[illegible] Diocese who are aware that such a prayer exists in the Church of England Prayer Book, and nine out of every ten will [illegible] to know that it does exist, and desire that it be expunged as soon as possible. No Roman Catholic association could be stronger.

But the above is only carrying out the power given them by the the Ordination service of the Church of England, which the Bishop gives in the following words: "Receive the Holy Ghost for the office and work of a priest in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the imposition of our hands; whose sins thou dost forgive, they are forgiven; whose sins thou dost retain, they are retained; and be thou a faithful dispenser of the word of God, and of his holy sacraments; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen." We believe that your Bishop, or any other Bishop or Archbishop, and any other Priest or Deacon, or even anyone else, and we look upon the [illegible] by natural means or other abuse of [illegible] as can forgive sins but God.

[illegible] with reference to the Lord's Supper, we find the following question and answer: Question: What is meant by the sacrament of the Lord's Supper? Answer: The body and blood of Christ are not there in bread and wine, but are received by the faithful in the Lord's Supper. Now, my Lord, we don't believe this either, and we don't wish our children to be taught it. If we did believe these things, and if [illegible] of the faith of the Church of England, we are at a [illegible] Church of Rome, or why we today are proud to be [illegible]
