORRESPONDENT at Philadelphia says that a young man from Prince Edward Island, taking his first year's course in the medical department at Pennsylvania Univesity, has become engaged to a handsome Italian laly of the Pan American Congress, who visited the University recently.

CHILDREN AND MATCHES.—Last Monday afternoon, children playing with matches set fire to a barn belonging to Mr. Charles Fawcett, near the foundry, Sackville. The building with its contents—25 tons of hay—was soon reduced to ashes. The roof of one of the tenement houses near by caught fire several times, but was fortunately extinguished in time to prevent a large fire.

TRURO HAS ANOTHER SENSATION.—Truro is in a great state of excitement over the prosecution of liquor dealers, and a number of prominent hotel keepers have left the town owing to pending co victions. Cases have been instituted against the proprietors of leading houses and the extent to which the prosecutors are carrying affairs has appalled the victims, most if not all of whom have decided that it is wisest to shake the dust of Truro from their heels.

A FINE PICTURE.—Mr. John C. Miles exhibits in Barnes & Co's. window a picture of Fort Dufferin breakwater before a storm, which shows how thoroughly inbued, by frequent visits, the artist has become with the spirit of the scene. The waves dashing against the breakwater are full of action, and the schooner coming up the harbor, wing and wing, seems to be racing from a threatening storm. The picture invites careful inspection.

VICTORIA SECTION.—At the regular meeting of this section held in Bostwick's hall, last evening, the following officers were elected: John McConnell, W A; A Gillen, V A; Joseph McConnell, sec; O Brown, assistant sec; R Adams, F S; C Long, treas; C Stevens, usher; G Dale, guide; H Dale, I W; F Williams, O W; S Scott, P W A; W McConnell, W P; G McHarg, James Case, assistant patrons. EVERETT SNOWDEN, father of John Snowden lately missing from Moncton and Amos Snowden, deceased's uncle, are now in that place. They visited the wharf in company with Harbor Master Cook on Monday. They have gone up the river to see if there are any traces of the body; the impression being that the body would be carried up the river and left there on the Albert shore—the wind being from the north the night of his disappearance,—and the tide just coming in.

WOOD—ST. JOHN CO.—Theatre goers will be pleased to hear that the above excellent company who were here last spring have been secured for a return visit, opening for two weeks commencing Monday Dec. 2nd. During the past summer while abroad Mr. Wood secured a number of new plays which have been given the past few months in the large cities of United States and Canada. The opening production here will be the dramatization of Hugh Conway's extensively read novel 'Called Back' which presentation cannot fail to receive the highest endorsement of press and public. Already inquiries are being made for seats and the company should have a large and appreciative audience.

HE DIDN'T GIVE A——.A Halifax paper says:—At the police court this morning, Andrew Fletcher and Henry Kellum, colored, were arraigned for stealing two suits of clothes from the poor house. On Saturday they got an order to get them there, and no sooner had they a new suit of clothes on than they scaled the fence and got away. They both emphatically denied the charge. They were sentenced to six months each for vagrancy and theft. When he was being escorted out of the court, Fletcher said, "I don't give a d—," and used some other equally strong language. His Honor called him back and added three months to his sentence for contempt of court.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE G. F. S.—The annual meeting of the Girls' Friendly society took place yesterday afternoon at the Church of England Institute rooms, the president in the chair. There are now sixty-five girls enrolled, seven honorary members and twenty working associates. The room is open every Tuesday from 7.30 to 9.30 p. m. The girls are instructed in dressmaking, plain sewing, knitting and embroidery. The bible class is held every fortnight, and is well attended. The society is open to all girls of good character. The officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Miss Murray, president; Mrs. J. R. Smith, and Mrs. Charles Johnston vice-presidents; Miss H. Peters, secretary-treasurer.

COASTWISE FREIGHTS continue brisk. Among the recent charters are schooner Ayr, Hattie Turney, Elsie hence to New York, lumber at $3.50; schooners Benj. T. Biggs, Reaper and Annie A. Booth, laths, to New York at 70 cents M. Shippers have been so long accustomed to a low rate of freight that they are loth to pay these rates, but as lumber is bringing good prices in New York, sales having been made as high as $19 on extra specification, it seems only fair that the coasters should share in the benefits of the advanced rates, seeing that many of them must shortly go into winter quarters or off shore.

The wharves are becoming piled up and the demand for tonnage is likely to keep the freight well up for the remainder of the season.

I am offering briar pipes with pure amber mouth pieces at 25 cents each—the cheapest ever offered. Louis Green, 59 King street.

SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

Base Ball.

OFF THE FIELD.

The Brotherhood and League men are hunting for talent in a manner which means business.

Baldwin has signed a Brotherhood contract. Quinn has not signed as yet, but will likely play with the League.

Baltimore will take the place of Washington in the National League. The deal has not as yet been completed, but sufficient is known of the situation to warrant the assertion.

Beatin has again signed with the Clevelands at a salary of $3000. He did so reluctantly as he had promised the Brotherhood to hold off for a time.

Shortstop McKean of the Clevelands denies the report that he has signed with the Brotherhood, or that he is interested in a Cleveland brotherhood.

Boyle, the star catcher of the St. Louis—Browns attached his signature. Monday, to a Chicago player's league contract, and next season the famous battery King and Boyle will be seen doing work for the brotherhood.

One of the managers of the American Association says the association will likely have something good to lay before the public in a few days. It may startle the people, but, he says, the people will find the American Association a very live corpse, indeed.

Sowders, last year's crack pitcher for Pittsburg, has re-signed; Stovey, who was with Philadelphia last year, has not completed his arrangement as yet.

Foot Ball.

THE HARVARD TEAM.

Says the Boston Herald editorially:

The captain and other players of this year's Harvard foot ball team deserve great credit for the series of games which they have just completed. They have played a square game, and thereby done the college more service than they could have done by victory, if secured by any sort of unfair tricks or foul play. They have played a hard game, too, and though defeated by Yale and Princeton, they succeeded in making both games very interesting for their opponents, as well as for the spectators.

Their play, as a whole, has been above the average for Harvard teams. The rush line has done superb work in blocking and tackling, and the backs played beautifully, especially in the Yale game. The great fault in their playing has been a failure to work the kicking and rushing so well together as might have been done.

WHAT IS WRONG WITH HARVARD?

A Harvard graduate who is well up in foot ball said of Saturday's game: "Harvard was poorly captained. Cumnock is a plucky and hardworking young man, but he is easily rattled. His men were confused again and again in the signalling. With a cool hand at the helm Harvard would have won the game."

PUNTS.

Yale and Princeton meet to-morrow This will be the great game of the season.

Money is being put up in good quantities—but in favor of Princeton.

Harvard is awaiting anxiously the result of the game, so are Princeton and Yale.

The Ring.

Johnny Murphy is afraid to trust his broken arm, and consequently the fight between him and Cal McCarthy is off. McCarthy will fight George Dixon if he wins his coming match with young Hornbacker.

The Turf.

FOOT PRINTS.

Mr. Alley Gates will likely take Long Shot to Clifton, N. J., shortly to perform in the jumping races.

Hermit, the famous English stallion and Derby winner of 1867, is 26 years old, and is as playful as a two-year old.

Stamboul, Sunol and other racers did not start at Napa, Cal., on Saturday, to try to lower their records, the track being in bad condition from recent rains. If the weather is favorable, attempts will be made next Saturday.

The City Cornet Band's Concert.

A crowded house greeted the members of the City Cornet Band when the hour of beginning their concert in the Institute last night, had arrived. The programme was a choice one and interspersed very effectually with humorous songs and recitals that delighted the audience. Encores were in order and so satisfying was every contribution that an encore was demanded and cheerfully responded to. The work of the band throughout was excellent and gave ample evidence of the skill of their new instructor Professor Bowen. This gentleman's cornet solo was a veritable treat and an enthusiastic demand for another piece was yielded to and another choice selection given. Mrs. Perley, who is always a favorite sang sweetly and for an encore gave "Oft in the stilly night" with a taste, feeling and expression that it would indeed be difficult to duplicate. Miss Quinton, the Misses Duncan and Mrs. McKay all sang their selections admirably and of the gentlemen vocalists Messrs. Moore, Fitzgerald and Lantalum the same remark can be made. Mr. Carleton's readings were not the least attractive feature of the programme, a horn pipe danced by a little lady Miss Scribner won for her the compliment of a floral token.

The concert as a whole was a grand success and shows clearly how popular the band is.

The Eureka Manufacturing.

Of the Eureka Manufacturing Company and their establishment at Oxford, N. S, The Amherst Record says:—The buildings consist of one 84x36 and one 36x24, both three stories, and are fitted with the best of machinery for general woodwork and the manufacture of parlor, bedroom, and common furniture. There are also excellent facilities for the rapid and thorough kiln-drying of lumber. 100,000 to 200,000 ft. of lumber is kept on hand, and 800,000 ft. was used in the past year. The company is going out of housework, and giving exclusive attention to furniture. The sales are made in all parts of the Maritimes, and also in the province of Quebec. A siding from the O. & N. G. Railway runs into the factory. Since the burning of the other factory, it is likely the Eureka's facilities will be largely increased.

The company employs between 40 and 50 hands and disburses $1500 per month in wages.

The Circuit Court.

This morning William McDonald was arraigned and pleaded "not guilty." His trial was set down for Thursday of next week instead of Monday, in deference to the request of C. W. Weldon Esq. Q. C. senior counsel for the prisoner who wished an opportunity to examine the evidence.

The testimony for the plaintiff in the case of McDonald vs Lester was finished last evening and the trial of the cause was resumed this morning. The probabilities are it will consume the rest of the day.

GOLD AND SILVER are now taken in exchange for Apples, Sweet Cider, Dulce, Smoked Herring, Canned Salmon, Citron Peel, and all other goods, by H. W. NORTHRUP, South Wharf.

WHAT THE LETTER SAID.

THE COAT HE PRAYED FOR CAME THOUGH NOT EXACTLY WHAT HE WANTED.

Carrie McCluskey gets Three Months for Larceny. She has been Supplying Salvationists on Six Dollars a Month.

On Monday, Carrie McCluskey, a Salvation Army lassie, was arraigned before Magistrate Ritchie to answer the charge of larceny. She had the option of being tried at the Police Court or of having a preliminary examination there, with the chance of being committed for trial at a higher court. Evidence appeared strong against her, and she pleaded guilty. She was remanded for sentence.

There are matters connected with the case which require investigation. Carrie McClusky has been a member of the Salvation army for about two years; she has also been employed as a domestic in Mr. W. C. Rudman Allan's household during that time. Mr. Allan discovered some little time ago that the girl was in the habit of pilfering from him. She was arrested and a number of articles, the names of which have already appeared in the GAZETTE, were at the time found in her room.

Further developments were made later on, and the fact that Carrie has been pilfering for a considerable length of time was brought to light. Also a number of letters were found in her possession. The letters were placed in the hands of the chief of police, afterwards in the hands of the police clerk and they are now in the hands of the Magistrate. These, some twenty in number, are from Captain Evans and Cadet White of the Salvation Army now stationed in Nova Scotia. Besides private affairs in connection with the Army the letters contain affairs of a still more private nature. They contain requests for clothing, etc., to which, in some instances, the girl responded. One of these aspiring and inspired young officers wrote to the poor girl to supply him with a new overcoat. She complied in a measure, with his request—that is she sent him an overcoat, but it was not a new one. He wrote back and stated that while he had been praying for an overcoat his prayers had not been answered as he would have wished; he could hardly thank her for the coat she had sent him, for it was a new one he wanted. Then followed a severe reprimand for such negligence.

This is but a sample and the others contain equally interesting reading.

But it seems that Capt. Evans and Cadet White are not the only members of the Salvation Army who have been influencing the McCluskey girl to hand over what she had either come by honestly or had stolen. She has been supplying the officers of the Army now stationed at Carleton, with provisions, and perhaps with other things. As a domestic she received about six or seven dollars a month, which in itself could scarcely go far towards these purchases.

One of the officers of the Carleton barracks has stated to a GAZETTE reporter that they sometimes received provisions from Carrie McCluskey as well as from others so inclined, but have they not been culpably negligent in not ascertaining from what source these were derived?

Mr. Allan has also stated that for a time his own larder had to be so frequently replenished that his suspicions had been aroused. In Mr. Allan's possession there are a large number of bills—all receipted — belonging to the McCluskey girl, bills clearly proving the purchase of large quantities of provisions etc., which have evidently been given to her friends.

In all probability an investigation into the case of White and Evans will be held at headquarters, and so great is the evidence against them that that they cannot but be dismissed.

About a year ago attention of the officer in command of the Carleton section was directed to improper action on the part of the McCluskey girl, and three months ago dismissal from the corps was asked for. Instead of dismissal she was allowed to continue giving her mite towards the sustenance of the residing officers. Those who permitted this have acted not in accordance with right and have themselves become chargeable.

Today Carrie McCluskey was sentenced to three months in the common jail for her offence.

Today Captain Evans and Cadet White are earnestly praying for lost souls, and endeavoring to obtain a livelihood in their own private way. Today one of the officers of the Carleton section asked that the particulars of the case be kept quiet for fear of injuring "the work of Christ." Such is the mockery.

A correspondent writing from Richibucto on the 25th inst., says: Two members of Mr. Gordon Livingston's family have scarlet fever of a malignant nature. His eldest son lies in a critical condition, and if it his life be spared it is feared the lad will lose the sight of one, if not both eyes. Mr. L's. youngest daughter is also dangerously ill.

Police Court.

Eliza Donnelly drunk on Market Square was fined $8 or 2 months.

Thomas Campbell drunk on Market Square was fined $4 or 10 days.

The case of James Millar charged with beating Olans Christianson was taken up this morning. Several witnesses were examined and their evidence was very contradictory. It was proved that the sailor told Millar's daughter to go to h—ll, and she threw some water or tea on him after which he kicked her in the back. Millar arrived in the house at this time and seeing this he beat the sailor. Before this happened the sailor had asked Millar for 25 cents and had been told to wait until after supper while Millar had no intention of giving it to him although he would get the sailor's advance $17.50, from the captain of the vessel in which he had shipped the sailor. The magistrate said he would not find Millar not guilty of the assault but as the evidence was so contradictory he would merely dismiss the case. One of the witnesses Joseph Stevens created quite a laugh by telling the magistrate that he (Stevens) although he was 65 years of age, would have punched Millar, if he had of been in the sailor's place. He said the sailor could not have had much brains or he would have done so. After Stevens had left the stand it was found out that he had gone to the sailor yesterday and prevented him from coming to court.

Colonel Desbares died in Halifax in 1824 at the age of 103 years.
