MR. LENNOX'S BILL

Architect of Toronto's City Hall Puts in Bill for $181,225 75.

Toronto, Jan. 21.—The bill of Mr. E. J. Lennox, architect of the new city hall, against the City of Toronto for $181,225 75, for alleged services in connection with the erection of that costly edifice, is likely to be contested by the city. Corporation Counsel Fullerton this morning reported upon the bill and recommended that no further payments be made to Mr. Lennox, but that the latter be allowed to sue for his account if he wanted it. The total cost of the city hall was $2,262,181 97, exclusive of the architect's fees. Mr. Fullerton figured that Mr. Lennox, under the agreement was entitled to $71,865 45, of which $61,000 had been paid to him.

INDEPENDENT LABOR PARTY

Likely To Contest Toronto Seats in the Legislature Elections.

Toronto, Jan. 21.—The local representatives of the new Independent Labor party are moving with more activity than anything that has been started in connection with the Labor movement for some time. It has been practically decided to contest several of the seats in Toronto at the coming elections for the Local Legislature. Who the candidates will be the officers decline to make known at present.

"We have lots of talent," said one of the party, "but we will wait until we learn what the Government's intention is with regard to the number of members Toronto will have."

"Will you put candidates in the eight divisions proposed?"

"No, I don't think we will, but if the other men in the different cities do their duty there should be a sufficient number of Labor men in the next House to make things interesting for those who have always been found in opposition to legislation in the interests of Labor."

Three Bombs Exploded in Streets of New York by Black Hand Gangs.

New York, Jan. 21.—The explosion of three bombs today attested to the activity of the so-called Black Hand gangs which extort money from the Italians in this city. One bomb was exploded evidently by mistake in front of the Home Garden settlement on One Hundred and Sixteenth street and First avenue. It blew in the doors and windows and smashed every window in several tenement blocks across the street, but injured no one.

Another bomb was exploded in the hallway of a tenement in East Thirteenth street, the owner of which had received letters demanding $5,000. The building was damaged, but the tenants were uninjured.

A milk wagon ran over a third bomb which was lying on East One Hundred and Forty Ninth street. It exploded and partially demolished the wagon. The driver was unhurt.

DESIRE OUR TRADE

Bridgetown, Barbadoes, B. W. I., Jan. 21.—The agricultural conference which has been in session for the past week in Bridgetown came to an end today. Delegates from all British West India Islands, including administrators, merchants and planters, as well as W. G. Parmalee, Canadian deputy minister of trade and commerce, to the number of eighty were in attendance.

The address delivered by the president of the conference set forth among other things that great progress has been made in the new cotton industry, which already is worth $5,000 a year to the islands.

With the view of effecting closer relations between Canada and the West Indies, steps looking to reciprocal trade was registered. This would be regarded as purely family arrangement, and it was said retaliation was not feared. The conference demanded also improved telegraph and shipping facilities for the West Indies.

In the Evening Post, a London newspaper published in the reign of Queen Anne, bearing date the 20-22 December, 1700, there is a curious description of a flying ship, stated to have been invented by Bartolomeo Lorenzo, a Brazilian priest. The paper has an engraving of the airship and a long description. The inventor claimed that he could travel 200 miles in 24 hours.
