A SUBWAY SYSTEM FOR QUEEN CITY

Special Committee Recommends as a Solution of Traffic Problem.

Toronto, July 14. — The board of trade today placed in the hands of the mayor important recommendations as to the city's policy as regard to street traffic, these recommendations being based on the investigation of a special committee, which has visited a number of larger American cities, and has also had the benefit of expert engineering advice.

The outstanding feature of the recommendations is the board of trade's approval of a subway system for Toronto. It points out that this is apparently the most feasible plan of getting rapid transit between the rapidly-extending residential areas and the central and manufacturing part of the city. It is understood that the cost of a moderately complete system would be eight or ten million dollars; a sum which could be financed easily, particularly if the half million dollars or more revenue which the city derives annually from the existing street railway company were diverted to that purpose. Members of the board of trade's committee, who have witnessed the operation of subways, are delighted with the speed and comfort secured.

SOME FOR TROOPS OTHERS AGAINST IT

Canadian Federation and Trades Congress at Odds Over Coal Strike.

Ottawa, July 14.—In regard to the demand for the withdrawal of troops from Glace Bay, Mr. J. W. Patterson, president of the Canadian Federation of Labor, says: "This is the beginning of the war for the emancipation of the Canadian workmen from American domination. The troops have a perfect right to be there when there are imported Belgians going around with knives in their hands, and it is for Canadians to have some form of protection. While the Canadian Federation of Labor did not, according to this morning's dispatch, ask that the troops be retained, I believe they should be, and the Canadian Federation of Labor will give every assistance in its power to help the Provincial Workmen's Association. There is some ulterior motive in this demand.

"The demand for the withdrawal of the troops contains no subterfuge on our part for the use of violence when they have been withdrawn," said Mr. P. M. Draper, secretary of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress.
