Junction Takes a Peculiar Stand With Regard to the Injuction re Isolation Hospital.

THREATENS TO FREE PATIENTS

If the Injunction on the Motion of W. H. Taylor is Granted—East Toronto Notes.

Toronto Junction, March 22.—The salary of $700, voted by the Council to Police Magistrate Ellis, has been confirmed by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council.

The pupils of Annettee-street school have subscribed $34.41 to the India Famine Fund.

The High School Literary Society have decided to hold their annual concert on April 16. Harold Jarvis, J. H. Cameron and Harold Bayley are the artists.

In view of the motion of W. H. Taylor for an injunction to restrain the town from maintaining the Isolation Hospital 304 feet from his residence, when the statute provides that it must be 450 feet, Mr. C. C. Going, Town Solicitor, has instructed Dr. Bryce, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, that if the injunction is granted the town will cease to be responsible for the smallpox patients now in it, and will allow them their freedom to go where they will. There are still five patients in the hospital, all of whom have been able to be up to their meals for over two weeks, and all are apparently well, tho liable to spread the contagion.

Private Travis of Queen's-road has written to friends from Belmont, in which he says he "will try and bring home some Boer whiskers." Belonging to a Toronto regiment, $25 was sent him by the city. The Town Council here also sent him $25, and he was made to return the $25 which the city had sent him.

Among the transfers of real estate may be mentioned the purchase of the brick house on Louisa-street, lately occupied by Mr. Willis for $2250 by Mr. Mercer of Toronto. Mr. Mercer is employed in the Massey-Harris works, and is now in Paris attending to the display of the firm for the coming Exposition.

York County News.

A meeting to organize a rifle corps for Scarboro will be held in the curlers' club room, Ellesmere, on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Walsh of Jane-street, York Township, who was thrown out of a cutter in a runaway on Wednesday night, died at the Toronto General Hospital yesterday without recovering consciousness.

Markham High School has formed a cadet corps, with C. E. Fockler captain, H. Glendinning first lieutenant, F. Warriner second lieutenant, C. McClellan and C. K. Johnston Sergeants, P. A. Cross and F. A. Pilkey corporals, E. K. Moore lance corporal and G. V. McLean instructor.

Mr. John H. Reaner of Mount Joy says it is 17 years since there was sleighing to Toronto on the 22nd of March.

Magistrate Vanzant has issued a warrant for the arrest of Clayton Foster of Markham, who is charged under the Charlton Act with the seduction of his first wife's sister. Foster's first wife died 18 months ago, after a married life of less than a year. He married again on Dec. 20.

Humber Bay Schoolhouse is to have a bell. They also expect to put up a flagpole and have a flag ready to hoist in the breeze when Gen. Roberts enters Pretoria.

Alfred Gray of Newtonbrook, upon his departure for Manitoba, was presented with an address and five books by the Epworth League of the Methodist Church. The books comprised Wesley's sermons, Edersham's "Life and Times of Jesus," and "Land of the Boers."

George B. Little of Malvern, writing to his sister, Mrs. John Lawrie, just before the battle of Paardeberg, says that 700 Americans, who came out on their own hook, many of whom were in the Spanish war, had joined the colonial forces. He lived on two hardtack biscuits the day of the Sunnyside battle, and speaks in descriptive language of the "dust devils," as whirlwinds are called there.

The dairy maids' social at Islington on Tuesday was a big success. Rev. Simpson presided. County Councillor J. D. Evans gave a song, Miss Olga Streight gave a recitation, and an attractive program was rendered and refreshments served by the following dairy maids: The Misses Evans, Coulter, Davis, Johnson, Irwin, Ide, Streight, Scott and Southwell.

Unionville.

Mr. Edward Dixon, an aged and highly esteemed farmer, residing on the fifth concession of Markham, some two miles from this village, died last evening. Deceased was a man of remarkably strong constitution, and, altho in his 89th year had only been confined to the house for a few days previous to his death. He was a native of Yorkshire, England, and emigrated to this country some 52 years ago, settling in the township of Albion, afterwards removing to Markham, near Hagerman, where he has since resided. He was predeceased by his wife some 38 years, and leaves behind him four daughters and one son. He was an adherent of the Methodist Church, and in politics a Liberal-Conservative, a man of quiet and retiring disposition, and a good neighbor.

Quiet Wedding.

On Monday, March 19, at Richmond Hill, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McBride was the scene of a quiet but very pretty wedding, when their youngest daughter, Ada J. McBride, was married to Jackson Allison of Moose Jaw, Assa. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. N. Wellwood. Miss M. Worth of Toronto was bridesmaid, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. J. Horner. The bride was dressed in a beautiful traveling suit of grey, with silk waist. A large number of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present, amongst whom were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Allison, father and mother of the groom, of Moose Jaw, Assa.; W. J. McBride of Toronto, eldest brother of the bride; Frank McBride and wife of Warren, Ohio, U.S.; Mr. and Mrs. McBride, uncle and aunt, of Alliston; Mr. and Mrs. F. Lloyd of Aurora; Mr. S. Dunn and daughter, Mrs. Isaac McBride and daughter of King, Mr. John and Mrs. S. McBride, Mrs. Samuel McBride and son, Richmond Hill, and Mrs. R. H. Gould of Toronto.

The presents were many, some of which were beautiful and costly, but all useful. Mr. and Mrs. Allison will make their home near Moose Jaw, Assa., where he owns a beautiful and well-cultivated farm.

East Toronto.

East Toronto, March 22.—Mrs. Carruthers and family, who have lately become residents of the village, entertained a number of villagers and city folk at their home in Gerrard-street on Tuesday evening.

County Councillor James Ley has decided on building himself a handsome brick residence this spring, and has let the contract to Mr. D. Heron.

The funeral of Miss Emily E. Taylor, fourth daughter of Mr. George Taylor, Don Mills, took place this afternoon to the Don Mills Cemetery, where the last sad rites were performed by Rev. E. C. Laker and Rev. Mr. Booth.

Weston.

Weston, March 22.—Thompson Porter of Clairville, who is moving on to the farm of James Dennis at Mount Dennis, accidentally fell on some ice, and was rendered unconscious for a considerable time.

The teachers of Weston Public school will give illustrations in the old and new methods of teaching on the evening of Friday, March 30. Adults are invited.

Rev. Dr. Parker of Toronto Junction will preach a missionary sermon in the Methodist Church on Sunday evening. The R. T. of T. will have charge of the gospel meeting in the Town Hall in the afternoon.

Sudden Death of a Priest.

Mr. David Lynett, who resides near Richmond Hill, received a telegram yesterday morning announcing the death of his brother, Rev. Father Lynett, in New York, on Tuesday last. Deceased had only been in New York about one month on a visit, and within the past few days had contracted pneumonia, which terminated fatally. He was well-known in Toronto and this vicinity, and for some time had a charge at Uxbridge, subsequent to which he had been engaged in mission work. Deceased was born near Richmond Hill and received his education in Montreal and Toronto. He had been in the ministry about 15 years, and was only a little over 40 years of age. The body will be brought to Toronto, and the interment will be made in the family plot at Thornhill.

Aurora.

Daniel Browning was charged before Magistrates Love, Petch and Lloyd with fraudulent removal, and judgment was reserved. The charge was preferred by Mr. George Stewart, from whom Browning rented a farm, and removed his goods before rent-day arrived.

Mr. Dennis Elliott and Mr. Hugh Scott left here on Wednesday morning with their families for the Northwest.

Mayor Doville presided over a meeting on Tuesday afternoon for the formation of a branch of the Red Cross Society. The ladies elected to fill the initial official positions were: President, Mrs. F. T. Doville; vice-president, Mrs. William Winter; secretary, Mrs. T. H. Lennox, and treasurer, Mrs. J. J. Hartmann, proceedings to accumulate a substantial fund were started at the meeting.

The pupils of Oak Ridges Public School assisted by some good outside talent will give a concert at the school house on Monday evening next. As the total proceeds are to go to the Indian Famine Fund, a crowded house is confidently looked for.

Mr. Harold Macdin, who left here with the first contingent, has written an acknowledgment of the subscription forwarded to him, and says he has been confined to the hospital with fever, but was then convalescent.

Mr. G. S. Baldwin, proprietor of the Aurora flour mills, is suffering from a badly sprained arm, caused by falling on the ice on Tuesday last.

North Toronto.

The private bill of the Metropolitan Railway has been set down for hearing by the committee of the local House for this day week, and the Toronto Suburban Railway bill for Tuesday of next week.

The congregation of St. Clements Church, Eglinton, are hopeful of getting set apart as a distinct parish by the bishop, at Easter.

The Rev. F. Woods spoke to the gathering at the Merton-street Mission last evening, on his missionary experiences in India.

A special meeting of the Town Council will be held to-night to discuss the action they should take in respect to the Metropolitan's present application to the local legislature. The session will be confined to the members of the Council.

The theft of horses from George Brown of Davisville some months ago is leading to entanglements. Mr. F. Muldoon, near Thornhill, bought one of the horses, and was notified not to dispose of the animal as it was stolen. He has, however, sold the horse, and under instructions from County Crown Attorney Dewart Muldoon will now be prosecuted, and Chief Lawrence has been instructed to proceed in the case.

Hagerman.

Wednesday was a beautiful bright spring day in the vicinity of Hagerman, and all the more pleasant, because Cupid had not been idle during the long cold weather of the past few weeks. At "Honeyview," the residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. Milliken, about 100 invited guests assembled to witness the marriage of their youngest daughter, Miss Emmeline, to Robert J. Duffield, both of this place. Precisely at 5 p.m. the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Ethel Harry, were heard thruout the spacious rooms, and the bride came in, leaning on her father's arm, and took her place beneath a canopy of lace curtains and floral decorations. The sun beamed thru a window in the rear, adding much to the fairy-like scene. Rev. W. Walker of Unionville performed the solemn ceremony and soon pronounced them man and wife. The bride wore a beautiful dove blue cashmere dress, trimmed with pearl satin ribbon, over which was delicately arranged chiffon lace and baby ribbon, and carried a shower bouquet.

Miss Maggie May Milliken, sister of the bride, similarly attired, acted as bridesmaid, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. Robert Stonehouse of Milliken.

The presents were numerous and costly, which showed the esteem in which the bride was held in the community.

Among the invited guests were: Mr and Mrs Alexander of Toronto, Mr and Mrs S Hagerman of Toronto, Mr D Musselman of Toronto, Misses M Milloy, H Burnett, M Tomlinson, B Haley, L Noble of Toronto, Mr and Mrs N Hagerman, Mr and Mrs William Brown, Mr and Mrs N Malcolm, Mr and Mrs W A Morgan, Mr and Mrs R French, Mr and Mrs P Morris of Port Perry, Mr and Mrs R J Cunningham, Mr and Mrs G W Gilbank, Mr and Mrs W A Noble, Mr and Mrs B Northcott, Mrs A Armstrong, Mrs French, Mrs Burnett, Mrs Varden, Misses J Adams, M Smith, I Stonehouse, M Morgan, S Noble, E Harry, Mrs J Smith, A and J McCaul, Miss M Walker, L and M Duffield of Hespeler, L J Hagerman, Messrs A Harry, T and H Burnett, J and R French, L H Armstrong, T Brown, W H Hood, L Morgan, W Duffield, W Walker, H and C Smith and many others.

After spending a social evening in games, music, etc., the happy couple left for their own home, amidst showers of rice and old boots, also the congratulations of those present.

The home of Mr. James Payne, lot 7, con. 5, was the scene of a pretty wedding at 4 p.m., when his only daughter, Ada, became the happy bride of Mr. Henry Smith of Unionville. Rev. Mr. Walker officiated. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties were present and showered congratulations on the happy couple.

A Magic Pill—Dyspepsia is a foe with which men are constantly grappling, but cannot exterminate. Subdued, and to all appearances vanquished, in one, it makes its appearance in another direction. In many the digestive apparatus is as delicate as the mechanism of a watch or scientific instrument, in which even a breath of air will make a variation. With such persons disorders of the stomach ensue much suffering. To these Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are recommended as mild and sure. ed

JOHN C. WARD IN DETROIT JAIL.

Alleged Toronto Man, Charged With Breach of Promise, Already Has a Wife, Who is With Him.

Detroit, Mich., March 22.—John C. Ward, charged with breach of promise by Ethel Young, and now in the county jail on a capias in default of $1500 bail, is a native of Toronto, Ont., and an intelligent traveling salesman for a piano house. Two months ago he came to Detroit on business, leaving his young wife in Canada. He met Ethel Young, who now declares that Ward promised to marry her. Ward cannot be shut up with a common offender because his is a civil suit, and he can be held only so long as the person serving the capias pays his board, which must be in advance. Ethel, the complainant, must pay his board, and as the county jail rates are high she is paying dearly for the privilege of keeping Ward locked up. Ward's wife has come from Toronto and visits him every day.

Smallpox at Columbia University.

New York, March 22.—A case of smallpox has developed at Columbia University and to-day health department officials visited the law department and subjected every student to vaccination. The sick man is a student in that department. The students are taking the affair calmly, and it is said that none of them will leave school.

Children Gave to Patriotic Fund.

Kingston, March 22.—The Public School children of Kingston have contributed $111.57 to the Patriotic Fund, and of this amount the Collegiate Institute, with an attendance of over 300, contributed only $9.

Sergeant-Major Caldwell and Sergts. Rolston and Pense of the Royal Military College, leave to-night for Toronto, to represent the Military College in a fencing contest with Varsity.
