W. M. ADAMS,

WALL STREET GOSSIP.

By private wire to Hanrahan & Co.: Although the bank statement was not as bad as had been predicted by bears it was not particularly reassuring. The money market continues easier at this point, to any man brokers, than at any other financial centre. Boston, Chicago, Philadelphia and Baltimore are paying higher rates than those current in this city. Time loans are quoted at 4 per cent. for 60 days, 4½ per cent. for 3 months and 5 per cent. for 12 months on dividend paying stocks and 1 per cent. higher on mixed collaterals. Some foreign bankers express the opinion that should the plan to reduce the rate of interest on consols to 2½ per cent. succeed, as there seems every probability of its doing, it will exert a favorable influence in American securities, and that foreign investors will become purchasers of all our good stocks. They admit that at present Europe shows little disposition to appear as a purchaser, and they attribute this to a lack of confidence growing out of the inner troubles, and the feeling that, pending the settlement of European political complications, some of the leading foreign bankers have reduced their lines to put themselves in funds and strengthen their position.

EUROPEAN AND MISCELLANEOUS.

The London market to-day was quiet. American securities showed a slight advance in the majority, though they were sparingly dealt in. The Bank of England rate remains at 2½ per cent.

Robt. Cochran received the following London quotations to-day: 12.30—Consols, 102 1-16 for money, and 102 3-16 for account; U. S. 4's 128; U. S. 4½s, 108½; Erie, 23¾; Erie 2nd, 98¾; C.P.R., 58¾; N.Y.C., 108¾; Ill. Cent., 117½.
