FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

Saturday, April 23.

From a social point of view, nothing very exciting has taken place this week. Society women are too busily occupied at this season of the year with household duties to spare much time for the entertainment of their friends. Then, too, the seventh annual meeting of the Fredericton diocesan branch of the Women's Auxiliary which was held in this city the latter part of the week engaged the attention of many women who otherwise might be expected to enact the roll of hostess. The civic elections was another factor to be reckoned with in the making of a quiet week. In this connection the result of Tuesday's vote besides giving our city a new mayor, also provided us with a new mayoress, Mrs. James H. Frink, who, like her predecessor, has numerous friends in St. John who wish her every success in the performance of such duties as will naturally fall to her share as the wife of the city's chief executive officer.

The theatre has been unusually well patronized this week and has been the occasion of many small dinners and "after the play" suppers. Kerr McLeod, Miss Leslie Smith, Mr. W. H. Thorne, Mr. James G. Harrison, Mr. Joseph Stone.

The Honorable Miss Macnaghten, daughter of Lord Macnaghten, who attracted such favorable notice at the Women's Auxiliary meetings by her interesting addresses on foreign missionary work, was, while in the city, the guest of Mrs. James F. Robertson, Carleton street.

Pretty hand-painted place cards were also a feature of the decoration scheme. The prize winners were Mrs. R. Downing Paterson, Mrs. McKeown and Judge McKeown.
