Valkyrie Reported Off Cape Race.

New York, Aug. 12.—A despatch from St. John's Nfld., says that a yacht supposed to be the new racer Valkyrie III. passed Cape Race last evening bound west. It takes ocean steamers from three to four days to run to New York from Cape Race. It is hardly probable that Valkyrie could cover the distance in less than six days, with fair weather, and as she is due on the morning of Aug. 14 in order to equal the time made by Vigilant on the occasion of the latter's recent trip from the other side, she cannot come within about four days of the Vigilant's time.

Valkyrie III. v. Defender.

London, Aug. 13.—The Chronicle, comparing the two yachts, goes on to say: "Both are built on identical lines, and the result will depend upon the skill of the design of the fit-out of the sails and the genius of the helmsman, in each of which we consider ourselves somewhat superior to the Americans. Messrs. Watson, Henderson, Lapthorn and Cranfield are names to be backed against the world. In this race, moreover, a previous error has been repaired. Many critics are alarmed to find Valkyrie III. over-canvased. This was done with a set purpose to adapt her to the lighter American winds. From all accounts it does not seem that Defender is a superlatively excellent sailer. The English vessel never before had such a good chance of victory. If the cup comes back it will stay here."

Niagara a Winner.

Southampton, Aug. 12.—The annual regatta of the Castle Yacht Club, of which Lord Dunraven is commodore, was held at Calshot to-day. The principal race of the day was the match for yachts above 10 and not exceeding 20-rate for a challenge cup value 40 guineas, the gift of Lord Dunraven. The Niagara was an easy winner. They finished as follows: Niagara, 3.20.23; Audrey, 3.26.04; Luna, 3.28.05; Venita, 3.38.32.

Games at Owen Sound.

Owen Sound, Aug. 12.—The Barrie Baseball and Stayner Lacrosse Clubs played the home teams here to-day. Barrie Baseball Club 2, Owen Sound 14; Stayner Lacrosse Club 0, Owen Sound 4.

A Bad Track at Buffalo.

Buffalo, Aug. 12.—The track at the Driving Park was in such bad condition to-day that it was decided to put off racing until to-morrow.

Harry Hamlin and Secretary E. S. Hawley, representing the Buffalo Track Association, this afternoon had a conference with Col. John B. Taylor, owner of Joe Patchen, and M. E. McHenry, trainer of John R. Gentry, with a view to arranging a match between these great pacers. McHenry was eager for the match, but Curry holds off, on the ground that his horse has been worked hard, and he does not care to take any risks. The probability is, however, that the horses will meet in a match race on Wednesday afternoon, when the free-for-all trot was to have been decided.

The trotting free-for-all having failed to fill, the management has arranged a special match race between Azote, the champion trotting gelding, and C. J. Hamlin's Fantasy.

Amateur Ball Players Sail for Europe.

Philadelphia, Aug. 13.—The Boston Amateur Baseball Club, which is composed principally of collegiate players, left here Saturday afternoon on the American line steamer Ohio for Liverpool.

Those in the party are C. W. Rice, Boston, secretary and treasurer of the club; George H. Lawson, Lansing, Mich., formerly of Ann Arbor University; W. W. Clark, Ayre, Mass.; F. E. Daggett, Boston, a Harvard boy; G. E. Pantzer of Boston, formerly of Yale; C. W. Burt of New York, and P. R. Harlow of Boston, both former Princeton boys; George Maynard, Boston, formerly of Yole; Robert Lever of New York, and W. Neale of Boston. Lawson the captain was formerly a Boston League pitcher.

They expect to arrive in Liverpool on Aug. 19, and will play a game with their best club there on the 20th. They will then work along to London, where they will play a week. Then they go to the north of England, visiting a number of towns, and finally over into Scotland. They will probably play 50 games in all, and be gone two months.

WITH A WIRE.

A Burglar's Novel Way of Getting at the Jewelry in a Window.

The discovery that an ingenious burglar was robbing the window of the Columbian loan office of diamonds, greenbacks and coins one night recently drew a crowd of 500 people to the vicinity, and it was with difficulty that the police cleared away the blockade.

The lower floor of the building at No. 9 Grant avenue is occupied by the loan office, the upper floors being vacant. The burglar got into the hallway adjoining the pawn shop, locked the street door and began his operations by sawing out a square section of the side of the paneling, which forms the end of the display window.

The hallway runs in such a way that the wall on the right as one ascends, is also the end board of the display window, a half-inch panel being the only barrier between a person ascending the stairs and the window wherein diamonds, greenbacks and coins to the value of $10,000 were on display.

An unknown pedestrian chanced to peep into the brilliantly lighted display window about 8 o'clock, whereupon he saw a deft hand manipulating a long wire with a hooked end in such a manner as to fish the greenbacks and jewelry to the aperture, from which he readily reached them with his hand. Without tarrying to see the result of his warning or to give his name, the stranger who discovered the operations thrust his head into the doorway, shouted, "Your store is being robbed," and departed.

The proprietor rushed to the door, discovered what was being done, and blew a police whistle, whilst his clerks tried to break through the hall door, but it is a strong structure, and was so well locked that their assaults thereupon were futile. It was nearly ten minutes before the police got it unlocked, by which time the burglar had escaped, presumably climbing out of some upper window and reaching the street over the roofs of adjoining houses or by ropes.

A hasty examination of the upper floors by the police revealed nothing of importance concerning the burglar, who had folded up his fishing pole and silently gone beyond the reach of his pursuers. A hurried invoice of the contents of the window showed that several diamond earrings and coins had been taken, though most, if not all, the greenbacks remained. The proprietors thought that $200 would probably cover their losses. Had the discovery been made five minutes later the daring burglar would doubtless have fished out several stacks of greenbacks, as well as a bowl of gold dust and coins.—San Francisco Chronicle.
