HAMILTON TIGERS SPRING SURPRISE, DEFEATING ST. PATRICKS IN OVERTIME

Coutre Scoring Winning Goal After Five Minutes of Extra Period—Winners Had Makeshift Team, Matte Working With Metal Protector for His Broken Thumb.

As a bunch of in-and-outers St. Pats pros take the cake. Against Ottawa the green shirts played like a bunch of fishermen and the fans left the Arena disgusted. Last Monday they went up to Hamilton and you couldn't have scared up a tin nickel to say they would beat Percy Thompson's crew, but they did. Saturday the black and yellow gentry came down here minus the services of Eddie Carpenter, their big defence man, and with only two subs. Joe Matte was one of these, and he had a broken thumb. Dr. Hand of Hamilton came down with him, producing a metal protector for the French boy. No one conceded the "Ham ands" a chance, but in spite of Forbes being in goal they were returned winners 3 to 2 in a game which required overtime to decide. Couture landing the deciding goal after five minutes of the extra period had gone. They played to a capacity house.

St. Pats played as tho all they had to do was to skate around for an hour and then retire as the winners. Joe Malone made a big difference to the mountaineers, but the Irish didn't tumble to the situation very quickly and seemed satisfied that with Carpenter off and Matte badly bunged up, they could pull the whip any old time and win. Thru the first period they pestered around as tho they had no special business on hand, and both sides retired without a goal having been scored.

After ten minutes of the second period had gone St. Pats found themselves behind 2 to 0 and the score board showing Canadiens trimming the Ottawa outfit at Montreal, they set in to play some hockey, but found Lockhart unbeatable. Frank Carroll must have read the riot act to them before they started the third period, as they came out with fire in their eyes and they backed the visitors up on their own nets and pelted the life out of Lockhart, but the latter was going great guns.

St. Pats Score One.

Dye finally caught him napping with a shot from the left boards, following in fast, grabbing the rebound and tallying after twelve minutes of play. From then on the whole St. Pats team were up front, and the Bengals couldn't get away from their end. Dennenay got possession during a scramble behind the Hamilton goal, passed out to Dye and "Babe" tallied again with only a minute to go, and the crowd went mad. Hamilton were dying fast, and St. Pats looked like 1 to 5 shots to win in overtime. Just after the extra period started Dye took a pass from Wilson and scored, but the goal was disallowed for an offside. The crowd sat back as tho it would be just a matter of time until St. Pats scored, and it sure looked like it, but after five minutes of play Mr. Couture sallied down the left side, locoed Randall and beat Forbes with a nice shot, and the war was over.

St. Pats lost a grand opportunity to get in the hunt, as Canadiens beat Ottawa, but overconfidence lost for them. Forbes made a big difference in the nets, but Lockhart looked just as good for Hamilton. At that St. Pats got all the breaks, too. The visitors got a goal in the second period that was disallowed because Malone was loafing in front of the net. It wasn't very flagrant either. The tactics St. Pats adopted in Hamilton and which resulted in victory were tossed to the winds, and instead a lot of petty slashing, butt ending and cross-checking was indulged in. Dennenay and Wilson were the worst offenders and drew down a major foul each, making their team play a man short and without accomplishing any useful result. Had they been penalized for heavy checking the sacrifice would have been justified, but they spent time in the "klink" to no purpose.

Tigers Played Good Hard Game.

Hamilton played a good, hard, clean game. Of course Malone seldom went back of the loafers' area in mid-ice, but he was right there on every attack when he was wanted. Lockhart, in goal, easily stood out and gave a remarkable performance. Carey was next in order, and it was his back-checking that broke up St. Pats play. Prodgers played a hard game, taking a lot of punishment without a whimper, and landed the "Hams" first goal. For a man with a broken thumb Mattee gave a fine exhibition and landed a goal, too. Couture was consistent all night and had the kick left in the overtime session to get the winning counter.

Dye was much the best for St. Pats and must have plastered fifty shots on Lockhart. He got a fairly rough passage, one crack under the chin opening up a gash that required some attention. Dye has two front teeth that he takes out during the games, and had it not been for this would have bitter his tongue off when Couture whaled him on the chin. Forbes was real good, but the defence was rotten. Stewart, the Nova Scotian, missed his train connection at Montreal and did not arrive in time for the game. He couldn't have been any worse than the other pair.

Of course, the game wasn't without feature, and the final period and overtime gave plenty to enthuse over. Every seat in the place was filled, and standing-room was at a premium. The start of the game was delayed fifteen minutes, as the street was black with people at 8.30 waiting to get in. The Arena has all kinds of devices to gather all the tickets, but they are slower than molasses at selling tickets and getting the crowd in.

HOCKEY GOSSIP

Thru a typographical error McMaster University juniors were scheduled to play a junior O.H.A. game with De La Salle at the Arena on Thursday afternoon. McMaster will play Varsity III. on Wednesday afternoon, January 12, at 4 o'clock and the correct date for the McMaster-De La Salle game is Tuesday, January 18, at 4 o'clock. The error made it necessary to rearrange the practice hours at the Arena for Thursday, January 13. The rearranged allotment of practice hours is as follows:

1.30 to 2 p.m., McMaster; 2 to 2.30 p.m., blank; 2.30 to 3 p.m., St. Michael's College; 3 to 3.30 p.m., De La Salle; 3.30 to 4 p.m., Upper Canada College; 4 to 4.30 p.m., St. Andrew's College; 4.30 to 5 p.m., U.T.S.; 5 to 5.30 p.m., blank; 5.30 to 6 p.m., Granites; 6 to 6.30 p.m., Argonauts; 6.30 to 7 p.m., Aura Lee (srs.); 8.30 p.m., Aura Lee juniors at Moose A. C. (junior O.H.A.).

The Ayre at Drumbo intermediate game scheduled for January 6 and which had to be postponed will be played on January 31. Jack Carmichael will referee the Port Hope at Trenton intermediate game tonight, and Bobby Hewitson goes to Bowmanville for the Oshawa game in that town. Bobby Hewitson also handles the Queen's at Belleville game in Belleville on Tuesday night, and H. H. Jacobi will be in charge of the Meaford at Alliston game the same night.

Hamilton Tigers will play against the University of Toronto team here tomorrow night in an O.H.A. senior game, and the fixture is sure to attract another large crowd. Tigers have a habit of making local teams step all the way on the big ice surface at the Arena, and this season should prove no exception to the rule. Both teams have victories to their credit over Aura Lee, U. of T. nosing the red and white out in overtime, and the Bengals doing the trick in the regulation hour's play. Tigers will be stronger than they were for the game against Aura Lee, as Ag Smith, their big defence player, has recovered from his injuries, and the substitutes, Rivard and Naylor, have been showing improved form. Every time the collegians start the fans know what to expect of them. Win or lose, they will be battling from end to end. The tickets go on sale at the Arena at noon today.

At Cleveland—The Cleveland hockey team on Saturday night defeated the Argonauts of Toronto, 8 to 2.

At Boston—Harvard's hockey team won easily from King's College of Windsor, N.S., 9 to 1, in the opening game of the Crimson season Saturday night. The playing of Buntin, a Harvard substitute, who scored five goals, and of Captain Bigelow of Harvard featured.

MAJOR AND MINOR MAGNATES GATHER TO DRAFT NEW BASEBALL AGREEMENT

The Bushers Meet Today and the Big Leaguers Tomorrow and Wednesday—National and American Schedules to Be About the Same as Last Year.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 8.—Numerous conferences between baseball club owners and managers, who are gathering here for the three meetings next week, when the major and minor leagues will attempt to reach an agreement under which both will operate, today kept the air filled with rumors concerning action which might be taken when the sessions open, but the only official action was the opening of the major league schedule committee meeting.

While no official announcement concerning the work of this committee was made, it was said that the two leagues virtually had agreed to open their playing seasons on Wednesday, April 13, and to play the usual season of 154 games. The committe, consisting of President Ban Johnson of the American League, William Harridge, his secretary, President John Heydler of the National League, and Barney Dreyfuss of the Pittsburg Club, did not expect to finish its work before Monday.

Minors Meet on Monday.

Most of the magnates who reached here today were representatives of minor leagues. The minors meet Monday, the majors will hold separate meetings Tuesday, and Wednesday representatives of all leagues in organized baseball will hold a joint meeting to act on plans for the government of baseball, which have been decided on by the different organizations in the Monday and Tuesday sessions.

M. H. Sexton, president of the National Association of Minor Leagues, said tonight that he would demand that action be taken against baseball players who have played during the past winter on the same teams with members of the Chicago White Sox who were indicted by the Cook County grand jury for alleged complicity in the "throwing" of games in the 1919 world series. Six members of organized baseball teams have been playing winter baseball on the Pacific Coast on the same team with Fred McMullin, one of the men indicted, he said.

Opposed Many Suggestions.

Most of the minor league club owners here today represented the faction led by George Maines of the Michigan-Ontario League, which has opposed many of the preliminary suggestions for an agreement between the majors and minors.

Mr. Maines tonight reiterated previous statements that he did not think the minors would stand for an agreement which placed them under the supervision of the baseball commissioner unless they were assured that no commissioner not meeting with their approval could be chosen. They were not opposed to Judge Landis, it was said, but felt they must be assured that any successor to him would meet with their approval.

President Johnson, of the American League tonight said that there would be no difficulty over the reported opposition of some minor leagues to the draft, so far as the majors were concerned.

"The majors obtain very few good men thru the draft, and I think most of the club-owners will not insist that it be restored," said Mr. Johnson.

THE TAIL-ENDERS BEAT CHAMPIONS

Canadiens Outplay Ottawa, Winning by One Goal—Lalonde Starred.

Montreal, Jan. 9.—Furnishing the greatest surprise of the professional hockey season, Canadiens, tail-enders in the National League standing, defeated the champion Ottawa team on Saturday at the Mount Royal Arena here by five to four after a gruelling exhibition of hockey. Canadiens won because they sent out the better team, and the advantage held by them was noticeable thruout the play. Altho the champions tied the score twice and showed in front for a short time in the second period, they were never able to hold Canadiens in check, and were outplayed the greater part of the time. Newsy Lalonde was the outstanding player on the ice, engineering the majority of the attacks and accounting for three of the five goals, scoring two himself and assisting in the goal scored by Arbour in the opening of the second period. At the commencement of each period Canadiens started with almost an entirely different forward line, and this again was invariably changed before the period was more than half complete. Ottawa could not do this, and moreover, suffered a good deal from penalties and accidents.

The only demonstration occurred during the third, when Lalonde scored a goal that was disallowed by Referee Smeaton. The ruling of the official brought cheering and booing in turn. Lalonde showed a display of temper, and grabbed Smeaton in the heat of argument, but got away with it without a penalty. The penalties imposed were only minor ones with one exception, that being when Boucher tossed Berlinquette by a deliberate trip, and was given a major. Ottawa being forced to play a man short while the penalty lasted.

Canadiens Determined.

From the face-off Canadiens showed determination to break into the win column, and never let up in their aggressive tactics. They were the first to attack, and altho Benedict saved Pitre's first shot, he was lucky. Time and again the Canadiens worked in past the Ottawa defence to get shots at Benedict, Lalonde scoring the first goal on a pass from Pitre on the wing. That tally gave Canadiens confidence, and they attacked more vigorously thruout the remaining time. It was not until after Lalonde scored the second goal that Canadiens made a mistake. With a two-goal advantage they played back in a strictly defensive manner, which enabled Gerard to score from outside the defence after carrying the puck from his own goal line. Shortly after Gerard scored Boucher, by spectacular play, worked his way inside the defence and tied the score just before the expiration of the period.

On starting the second period, Canadiens sent out Arbour, Cleghorn and Pitre to the line, giving Berlinquette and Lalonde a breathing spell. From the commencement of play Cleghorn carried the puck up the ice and shot, Benedict saved, and the attack was transferred to the opposite end, when Vezina was called on to make frequent saves from shots by the Ottawa forwards. Securing the puck after Vezina had cleared from a shot of Nighbor's, Cleghorn went almost the full length of the ice to shoot. Benedict stopped it, but before he could clear Arbour batted the puck into the nets, putting Canadiens again in the lead. Dropping back on the defence Canadiens again offered an opportunity to Ottawa. Nighbor skated over to the side and, accepting a pass from Boucher, beat Vezina. He repeated shortly after the face-off, and put Ottawa in the lead for the first and only time.

Ottawa One Man Short.

Following the scoring of Ottawa's goal Boucher was sent to the penalty bench. Darragh dropped back on the defence and Graham went up on the line, Berlinquette, who replaced Cleghorn, and Lalonde, who replaced Arbour, engineered a combined play from which Berlinquette was given an opportunity to tally and tie the score for the second time. With only a few minutes remaining in the period Ottawa played a three-men defence, satisfied to allow the issue to be decided in the final twenty minutes.

Commencing the third period, both clubs started their original team. Canadiens, as in the previous period, forced the pace and had Ottawa back on the defensive within a few minutes. Lalonde carried to Ottawa's end and shot, but was wide. He followed in and passed the puck out from behind the nets. In the scramble for the puck Mummery batted it into the nets, giving Canadiens the goal that counted their first victory and registered the first defeat this season against the champions. With almost sixteen minutes remaining to play, Canadiens determined to hold the advantage and played always four men back on the defence, allowing only one man to go up at a time. This forced Ottawa to do the puck carrying, and gradually wore them down. The Ottawa players were held far out and forced to shoot from long range, which detracted from the speed and accuracy of their shots. As the expiration time approached, Ottawa played every man with the exception of Benedict, up on the attack without results. They became almost desperate at times in their effort to tie the score, but the better generalship of the Canadiens' leader was invulnerable and held the odd goal advantage until the gong sounded.

WESTERN CANADA BASEBALL.

Edmonton, Alberta, Jan. 9.—That the Western Canada Baseball League will support the new national agreement only for the period of the chairmanship of Judge Landis, and not for the proposed 25 years, was the decision reached by the league at its annual meeting here Saturday. Proxy to represent the league at the meeting in Chicago Monday was wired to Mike Sexton, president of the National Association.

The salary limit of the league was raised from $2100 a month to $3000 a month. The schedule will open May 4 and close Labor Day (Sept. 5).

President Pearson spoke very strongly on the matter of gambling on baseball, and expressed the belief that even a friendly wager on games should pre prohibited.

Dominions Have Lineup That Looks Stall-Fed

Three Bank League fixtures will be staged at the Arena tonight. Dominion and Commerce senior teams will meet for the first time in the senior race, and in addition two intermediate games are on the program.

All-star teams have been gathered by both banks and the fight for the championship should be lively. Seven games are to be played and the winner of the majority will be pitted against the intermediate champions for the Toronto honors. Then it is on to Winnipeg, Ottawa and Montreal in an endeavor to lift the Canadian bankers' trophy.

The senior teams will use the following players: Dominion—Goal, Stone, late of De La Salle; defence, Connacher of Aura Lee and Crowther; forwards, Billy Burch of Aura Lee, Jack Aggett and Don Jeffrey of Granites. Commerce—Goal, Crook of Argos; defence, Lount of Argos and Thorpe, last year with the same team; forwards, Schnarr of Argos, Spence from Montreal, Keyes, late of Tillsonburg, and Lovett from Winnipeg Vics.

The intermediate games tonight are: Dominion at Montreal and Commerce at Union
