Poetry

HUSH!

"I can scarcely hear," she murmured,
"For my heart beats loud and fast;
But surely, in the far, far distance,
I can hear a sound at last.'
"It is the reapers singing,
As they carry home their sheaves;
And the evening breeze has risen,
And rustles the dying leaves."

"Listen! there are voices talking."
Calmly still she strove to speak,
Yet her voice grew faint and trembling,
And the red flushed in her cheek.
"It is only the children playing
Below, now their work is done,
And they laugh that their eyes are dazzled
By the rays of the setting sun.

Fainter grew her voice, and weaker,
As with anxious eyes she cried,
"Down the avenue of chestnuts
I can hear a horseman ride.'
"It is only the deer that were feeding
In a herd on the clover grass;
They were startled and fled to the thicket,
As they saw the reapers pass."

Now the night arose in silence,
Birds lay in their leafy nest,
And the deer couched in the forest,
And the children were at rest.
There was only a sound of weeping
From watchers around a bed,
But rest to the weary spirit,
Peace to the quiet dead!

FIGHTING FOR LOVE.—A Paris correspondent of the New-York Courier des Etats Unis tells a story which, if he did not himself vouch for the truth of it, and its relation to any other than French people, we should be inclined to doubt.

A law student fell in love with a young lady, who was an artist of some description, and was affianced to her. He devoted himself with great assiduity to the completion of his studies, that he might obtain a diploma which would make him honorable in the estimation of his betrothed. In one of their conversations, they got into a argument upon some abstruse point of law, or ethics, or science; and the discussion finally became so warm, that the high spirited lady, finding it impossible to conquer her antagonist by the force of reasoning, resorted to the argumentum ad baculinum, and actually boxed her lover's ears. Her hot temper soon cooled, and upon reflection she was so shocked at the outrage she had committed that she insisted upon making some suitable atonement for the insult. The student, however, assured her that he was ready to overlook the incident, and proceeded to kiss the hand that had cuffed him. This only aggravated the difficulty, in the estimation of the chivalrous young woman, and separated the lovers wider than ever. She declared she would never consent to marry a man who could receive such an insult as she had been guilty of inflicting upon him, without resenting it or demanding reparation.

Finally, however, the love which she still retained for her unfortunate friend, suggested a mode of effecting an honorable healing of the breach. She proposed that the matter should be settled by a duel. This being her ultimatum, he reluctantly consented. The preliminaries were adjusted, seconds appointed, and the parties proceeded, in a carriage together, to the spot assigned for the combat. The lady loaded both pistols herself, the stand was taken, the word given, and the shots exchanged. Both were unharmed, the balls not having grazed either of the persons. Wounded honor, however, was duly healed, and the duellists rushed into each other's arms full of love which was just as good as new. It appeared that by an artful deceit of somebody the balls were made of something besides lead.

SPIRITUAL FACTS.—That Whisky is the key by which many gain an entrance into our prisons and almshouses.

That Brandy brands the noses of all those who can not govern their appetites.

That Wine causes many to take a winding way home.

That Punch is the cause of many unfriendly punches.

That Ale causes many ailings, while Beer brings many to the bier.

That Champaigne is the source of many real pains.

That Gin slings have 'slewed' more than the slings of old.

That the reputation of being fond of cock tails is it not a feather in any man's cap.

That the money spent for Port supped by portly gents would support many a poor family.

LEMON SYRUP.—That is commonly sold in the shops, and used in mineral water, is now made, it is stated, from sulphuric acid, which can be purchased at sixpence per pound! It is well enough that this should be known.

Sweet oil is said to be one of the most effective weapons that can be used against bed bugs. To drive these midnight depredators from your bed, all that is necessary is to take a feather and oil the joints and crevices well.—After remaining several days by rubbing it off with a woollen cloth, it will give bedsteads a handsome polish and prevent any further visits for a long time.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. W. Kirkus, Chemist 7, Prescot Street, Liverpool, dated 6th June, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—Your Pills and Ointment have stood the highest on our sale list of Proprietary Medicines for some years. A customer, to whom I can refer for any enquiries, desires me to let you know the particulars of her case. She had been troubled for years with a disordered liver and bad digestion. On the last occasion, however, the virulence of the attack was so alarming, and the inflammation set in so severely, that doubts were entertained of her not being able to bear up under it; fortunately she was induced to try your Pills, and she informs me that after the first, and each succeeding dose, she had great relief. She continued to take them, and although she used only three Boxes, she is now in the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have sent you many more cases, but the above from the severity of the attack, and the speedy cure, I think, speaks much in favour of your astonishing Pills. (Signed)

R. W. KIRKUS.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER, IN VAN DIEMEN'S LAND.

Copy of a Letter inserted in the Hobart Town Courier of the 1st March, 1851, by Major J. Walch.

Margaret M'Connigan, nineteen years of age, residing at New Town, had been suffering from a violent rheumatic fever for upwards of two months, which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs; during this period she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hobart Town, and by them her case was considered hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Pills, which she consented to do, and in an incredible short space of time they effected a perfect cure.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IN THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF A PERSON EIGHTY-FOUR YEARS OF AGE.

From Messrs. Thew & Son, Proprietors of the Lynn Advertiser, who can vouch for the following statement.—August 2nd, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severely from a pain and tightness in the stomach which was also accompanied by shortness of breath, that prevented me from walking about. I am 84 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have so relieved me, that I am desirous that others should be made acquainted with their virtues. I am now rendered, by their means, comparatively active, and can take exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before. (Signed) HENRY COE.

North Street, Lynn, Norfolk.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF THE GRAVEL, AND A MOST DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT.

Copy of a Letter addressed to J. K. Heydon, Esq., Sydney, New South Wales, dated February 25, 1851.

SIR,—A Mr. Thomas Clark, a Settler at Lake George, for a considerable time seriously afflicted with a Complaint of the Liver, together with the Gravel. His medical attendants, after trying all their professional skill, candidly told him that his case was hopeless, and any further efforts useless. In this situation, and when expecting every day would terminate his existence, a friend recommended him to try Holloway's Pills, and as a forlorn hope he did so, the first dose gave him considerable relief, he therefore persevered in taking them according to the directions, and is now restored to perfect health. He will feel great pleasure in confirming this statement, or even make an affidavit to the same effect, should it be required. (Signed) WILLIAM JONES,

Proprietor of the Goulburn Herald,
New South Wales.

THE ERA A LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY,

CANNON STREET WEST.

London, 1st March, 1853.

THE Court of Directors have much pleasure in reporting the onward progress of this Company. During the year 1852, the new Policies issued were 324, assuring the sum of £182,957 18s., being the largest amount of new business transacted in any one year.

The Income of the year was £53,519 5s 8d., and the funds in hand, after providing for payment of bonuses to the policy holders and proprietors, and reduction of premiums allowed, had increased to £248,979 16s 7d.

Meanwhile, it is satisfactory to know that the expenses of management for the year did not amount to seven per cent of the income. The number of policies issued, and the income of the Company during the respective years, were as follows:

Year.	No. of Policies actually issued.	Sums assured thereby.	Ann. Income.
1847	113	102,247 6 4	29,720 12 7
1848	125	116,645 2 6	35,214 4 7
1849	272	149,861 2 6	39,011 1 4
1850	301	156,376 13 0	42,207 5 8
1851	342	170,578 7 0	47,721 2 6
To in 5 yrs.	1153	695,102 5 4	193,874 6 8

Thus exhibiting a steady and gradual increase.
