TOWNSHIP COUNCILS IN BY ACCLAMATION

Many York County Municipalities Save Election Costs—Blaze in Scarboro.

WEST TORONTO, Dec. 28.—"Hackett's going to give Mayor Baird a big surprise on election day," said a prominent business man to-day. "While at first he seemed to be tempting fate, from what I've heard there is a distinct swing in his direction. People are beginning to see the force of his argument that Mayor Baird should not have gone back on his last year's pledge that he would not again be a candidate for the mayoralty. The fact that he is seeking the office again, backed by the influence of street railway officials, at a time when the situation is becoming critical for the franchise holders, is not altogether in the mayor's favor."

Dr. Hackett is making a vigorous personal canvass and is being cordially received wherever he appears.

WESTON.

WESTON, Dec. 28. — Dufferin Hall was comfortably filled to-night to hear the addresses of the different candidates. Town Clerk Taylor presided. The nominations are:

NORTH TORONTO.

NORTH TORONTO, Dec. 28.—Vote for A. J. Brown as mayor for 1909, and progressive municipal government.

As the Glengrove car made the curve at the C. P. R. crossing at 12.45 to-day it crashed into a Newmarket car, smashing the fender and vestibule of the local car.

This afternoon the primary classes of St. Clement's Sunday School had their Christmas tree entertainment in the schoolroom.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Crawford of Chicago are visiting their nephew, W. T. White of Erskine-avenue.

A. J. Brown asks only for the votes of the town who want progression consistent with low taxation.

For council there will be a keen contest—seven candidates seeking election. They are: Edward Barker, John Palmer, David Sloan, Henry Hoffer, F. Trench and J. A. Sanderson. Miss Erma Churn of Weston spent Sunday with Miss Elsie Goulding.

The annual Christmas tree and concert of the Downsview Sunday School was a decided success. The program, largely given by the children, was exceedingly well rendered and reflects much credit upon Miss Beynon, who had the children in charge. Rev. Herbert Lee of Huttonville rendered some rich recitations, which were received with much applause.

SCARBORO BY ACCLAMATION.

Ratepayers Decide to Let Council Have Another Year in Office.

WOBURN, Dec. 28.—(Special.)—Scarboro Township Council were to-day elected by acclamation, at one of the quietest nomination gatherings held here in years. Kennedy's Hall was not more than half filled, lack of interest in the municipal affairs and the smallpox scare effectually shutting off all enthusiasm.

The nominees, together with their nominators, are:

For reeve: Reeve W. D. Annis, G. W. Thompson and Robert Thompson.

The farm is leased by David Smith and so rapidly did the flames spread that four horses, together with a lot of fowl, were destroyed. About $400 worth of hay and grain was also burned. Old Mother Hubbard used to look in her cupboard
For she wanted a change for each day,
And it all looked so tough that she threw out the stuff
And she now eats at Williams Cafe.
