Reported Tragedy on Board a Saint John Ship.

RUMOR OF A WHOLE FAMILY MURDERED.

Rumors of a very painful character were current in this City this morning in regard to a shocking tragedy on board the St. John ship "Lizzie Fennel" now lying in Callao. The reports being of an extremely contradictory nature a reporter of this paper made every effort to ascertain the facts but was unable to do so, his application to the owners for information being met with a polite but firm refusal. It would seem however that Captain Mahoney, the commander of the vessel is reported to have taken the lives of his wife and two children, they composing his entire family. One rumor is to the effect that the act was committed by poisoning, but the story most generally circulated is that the throats of the victims were cut while Capt. Mahoney was mad with drink. A messenger was sent on by the Sunday night train in order to ascertain further particulars. It is said Capt. Mahoney is in custody on board the British man-of-war in Callao, having been placed there to save him from the fury of the mob, who would otherwise have lynched him. Capt. Mahoney belonged in this City and was well known, having sailed out of this port for many years past. His wife belonged in Portland. He is said to have been a kind hearted and quiet man when sober, but the reverse when under the influence of liquor. The "Lizzie Fennel" was owned by Messrs. T. McCarthy, T. Furlong, J. McSweeney and others.

A Forger Caught.

Charles Raymond, arrested at the Bangor House, Friday, on a charge of forgery, is suspected of being an old offender in the forging line. It appears that on Monday, 9th inst., the prisoner presented to W. Hawkes, Esq., a check for $100, drawn in the usual form on the Bank of New Brunswick, bearing the name of Lewis Carvell, Esq., General Superintendant of Railways, as drawer, and purporting to be passed by J. D. Lewin, Esq., President of the Bank. At Raymond's request, Mr. Hawkes states he advanced $25 on the check, and was to pay the balance on the following day. The check passed from Mr. Hawkes to Simeon Jones, Esq., in the regular way of business, and the latter suspected the name of Mr. Lewin to be forged. The matter was followed up until it was settled beyond doubt that the paper was forged. On Saturday he was arraigned, and pleaded not guilty, and was remanded until ten o'clock Friday morning. He is said to be of excellent business qualifications, having had positions in several of our best houses at different times.

Bogus Greenbacks.

Counterfeit American bills to a large amount have been put in circulation in this place. They are so well executed as to be very difficult of detection. We have already heard of several persons who have been seriously victimized by this bogus money, and it is to be feared that it has been operated in very extensively. We have been shown several hundred dollars of these bills, all of which have the appearance of being much worn. The public cannot be too much on their guard against this fraudulent money.—[Yarmouth Herald.

The British Templars.

The rapid growth of the order of British Templars must be gratifying to the friends of temperance. The annual report of the proceedings of the last session of the Worthy Grand Lodge has been published and shows that there are in the Province 371 Lodges, of which 23 were organized during the year. The total membership is 11,920. The number added during the year is 4,908, and the number withdrawing in the same time was 1621. There were 1079 suspended, 1452 expelled, and only 44 died. Of the large number of members only 515 are reported for violation of pledge. The Order is reported in a favorable position and great expectations of still further advancement this year are entertained.

Target Practice.

The riflemen who practice at the Bedford range, near Halifax, must shoot wild, or else very carelessly, as a ball from one of their rifles entered a parlor window and lodged in the wall.

Fatal Accident.

Yesterday a little boy, son of Mr. Henry Theakston, of this city, was fatally injured in Dartmouth. He was sitting on the top of a load of furniture, which was standing in the street. The horse attached to it started suddenly, throwing the boy to the ground, and one of the wheels passed over his body. He received prompt medical attention, but it was of no avail. He died last evening.—[Hal. Chronicle.

Breach of Promise.

Yarmouth is happy over its first breach of promise case. Hannah Purney was plaintiff and Richard Durkee defendant The Herald gives the following report of the case:—

The plaintiff alleged that she was residing at or near Boston, and while there received by letter a proposal of marriage from the defendant; that after some correspondence she accepted defendant, and in consequence came home to Yarmouth in the month of July, 1871, for the purpose of marrying him; that, after she arrived here, the defendant broke off the engagement and refused to marry plaintiff. The defence was that defendant was ready and offer the purpose of getting his license and having the marriage ceremony performed, but that the plaintiff told him she had not made up her mind and discharged him from his contract. The Jury found a verdict for plaintiff—damages twenty-five dollars.

Accident.

About half-past one o'clock to-day, a carpenter's maul fell from the foretopmast head of the new barkentine belonging to Messrs. J. & S. Leonard, lying at the new pier, Reed's Point, and striking a rigger named Edward Duke, injuring him severely, if not fatally. Duke, at the time, was standing in the forward house, looking aloft, when the instrument descended, splitting open his forehead. He was removed to his house on Harding street, and medical aid called. The injured man is about 40 years of age.
