NEW YORK, June 24, p. m.

Gold 111¼; sterling exchange 488¼ a 491.

The account of the disaster at Utica, N. Y., by the falling of a church floor, was not exaggerated. Fourteen dead bodies were taken from the ruins. Two deaths occurred to-day, and others will die. Many of the survivors are maimed for life.

LONDON, June 24.

Sir Bartle Frere has resigned the Presidency of the Royal Geographical Society, and Gen. Rawlinson has been elected to the position.

The St. Petersburgh Gazette announces that the railway officials have received orders to make arrangements for the visit of the Queen of England, who is expected to arrive in Russia about the 14th September.

LONDON, June 25.

THE VISIT TO RUSSIA.

An authoritative denial is given to the report that Queen Victoria is to visit St. Petersburg next September.

SPAIN.

The Carlists have established three entrenched lines before Estella, Spain. The outermost line is five leagues from the city.

TROUBLE IN THE EAST.

The relations between Turkey and Persia are very critical owing to the refusal on the part of the latter to compel the return, to Turkish territory, of a tribe formerly owing allegiance to that country. The rupture is in danger of becoming critical.

PLIMSOL'S BILL REJECTED.

In the Commons yesterday Mr. Plimsol's bill, requiring an official survey of merchants ships before sailing, was rejected by a vote of 173 to 170.

PRESS PERSECUTION.

The newspapers Figaro La France and Le Soier of Paris, have been sued by the Government for violation of press laws, in reprinting Rochefort's New York letter. The verdict was guilty, with extenuating circumstances and the proprietors were fined only 100 francs each.

RESIGNATION.

Portland Police Court.

The trial of James Monteith for assaulting his wife occupied the attention of the Court this forenoon. The prisoner appeared in Court with his hand bound, one of the fingers having been broken by a blow of Superintendent Gibson's cane, while he was arresting him. The man's head was also bound up, and he looked as if he had suffered severely. He was charged with assaulting his wife, and also with resisting the police.

Mrs. Wasson swore that the prisoner struck his own wife three times in her shop on Tuesday. She advised her to give him in charge. Twenty minutes before being arrested he did not appear to be drunk.

Mr. H. T. Ames stated that he sent the police to Wasson's shop on Tuesday, about noon, in consequence of seeing the prisoner make threatening gestures toward a woman.

Policeman Pidgeon, the next witness, testified that he told Gibson not to strike the prisoner on the head with the baton, and when the other struck the man the second time the witness said: "Damn it I would not have done that." To which Gibson replied: "I will mall anybody, while I am on the police, who attempts to tear my clothes, or kick out my guts." Witness thought Monteith could have been got along without the assistance of Gibson's brutal treatment. In fact he was of opinion he could bring the man himself.

At half past twelve o'clock the Court adjourned until 2 o'clock, when Gibson was placed on the stand. There seemed to be considerable feeling against Gibson.
