GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS.

Some years ago the bank at Dexter, Me., was robbed and cashier Barron was found dead, bound and gagged in the vault. The affair created a great sensation and it was generally believed since that Barron robbed the bank and committed suicide. On Wednesday of last week David L. Stair was arrested at Franklin, Mass., for his murder. His son has confessed and told how a gang led by his father planned and executed the robbery and murdered Barron.

A summary of the plan for the mobilization of the seventeenth French army corps, which was divulged by the Figaro, was found in the house of Gen. Caffare at Paris. A memorandum of sums of money received presumably from sales of decorations was found in Gen. D'Andlau's house. It is also reported that Gen. D'Andlau has gone to either Brussels or Berlin. Among those charged with being implicated in the scandal is Countess St. Sauveur.

The New York Herald has made a new and surprising departure in journalistic enterprise. In its issue of the 3rd instant it announced that on that day and thereafter the Herald will be printed and published simultaneously in Paris and New York. This is a long step in advance on the Herald of fifty years ago, whose proprietor, the late James Gordon Bennet, once sold papers on the street as a newsboy. The Herald is first in enterprise among the newspapers of the world.

For Rickets, Marasmus, and all Wasting Disorders of Children
Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, is unequaled. The rapidity with which children gain flesh and strength upon it is very wonderful. A week or two ago Simon Collet, who lives about midway between the Little and Big Boutouche River on the main road to Shediac found what is supposed to be a grave, in the woods on his farm. It was in swampy ground about 100 yards from the edge of the woods, and a quarter of a mile from the road. A few days after William Mooney dug down about two feet, when the water gushed up so fast that the hole was soon filled. It is conjectured that Perry, a French Canadian who disappeared mysteriously about two years from the house of Anthony White, is buried there.

Vital Questions

Of any school, what is the best thing in the world for quieting and allaying all irritation of the nerves and curing all forms of nervous complaints, giving natural, childlike refreshing sleep always? And they will tell you unhesitatingly "Some form of Hops!"

CHAPTER I

Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians:

"What is the best and only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs; such as Bright's disease, diabetes, detention or inability to retain urine and all the diseases and ailments peculiar to Women

Ask the same physicians

"What is the most reliable and surest cure for all liver diseases or dyspepsia constipation, indigestion, biliousness, malarial fever, ague, &c.," and they will tell you:

"Mandrake! or Dandelion!"

After all the evidence in the Mitchellstown case, was submitted, Harrington, who appeared against the men charged with shooting, asked that a verdict of wilful murder be returned against head constable Brownrigg and five policemen, who fired under his general order. Harrington accused constable Brownrigg of deliberately planning murders. The jury rendered a verdict of murder against Inspector Brownrigg, sergeants Kirwan, Ryder, Brennan, and constables Gavan and Doran. The coroner issued warrants for the arrest of the men found guilty.

On a recent occasion Roman Catholic and Anglican clergymen performed jointly the religious services in connection with the presentation of new colors to a regiment. This is said to be the first time this has taken place since the Reformation. The colors were presented by the Marchioness of Londonderry, at the Curragh camp, to the Fifth Battalion of the Royal Dublin Fusiliers. The battalion having been formed up in square and the new colors placed on an impromptu altar formed by the drums of the corps, the Rev. F. Sadlier, senior military chaplain in Ireland, and the Rev, F. R. N. Norman Lee, chaplain of the Curragh Brigade, and their Roman Catholic colleague, the Rev. L. Dillon, vested alike in short surplice, cassock, stole and biretta, entered the square. The latter recited in English two collects from the Special Office for the Blessing of Standards in the Pontificale Romanum, after which the hymn, "Brightly gleams our Banner" was sung, and the Anglican chaplain said the collect sanctioned by the War Office for the occasion.
