Jeffries Wants to Fight.

New York, Nov. 12.—As a result of the challenge issued Saturday by James J. Jeffries, offering to fight Bob Fitzsimmons, Gus Ruhlin or Tom Sharkey, and a telegram from Fitzsimmons declining a match on account of engagements lasting until May next, Jeffries has made the following statement: "If Fitzsimmons does not come to terms by Wednesday I shall arrange to meet Ruhlin or Sharkey, on terms to be agreed upon. It is my intention to fight at least once a year. My choice of battle ground would be Nevada, for there we could go to a finish, and in such a contest there would be no doubt as to who is the better man." Billy Madden, Ruhlin's manager, telegraphed to-night that Ruhlin will at once post a forfeit to bind the match.

National Yacht and Skiff Club Banquet South African Hero.

The members of the National Yacht and Skiff Club on Saturday evening entertained at dinner Pte. G. S. Ellis, a member of the club who had just returned with the R.C.R. from South Africa. About 60 members sat down to an excellent dinner, Commodore G. H. Day presiding. On the guest of the evening being introduced, the company rose and sang "Soldiers of the Queen." After dinner Commodore Day gave a stirring and patriotic address, referring to the causes of the war and its lessons, and concluded by presenting Mr. Ellis with a handsome silver cup as a memento of the occasion.

Pte. G. S. Ellis responded, and thanked the members for the honor they had done him in electing him an honorary life member, and also gave some of his experiences in the campaign, especially Sunnyside and Paardeberg. Addresses were given by Vice-Commodore Ellis, Captain Riley, Mr. Martin, Mr. Thanner, sr., and Mr. Collett, and songs, etc., were contributed by Messrs. Rabjohn, Scott, Tillie, Rowntree, Drummond, Davidge, Riley, Wrigley and Captain Hall. It was at a very late hour when the party broke up, having spent an evening which will long be remembered by all who were present.

To Test Hanlan's Style.

New York, Nov. 12.—The annual fall regatta of the Columbia University boat crews was postponed from last Saturday afternoon on account of rough water until next Wednesday, when it will take place on the Hudson. The four-oared race between the two contesting varsity crews attracts much interest as a comparison of two different strokes. Last year's crew, composed of Bradley, Weeks, Mount and Laurence, have adopted the stroke of the new coach, Hanlan, while Armstead, Schroeder, Fiske and Bartow will stick to the old style of rowing taught by Dr. Peet, who was superseded by Ed. Hanlan last month.

Some Rugby Notes.

If McGill win here on Saturday they will be intercollegiate champions.

The Argonauts have no kick coming over the loss of Saturday's match.

Varsitystill holds out hopes of winning a game this season, by defeating McGill on Saturday on Athletic Field.

Varsity II. team lay their defeat at the door of the senior team, as they took several men from their ranks.

Shortly after Saturday's game the Mulock Cup games will commence. There will be the same number of teams entered this season as last.

The exact amount of Saturday's gate at Rosedale was $653.75. The expenses will be about $200, and this will leave $450 to be divided between the two clubs.

Varsity players are all back from Kingston, and the only excuse they have to offer for their defeat is that they were not a good enough team to defeat Queen's.

It looks as if there might be a dispute over the dividing of Saturday's gate. The matter will be settled at a meeting of the O.R.F.U. Executive Committee on Wednesday night.

HORSES AT BENNINGS' TRACK

The Washington Jockey Club to Make a Specialty of Steeplechases.

UP TO LAST DAY AT LATONIA.

Only Two Favorites Win at Lakeside—Aqueduct and Oakland Results.

Washington, Nov. 12.—The autumn meeting of the Washington Jockey Club is but a few days off, and already horses are pouring in, and the stabling facilities (not alone at the track but at Ivy City and in the village) will be taxed to the utmost. Superintendent James Lee to-day engaged all the available stalls at the old Ivy City track, over 100 in number.

Among the recent arrivals are W. P. Burch, with the good handicap horse Decanter, Asquith, Gen. Mart Gary, Knight of Rhodes, Oneck Queen and 14 others.

The popular gentleman jockey, W. C. Hayes, has Cheesem.te, Bellamy, Daughtsman and Firebrand. Mr. H. Rozier Dulaney has Facue, Sackett and two qualified hunters. Mr. L. Waterbury has Billy Ellis, Long Isle and several others, under the competent management of Ed. Cook. The steeplechase jockey, Gwyn Thompkins has three. Mr. W. Fred Presgrave has Decamron and several others, fresh from the meeting of the Maryland Steeplechase Association.

J. Sykes has Tip Gallant and three others. C. G. Johnson has Speedmass and Thermos, all fit and ready. Mr. Henry Harrison's Ellen Terry looks hard as nails, and should surely win a maiden race. V. W. Powers' Gwynn, the 100 to 1 shot, is thoroly fit.

The program booked for the first seven days has been issued; it includes six races each day, and the trainer who does not find a race to suit him is indeed hard to please.

Few sports are more popular to the racing public than hurdle races and steeplechases, and the Washington Jockey Club has provided most liberally for such races at their meeting, Nov. 17 to Dec. 5. The most important of such races is the Hunters' Champion Steeplechase, which closes Nov. 1, and the entries embrace most of the prominent hunt clubs in the United States and Canada, including the Genesee Valley, the Ballston, Meadow Brook, Pine Hill, Piedmont, Warrenton and Rose Tree Hunt Clubs. Each club has the right to start as many horses as desired, so the field should be a large one.

Other of the fixed events between the flags are the Hunters' Trial Steeplechase (in which the winner of the Hunters' Champion of 1899 is barred), the renewal of the Hunters' Champion Steeplechase and many other overnight hurdle races and steeplechases.

Gwyn Thompkins has at the track Frond Becky Rolfe and Sir Dick. Mr. Thompkins has had a most successful season in the west, and returns to Washington with more than his share of the western gold.

It is well worth a trip to the pretty racecourse at Bennings to have a look at the wonderful little mare Frond (probably the smallest mare ever won a steeplechase). In her races in the west she met and defeated all the best timber-toppers, starting 20 times, winning nine races and placed in 11. She stands but 14 hands 3 inches in height, and weighs but 850 pounds. She is very thorobred looking, but looks more like a sprinter with a preference for 100 pounds than like a mare that can win full course steeplechases with big weight up.

Becky Rolfe also added her share to the supply of winter oats in the barn, as she was a good and consistent winner.

Bean Ideal is a Washington favorite, as all racegoers remember his defeating the black wonder, Imp. He has just returned from a hard season in Canada, and is receiving a special preparation for the long distance races offered at Bennings, and Mr. Edward Hanna thinks well of his chance at anything over a mile, as he is especially partial to this track.

The influx of horses will not begin until the close at Aqueduct, but still there are enough horses at the track to show the interest manifested.

Not alone has the quantity of horses increased, but the quality as well, and Nov. 17 will see most of the best handicap horses in the east waiting for the post as well of the close of the racing season of 1900.

Bad Starting at the Aqueduct.

New York, Nov. 12.—Bad starting again marred the racing at Aqueduct to-day. In the third race the jockeys, with the exception of Thompson on Miss Mitchell, were in the act of pulling up when the flag was dropped. Cephalalgia was left at the post, and by the time the field had gone half a mile Miss Mitchell and Come to Order were ten lengths before the field, which was strung out for a furlong. Miss Mitchell won by 10 lengths, while the favorite, Leon Ferguson, was second, four lengths before Fatalist. Two favorites won, Sir Florian in the fourth and Bebette in the fifth. Sir Florian made all the running, and won easily from Borough, and Barbette, off none too well, closed with a rush, and won cleverly from the pacemaker, Alzora, Prince Richard, at 8 to 1, won the first race, ridden out, from the favorite, Godfrey, on whom Williams rode a careless race, and Military, at 8 to 1, was the second, a head before Glade Run and Roehampton. Roehampton and Military were off running, and made the race, while Glade Run was all but left. Roehampton recovered with him, however, and at the end was beaten only a short head. The Rhymer and Belle of Troy were equal favorites in the last race, but Kinniklinnick was first home. Shaw kept him well up all the way, and, coming away when The Rhymer stopped, he won cleverly from Belle of Troy. The weather was clear, the track fast and the attendance good.

First race, about 7 furlongs—Prince Richard, 108 (Henry), 8 to 1, and 3 to 1, 1; Godfrey, 113 (Williams), 11 to 5 and 9 to 10, 2; Water Cure, 117 (Littlefield), 9 to 2 and 8 to 5, 3. Time 1.30. Hurdlers' Handicap, Marlbert, Gold Lace and Tinge also ran.

The Day at Lakeside.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Ohnet, even money favorite in the fourth race at Lakeside this afternoon, turned the tables on Knight Banneret, to whom he finished third on Saturday. Ohnet was always the choice in the betting, with Louisville and Knight Banneret equal second choices at 3-1. Ohnet and Royal Victor were the only two favorites to win. Hounds Meet To-Day.

The Hounds meet this afternoon at The Pines, West Bloor-street, at 3 o'clock.

Gossip of the Turf.

J. B. Ferguson, proprietor of the Kingston stud, is dead at a Lexington hospital. He was born in Louisville 56 years ago, and had been interested in thorobreds for 23 years. His brood mares that now grace Prince Royal and St. George, together with his young stock, are to be disposed of at the winter sale.

It turns out that Jet Waldo, the crack western lightweight, who was signed by Edward Corrigan to ride for him in England next season, is also to sport the colors of the horses that Richard Croker starts on the English tracks. It is reported that John will try to make an effort to have Jockey Henry Spencer reinstated, and if they succeed he will ride for both of them abroad next season.

Crescent City Jockey Club events, to close this week, are: Inaugural Handicap, Manolia Selling, Palmetto Handicap, Preliminary Derby, Crescent City Derby, Christmas Handicap, New Orleans Handicap, New Year's Handicap, Auction Handicap, Jackson Handicap, Gentilly Handicap, Live Oak Handicap, Cotton Selling Stakes, Merchants' Handicap, Clubhouse Handicap, Mardi Gras Handicap, Southern Handicap, Speed Handicap, Oakland Handicap and Bush Cup Handicap.

It is said that James R. Keene's crack 2-year-old Commando has been sick since he was put in training and sent to the Brooklyn track for the fall campaign. Mr. Keene is a part owner of the colt, said that he did not know that there was anything wrong with the colt, and he pointed out the fact that if such was the case James Rowe, the trainer of all the Keene horses, would not be in the Adirondack Mountains. The only confirmation of the report comes from several of Mr. Keene's friends, who say that the colt has been on the ailing list for some time.

It looks as if there is trouble in store for Enoch Wishard, the American trainer, and Lester Reiff, the American rider, over the performances of a Richard Croker's colt, Scotchman II. It seems that in a race at Doncaster, Lord Durham had a horse in the race named Gerolstein, that beat Scotchman II. by a neck. On Friday the two ran again and Scotchman II. reversed things by winning away off. Lord Durham lodged a complaint with the stewards, and Reiff and Wishard will both have to appear at the investigation. The friends of Wishard and Reiff on this side of the water fear that the case will go hard against them, owing to the fact that Lord Durham is one of the stewards of the English Jockey Club.

Entries to the Coney Island Jockey Club stakes, which have big amounts added, will close on Thursday. The principal one is the Century, for 3-year-olds and upward, at 1½ miles, and it will have its closing for 1901, 1902 and 1903. The race for next year has a guaranteed value of $10,000. For 1902 it will be raised to $15,000 and for 1903, $20,000. Then there is the Champion Stakes, for 3-year-olds and upward, at 2¼ miles, which has a value of $25,000. For the June meeting of 1902 there is the Tidal, a race for 3-year-olds, worth $20,000, at 1¼ miles, and the Mermaid, for 3-year-old fillies, value $5000, 1 mile and 1 furlong. For 1901 there are two 2-year-old stakes to close the Foam, value $4000, and Surf, also at $4000, both to be run at the June meeting. The Great Filly Stakes, for 2-year-olds of 1902, worth $20,000, will also close. Another big stake will be the Lawrence Realization of 1903, with $10,000 added, for 3-year-olds at that time, at 1 mile 5 furlongs.

Certificate by Dr. Clark, Glasgow.

I have made a careful analysis of a fair sample of the Distillers' Company's stock of Very Old Special Scotch Whisky, taken by my assistant from the bonded stores in which it is lying ready for shipment, and the results of my analysis indicate that it is a pure whisky, which has been matured for a long time in wine casks, and I am of opinion that it is exceptionally mild to the taste and of fine flavor.

Peter Ryan's Overcoat Stolen.

Police Constable Childs yesterday arrested Robert McKenzie of 188 West Kingstreet, on a warrant charging him with stealing an overcoat, the property of Mr. Peter Ryan. McKenzie secured employment a few days ago from Mr. Ryan to go to work in a lumber camp up north. Before he started Mr. Ryan gave him an overcoat to take to his son, who was in charge of the work, but instead of doing so, it is alleged he pawned the garment.
