BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, N. B., Aug. 30—The members of the Methodist church choir enjoyed a delightful picnic at Pine Bluff cottage, the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Carson and Miss Stella Robinson, Tuesday afternoon. This outing is an annual one, and a very jolly affair. Games of ball were the chief outdoor amusement. There were also short sails on the St. Croix in the yacht Thistle II, to pay visits to the cottages on the river bank. At 6 o'clock a sumptuous supper was served on the piazza. The weather was perfect, and the picnic was voted to be the best of the many enjoyed this season.

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Roberta Murchie and Miss Vera Young gave a "tin shower" in honor of Miss Margaret Murray Maxwell, at the home of Miss Murchie. There were a number of young ladies present and the affair was greatly enjoyed. A huge tin tub was filled with sawdust and all the tin articles were buried in it. On each article was the name of the doner and an original poem. Miss Maxwell was obliged to hunt out each gift. Before the hours of the "shower" came to an end ice cream and cake were served.

St. Stephen, Aug. 31.—This afternoon the road leading to the Old Ridge was gay with handsome carriages and buck boards filled with richly dressed occupants en route to the church at the Old Ridge to witness the marriage of Miss Margaret Murray Maxwell, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Maxwell, to Mr. Walter Kemp Murchie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Skiffington Murchie of Calais. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Millidge, rector of St. David's parish. Promptly at 4 o'clock the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Annie Porter, of St. Stephen, sounded through the church, and the groom entered and stood before the chancel steps attended by his groomsman, Mr. Will McLellan of Fredericton. In a few minutes the bride came leaning on the arm of her father, looking very fair and lovely in a dainty princess gown of white satin with trimmings of embroidered chiffon, white tulle and pearls. She wore a veil of tulle and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. She was followed by her bridesmaids, Miss Alice Maxwell and Miss Roberta Murchie, the former attired in a pretty dress of white silk, while Miss Murchie looked most attractive in a lovely gown of pink and white dresden grenadine over pink taffetta silk. Both maids carried bouquets of pink roses. After the ceremony the bridal party and guests went to the home of the bride's parents where a brilliant reception was held and refreshments were served. The bride changed her bridal costume for a stylish traveling gown of dark green with hat to match, and the happy young pair drove to Calais and left on the Washington county train for Boston. They will also visit New York and other cities. The wedding gifts were extremely handsome. There was a cheque from the bride's father for a goodly sum and much solid silver and cut glass. On the return of Mr. and Mrs. Murchie they will reside in the Kelley homestead on Hinckley Hill, Calais.
