FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, Oct. 28—Mr. Mallett, of Rothesay College, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with friends at Lenoxville, Quebec.

Mrs. H. A. Calhoun and Miss Alice Cole, who spent a week at the Kennedy House, left on Tuesday for their future home in Sackville.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tilley and daughters, Misses Alice and Margaret Tilley, were here for the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mackay spent the week-end at their summer cottage here.

Miss Jean Daniel returned home on Saturday after visiting Mrs. Thomas Smith at Kingston (Ont.), and her brother, Mr. Heber Daniel, at Montreal.

Miss Grace Ayer, who went to St. Martins on Saturday to visit Mrs. Dimock, expects to pass through Rothesay Friday on her way to New York to spend the winter with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Robinson and family are at the Kennedy House for a week before moving into their new home here.

The engagement of Miss Avis Armstrong, of St. John, a summer resident of Rothesay, to Mr. Frank Maunsell, has been announced.

Mrs. Vassie, of St. John, was the week-end guest of Mr. and Miss Bancroft.

On Friday afternoon next week the girls' branch of the W. A. plan to hold a Hallowe'en candy sale and afternoon tea at the home of their president, Miss Muriel Fairweather.

Miss Hendricks, who is visiting friends at Hampton, is expected home this week.

Hon. William Pugsley and Mrs. Pugsley returned to their city home, St. John, yesterday, having been here for the summer.

Among those from St. John who spent Thanksgiving day here were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bostwick, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Foster, Mr. J. B. Cudlip, Mr. Peter Clinch, and Judge J. R. Armstrong, who all dined at the Kennedy House.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bell are home after a trip to New York, Philadelphia and Boston.

Mr. Moffet Bell and his friend, Mr. Harley, were in Rothesay for the Thanksgiving holidays from Kings College.

On Tuesday Mrs. John H. Thomson left for New York, from whence she expected to sail today for Southern Italy.

Many friends here are interested in the announced engagement of Miss Margaret Walker and Rev. Mr. Crowfoot, of Hampton. Miss Walker is a graduate of Netherwood.

Mrs. H. C. Rankine and her daughter, Mrs. William Vassie, of St. John, spent Monday with Mrs. and Miss Puddington.

A very enjoyable bridge was given on Tuesday by Mrs. Charles Taylor. There were about twenty guests.

Mrs. Lockhart, of St. John, has been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Robinson.

Miss Sarah Hare, of St. John, was yesterday guest of Mrs. A. H. Hanington.

Quite a number of Rothesay ladies were in St. John yesterday attending the reception of Mrs. Harold Ellis, who was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Alfred Ellis and Mrs. James F. Robertson. In the dining room Mrs. H. F. Puddington and Mrs. John M. Robinson poured. Miss Lillie Daymond and Miss Norah Robinson served. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis spent the summer here.

Today Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell went to the city and will for the present be at the home of their son, Mr. Stuart Mitchell, 28 Paddock street. Mrs. Stuart Mitchell expects to go to Montreal within a few days.

Miss Jessie Fraser has returned to Fair Vale from Loch Lomond, where she has been guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Murray.

Miss Mary Easson was guest of Mrs. J. H. Henderson on Wednesday.

Mr. John D. Purdy, Miss Dorothy Purdy, Mr. and Mrs. Millar are occupying rooms at the Kennedy House until their new homes are ready for occupation.

Miss Kate Fairweather, of St. John, spent Tuesday in Rothesay, guest of Miss Helen Fairweather.

Universal sympathy is being expressed for Mrs. Michael Bradley in her sorrow in consequence of the death of her only son, John, who had hosts of friends.

SHEDIAC

Shediac, N. B., Oct. 28—Miss Mary Weldon has been spending some days with friends in Chatham.

Mrs. H. W. Murray is expected home on Saturday of this week from a trip of ten days to Boston.

Mrs. A. MacNeil, of New Glasgow, has been spending the past few days in town, the guest of relatives.

Miss Elsie McFadzen, of Mount Allison Ladies' College was in Shediac for the Thanksgiving holidays, a guest at the home of her uncle, Dr. H. Murray. Her brother, Mr. Jack McFadzen, a student at Sackville Academy, was also at Dr. Murray's for the holidays.

Mrs. Joseph Moore is confined to her residence owing to sickness.

Miss Marion White, of Moncton, was the guest recently of her cousin, Miss Jean Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith and son returned to Moncton on Tuesday from spending the summer at their summer cottage at the beach.

Mrs. T. N. Vincent and daughter Miss Harriett, who have been enjoying a few weeks of camp life in the neighboring forests and also some time at the Weldon House, returned to St. John early in the week. Mr. Vincent was also in town for some days recently accompanying Mrs. and Miss Vincent upon their return home.

Mrs. D. S. Harper, Miss Harper and Mrs. H. B. Steeves visited Mrs. H. S. Bell, of Moncton, during the week.

Miss Beatrice Shannon, of Moncton, is visiting in town, the guest of her friend, Miss Elsie Weldon.

Miss Mabel Prier has returned from a visit of a few days to relatives in Sussex.

Mr. Fred S. Henderson returned to Truro on Tuesday after a week spent with friends in town.

Mr. Dobbie, of the Bank of Montreal in Shediac, was the guest for the Thanksgiving holidays of St. John friends.

Mrs. Duffy, of Hervey, Albert county, was the guest recently of Mrs. James Atkinson. Upon Mrs. Duffy's return home to Harvey she was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. K. Atkinson and two children, where Mrs. Atkinson will remain a short while visiting relatives.

Mr. E. Rose, of Quebec, was the guest for a few days this week of Judge and Mrs. W. A. Russell.

Judge Russell, Mrs. Russell, and Miss Evans were the guests of Bathurst friends for over Sunday returning home on Tuesday.

Miss Eleanor Tait, of Mount Allison Ladies' College, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at her home in town returning to Sackville on Tuesday. Mis Tait was accompanied by a number of guests, including Miss Gladys Borden, Miss DeBois, and Miss G. Taylor, students at Mount Allison. Master Allan Tait, of Mount Allison Academy, was also at his home in town for the Thanksgiving vacation.

Mrs. Schurmann, of Bedeque, who has been visiting friends in St. Stephen, was the guest this week of Mrs. W. Avard for a few days before returning to her home on the Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Cuttler, of Buffalo, arrived in Shediac recently to spend some months at the home of Mrs. Cuttler's mother, Mrs. T. Simpson.

The ladies of the Baptist sewing circle were entertained on Tuesday of this week at the home of Mrs. Chapman, SShediac west.

Mrs. James Inglis entertained the sewing circle of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday afternoon of this week.

Master Allan Tait very pleasantly entertained a number of his young friends at his home in town one evening during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Miss Lena Bray most enjoyably entertained a few friends on Friday evening of last week when "Kipling" was made the leading feature of the programme, both literary and musical selections being given by different guests present.

The Misses May and Beatrice Harper are entertaining a number of the young ladies of the town this afternoon at tea hour, 4 to 6, in honor of Miss Annette Evans.

MONCTON

Moncton, Oct. 28—Miss Janet Williston, of Newcastle, is the guest of friends in the city.

Miss Helen Harris is spending a week in Newcastle, with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Sinclair.

Mrs. Clarence Grace has gone to Hillsboro to spend a few days with Mrs. A. B. Lauder.

Mrs. Emma Copeland is spending some months in Vancouver with her daughter, Mrs. Chauncey Steeves.

Miss Maggie Gibbons spent Thanksgiving with relatives at St. John.

Miss Marjorie McCarthy, who is a student at Mount Allison Ladies' College, Sackville, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. McCarthy.

Mrs. P. J. McGrath, of New York, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Rogen, and intends remaining for the winter.

Mr. Rupert Irving, of Halifax, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Irving.

Hon. C. J. Osman, of Hillsboro, spent Friday in the city, en route home from a trip to Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Johnson are the guests of friends at Campbellton.

Miss Grace Jackson is home from Mt. Allison College, Sackville, to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Jackson. Miss Vera King and Miss Ada Saunders, who are also college students accompanied Miss Jackson.

Mrs. Jennie Whaling, of Luray, Kansas, has arrived to spend the winter with her cousin, Mr. L. W. McAnn and Mrs. McAnn.

Miss E. Carter spent the holiday season with friends at Salisbury.

Mrs. J. S. Trites, who has been visiting friends in the city has returned to her home at Campbellton.

Miss Alma Hamilton spent Thanksgiving with friends in St. John.

Miss Alice Lea, accompanied by her niece, little Miss Margaret Lea, spent the holidays in Summerside, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Lea.

Miss Emma Sangster spent the holidays at her home in the city. Miss Sangster is a student at the ladies' college, Sackville, and was accompanied by another student, Miss Doris Walker.

Rev. George A. Lawson is attending the meeting of the Maritime Baptist Institute at Amherst. Mrs. Lawson accompanied her husband.

Mr. Russell Fillmore, of the Bank of Montreal staff, Toronto, spent Thanksgiving at his home in the city.

Mrs. W. J. Weldon spent the week-end with friends at Sackville.

Miss Kit Humphrey and Miss Ethel Ryan are home from Mount Allison for the holidays.

Miss Eilsie Weldon, of Shediac, is the guest of friends in the city.

Mr. E. B. Hagarty, of Truro, spent Thanksgiving at his former home in the city.

Miss Helen Matthews spent the week-end with friends at Fredericton.

Miss Ada McAnn, who is attending Mount Allison University, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at her home in the city. Miss McAnn was accompanied by her friend, Miss Bona Mills.

Mrs. A. E. Trites and daughter, Miss Eleanor Trites, spent Saturday with friends in the city.

Rev. W. G. Lane is spending a few days in Toronto, attending the meeting of the Missionary Congress.

Mr. William Edington, a student at the university at Fredericton, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Edington.

Miss Nan Chapman came home from Mount Allison College at Sackville, for the holidays.

Mrs. B. A. Stamers and Miss Anna Stamers, of St. John, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Killam.

Dr. Fred Lodge and Mrs. Lodge, of Charlottetown, spent the Thanksgiving season with the doctor's mother, Mrs. W. W. Lodge.

Miss Nellie Woods spent the holiday with friends in St. John.

Mrs. George Morrison has returned from Amherst, where she was attending the wedding of her neice, Miss Hazel Lawson.

Miss Emily Colwell, of St. John, is the guest of Mrs. Roy Morton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Y. Smith have closed their cottage at Shediac and returned to the city to spend the winter.

Mr. J. H. Sherrard, of Montreal, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Sherrard.

Hon. C. W. Robinson is spending the week with friends at Boston.

Miss Marjorie Robinson, of Mount Allison College, spent Thanksgiving at her home in the city. Miss Clare Woods and Miss Gwendolyn Mews, of St. John's (Nfld.), who are also students at the college, accompanied Miss Robinson.

The Misses Magee spent Thanksgiving with their father at Newcastle.

Mrs. Alexander Carter has returned from a visit with friends at Truro.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Killam and Mrs. T. E. Henderson are spending the week with friends in Montreal.

Mrs. T. W. Bell, who has been visiting friends in the city and Dorchester for several weeks left on Tuesday for St. John, where she will visit relatives before going to her home at Methuen (Mass.)

Miss Beatrice Shannon spent the week-end at Shediac, the guest of Miss Weldon.

Miss Emma Carter entertained a few friends on Monday evening, in honor of her guest, Miss Helen Irving, of St. John. Dancing was the amusement and at midnight refreshments were served.

Miss Annie McConville is the guest of friends at St. John.

Dr. C. T. Purdy and sons spent the holiday with relatives at Amherst.

Mrs. Laurence and little son, of Truro, are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Simpson.

The Misses Parlee, who are attending the Ladies' College at Sackville, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with relatives in the city.

Mrs. D. Robertson has returned from a visit with friends in St. John.

Miss McInerney, of St. John, spent the Thanksgiving season in the city, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Thomas Corbett.

Miss Elizabeth Reltie spent the week-end with relatives at Truro.

Mrs. R. A. Borden spent part of the week with friends in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fleetwood, of St. John, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. Fleetwood's mother, Mrs. Thomas Fleetwood.

Mr. Frank Tingley, of St. John, spent the holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Tingley.

Miss Lillian Ferguson spent the week-end with friends at St. John.

Miss Powell, of Whitty (Ont.), is the guest of friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wilkinson, of Halifax, spent Thanksgiving in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. McD. Cooke.

Mr. J. S. Nickerson, of the Bank of New Brunswick staff, at St. John, spent the holiday season with friends in the city.

Mrs. E. P. Hoar has returned from Petitcodiac, where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. F. P. Taylor.

Miss Mary Davis, who is attending the Ladies' College at Halifax, spent the holidays at her home in the city.

Mrs. E. W. Givan has gone to Boston to spend a few weeks with friends.

Miss Lillian Lynds, of Hopewell Cape, is the guest of Capt. R. C. and Mrs. Bacon.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hutton, of Joggins Mines, spent the week-end with friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith have closed their cottage at Shediac and returned to the city for the winter.

Miss Mattie Carter, of Bathurst, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Spear.

Mrs. G. A. McIville, of Montreal, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. McKeiver.

Miss Black, of Ottawa, has arrived in the city to spend some time with her aunt, Mrs. A. E. Chapman. The many friends of Mrs. Chapman regret to learn of her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Burns, of Sydney, are the guests of friends in the city.

Mrs. James, of St. John, spent Thanksgiving in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Freeman.

Mrs. R. A. Borden entertained at a delightful bridge on Friday afternoon, when the following ladies were present, Mrs. W. A. Ferguson, Mrs. J. J. McKenzie, Mrs. E. B. Chandler, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Shannon, Mrs. F. P. Gutelius, Mrs. C. T. Purdy, Mrs. C. W. Robinson, Mrs. C. D. Thomson, Mrs. T. W. Bell, Mrs. G. B. Willett and Miss Stevens. Mrs. Thomson won the first prize and Mrs. Green the second.

Miss Jessie Covert is spending a few days with friends at Hillsboro.

The Misses Kathleen and May Sweeney have returned from Halifax, where they were spending Thanksgiving.

Miss Jessie McDougall is spending a few weeks in Halifax with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Fleming have returned to Edmundston after spending Thanksgiving with relatives in the city.

Miss Flossie Hocken, of Newcastle, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Harris.

Mrs. H. B. Gordon and little daughter have returned from St. John, where they spent the holidays with Mrs. Fred Young.

Miss Laura Crandall, of Salisbury, is spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McKie.

Mrs. F. G. Francis has returned to her home at Salisbury after spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. George Wortman.

Mrs. Ray Sumner entertained at a bridge of three tables on Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Jennie Webster, whose marriage takes place very shortly. Mrs. J. McD. Cooke was the winner of the first prize, a handsome piece of cut glass while Mrs. Webster secured the second prize, a dainty book. The guests included Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Ira Davis, Mrs. A. E. Wilkinson (Halifax), Mrs. J. McD. Cooke, Mrs. A. J. Webster (Shediac), Mrs. Hyslop, Miss Agnes Peters, Miss Borden, Miss Emma Price, Miss Jennie Webster, Miss McDingall and Mrs. J. Dustan.

ST. GEORGE

St. George, Oct. 28—Mrs. Hutchinson, of St. John, is a guest this week at the Baptist parsonage.

Mrs. J. Douglas Stuart will receive her bridal calls at the home of her mother, Mrs. James Kelman, on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons, Oct. 28 and 29, and on the first Tuesday and Wednesday in November.

Miss French, of St. John West, is spending the week with Miss Edna O'Brien.

On Saturday evening Dr. C. C. and Mrs. Alexander entertained a party of friends.

Miss Edith Knox and Miss Jessie Catherine, of St. John, spent Thanksgiving in Letete with Mr. and Mrs. John Catherine.

Mrs. A. C. Gillmor and daughter, Miss Frances, left Monday last for Boston.

The Misses Carson, of St. John, were in town a few days this week on their return trip from St. Stephen and Milltown, where they were the guests of Rev. Father Doyle and Rev. Father Horan.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sherrard entertained a small party of friends on Friday evening, it being their twentieth anniversary.

Mrs. Frank Hibbard, Miss Marjory Hibbard, and Mr. Frank Hibbard, jr., are visiting friends in Cambridge (Mass.)

WESTFIELD BEACH

Westfield Beach, Oct. 23—The tea and sale conducted by the ladies of the adult Bible class (Methodist) on Thanksgiving Day, was a grand success, over $70 being realized which is to assist in the renovation of the parsonage at Welsford. The tea and sale was conducted at the summer cottage of Mr. W. S. Stephenson, at Hillandale, which was handsomely decorated with bunting, evergreen, flags, autumn leaves and flowers. Two booths were very prettily arranged and decorated in two corners of the spacious dining room. Miss Edna Fulton and Miss Ruth Baxter were in charge of the candy booth, and Mrs. Jas. Smith and Miss Bertie Ballantyne sold the fancy work, which was all donated by friends. Other ladies of the class assisting in serving tea and ice-cream. Many of the suburbanites who were here for the day were in attendance and were able to procure their tea before returning on the special train.

Mrs. R. B. Patterson and Mr. Bob Patterson spent the holiday at their summer home here.

Mrs. A. E. Rowley returned yesterday after a few weeks' visit to Boston and vicinity.

Mrs. McGarrigle and the Misses McGarrigle were guests on the holiday of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McKenzie.

Mr. Charles Lingley has gone to Boston for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Finley very pleasantly entertained a few friends at dinner on Tuesday evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey W. J. Caulfield. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Caulfield, Mrs. Caulfield, Mrs. W. Roy MacKenzie, Miss Grace Lingley, Miss Lou Caulfield, Mr. Steen Lingley, Mr. Egbert Prime and Mr. William Emery.

Mr. Frank Wilson, Mr. Jack Belyea and Miss Hilda Belyea were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. E. Belyea over Sunday and the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Caulfield (nee Lingley), who have been spending some time here since returning from their honeymoon, were passengers by last evening's Montreal train en route to their future home in Regina (Sask.) A large number of their friends assembled at the depot to wish them bon voyage and future happiness.

Mrs. W. Roy McKenzie and young son Gordon, are the guests for a few days this week of Mrs. McKenzie's mother, Mrs. R. A. Finley, at Hillandale.

Miss Vivian Porter has returned from a visit of several weeks with friends and relatives at Gagetown (N. B.)

Mr. and Mrs. Scott, of St. John, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Smith on Thanksgiving.

On the invitation of the rector, Rev. C. W. Nichols and Mrs. Nichols a number of ladies met at the rectory this afternoon and organized a woman's auxiliary in connection with St. James' Episcopal church. The officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Nichols; vice-presidents, Mrs. Woodman and Mrs. Thompson; secretaries, Miss Edythe Nase and Miss Grace Lingley; treasurer, Miss Mary E. Hoyt; dorcases, Mrs. E. A. E. Belyea and Miss Mae Lingley. Thursday was the day of the week chosen for the meetings. The meeting next week is to be held at the home of Mrs. Thompson, at Grand Bay. Mrs. Nichols served afternoon tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blizzard, of St. John, spent the holiday at their cottage on the point.

Miss Mabel Peters, Miss Grace Lingley and Miss Kathleen Magee were guests at the Cameron-Fisher wedding in St. John on Wednesday of last week.

Rev. J. S. Gregg and Mrs. Gregg, of Welsford, attended the Thanksgiving tea here on Monday.

Rev. Mr. Earle, of Fairville, spent Thanksgiving with friends here.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Oct. 22—Mrs. William A. Hickson and daughter, Miss Hazel, are visiting in Montreal, guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Cecil Riopel.

Mrs. Thomas A. Clark, of Jacquet River is the guest of her sister, Miss Helen McLeod.

Mr. LeRoy Morrison, who has been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism for the past fortnight, is slightly improved.

Miss Dorothy Nicholson, student of U. N. B., spent the week-end and Thanksgiving at her home here.

Mrs. McMichael, of West Branch, Kent county, who has been the guest of her son, J. R. McMichael for some time, has returned home.

A most pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mrs. John Russell, last Friday evening, when she entertained a number of lady friends at an informal thimble party. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening. Among those present were Mrs. J. W. Miller, Mrs. Coburn, Mrs. Donald Morrison, Mrs. E. A. McMillan, Mrs. William Aitken, Mrs. Jas. A. Rundle and Mrs. James Troy.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Cousins and Mr. C. C. Hayward spent the past week in Amherst, attending the Maritime Baptist convention there.

Mr. Allison McKay, of Fredericton, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Rundle for some weeks, returned home Monday.

Miss Alice Johnstone spent the week-end and the holiday at her home in Loggieville.

Mr. J. D. Armstrong spent the week-end with friends in St. John.

Earl Atkinson, teller in the Bank of Nova Scotia here, has been transferred to Truro (N. S.)

Miss May Williston was on Saturday afternoon of the past week hostess at a bridge of four tables, with many other guests coming in at the tea hour. Mrs. Waldo Crocker was the winner of the first prize, and Mrs. Chas. Sargeant second. Among those present were Mrs. William Sinclair, Mrs. E. H. Siniclair, Mrs. Charles Sargeant, Mrs. Waldo Crocker, Mrs. John Robinson, Mrs. King Hazen, Mrs. Robert Nicholson, Mrs. W. A. Park, Mrs. A. J. Ferguson, Mrs. Bellmore, Miss Ritchie, Miss Stables, Miss Harley, Miss Burchill (Nelson), Miss Harris (Moncton), Miss Creaghan, Miss Eileen Creaghan. Miss Ruth Fish, who has been spending the holidays at her home here, returned to her studies at U. N. B. this morning.

Miss Dickie, of Moncton, is the guest of Misses Smallwood.

Miss Ida Leighton spent Thanksgiving with friends in St. John.

Mr. George McInerney, of the Royal Bank, left last Saturday for New York, where he will spend his vacation.

Dr. William Boltinghouse, of Montreal, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Russell.

Master William Creaghan, of U. N. B. and Gerald, of Moncton, spent Thanksgiving at their home here.

Mr. Blair Hutchison, of the Royal Bank, has returned from his visit to his home in Molus River, Kent county.

Miss Louise Crocker, principal of the Superior school, at Harcourt, spent Thanksgiving at her home in Millerton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Melrose, of St. John, have returned home, after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Moody.

Mr. H. A. Frank spent the past week with friends in Montreal.

Mr. Melvin Allison, who has been spending his vacation with his parents here, returned to Toronto last Tuesday.

Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, Mrs. Fred Tweedie and little daughter, spent Tuesday with friends in town.

Mr. Alward Crocker, who has been spending the summer months at his home in Millerton, left last Tuesday for the West.

Miss Jean Kelly, of St. John, spent part of the past week in town, the guest of Miss Mollie Morrissy.

Mr. John Lawlor, of the I. C. R. offices, Moncton, spent the holiday at his home here.

Mrs. John Basson spent the holiday with friends in Loggieville.

Miss Gertrude Clark, of Jacquet River, is the guest of her aunt, Miss Helen McLeod.

The many friends of Mr. Rogers, of the Foundation Company here, were sorry to hear that he was called to his home in Tennessee, by the sudden death of his mother last Friday.

BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, Oct. 23—The young ladies of the auxiliary of the Baptist church gave a reception and miscelleaneous shower to Miss Mary Thompson Grimmer on Tuesday evening in honor of her approaching marriage to Mr. Austin M. Budd, of St. Andrews. It was a very merry affair and greatly enjoyed. There was a literary and musical entertainment and at the close of the evening ices and cake were served.

Mrs. Mellville Buchanan entertained a party of friends with bridge at her home on Thursday evening.

Rev. George F. Dawson, of the Methodist church, has returned from a visit with his relatives in Montreal.

The engagement has been announced of Mr. John Nason Wall to Miss Mary Winnifred Snider, of Lower Millstream, the marriage to take place the last of this month. Miss Snider for the past two years has been on the public teaching staff here and has many friends who will most cordially welcome her return to reside permanently.

Miss Amy Sullivan is in Cambridge (Mass.) visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter Cooke.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sinclair, of Houlton, spent Thanksgiving in town with relatives.

Miss Florence Robertson, of the public school teaching staff, spent Thanksgiving with Fredericton friends.

Mrs. C. A. Lindow is visiting friends in Portland (Me.)

The Wa-Wa Club will be entertained this evening by Miss Pearl Murchie.

Mr. Lowell Copeland, of Chicago, has been visiting Calais, his native city.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles S. Murphy have returned from a pleasant visit in New York and Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. James Manuel have returned from their wedding trip and will be at home to their friends on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 22 and 23.

Miss Myra Lord and Miss Marie Saunders are visiting Boston friends.

Mr. Douglas, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, has returned from his vacation.

Mr. Melville Deacon has been enjoying a short vacation from his duties in the Bank of British North America and spending it in Moncton with his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Newnham.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Murchie are visiting Boston.

Miss Helen Clarke, of St. George, is the guest of her friend, Miss Lelia Grant.

Mr. Charles C. Grant, accompanied by Messrs. James Inches and Howe Grant, left on Monday for Boston to spend several days.

Misses Esther McFarlane and Mary Towers, who are Normal students at Fredericton, arrived home to spend the short Thanksgiving vacation.

Miss Margaret Jones leaves on Friday for Boston to spend several weeks with relatives before leaving for Florida, as it is her intention to spend the winter in the sunny south. Miss Jones has resided here during the past three years with her late lamented friend, Miss Alice Robinson, and during her stay has made many friends who regret most sincerely her departure from among them.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. MacNichol with Mr. and Mrs. Ned Harmon Murchie as their guests, spent the week-end at their bungalow some twelve miles from town.

Mrs. J. Wells Fraser and her infant son, Douglas Gordon, returned from the Chipman Memorial Hospital to her home on Friday.

Rev. Canon Smithers was in town on Thursday en route to Fredericton from Campobello. During his stay he was a guest of Archdeacon Newnham at Christ church rectory.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. B. Olive, of Truro (N. S.), have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Parker Grimmer during the past ten days.

Miss Marjorie Clarke, of St. Andrews, has been spending a few days with her cousin, Miss Doris Clarke.

Mrs. Ruth Clark arrived from Toronto on Saturday and is welcomed home by her friends.

Mrs. S. Bonnell and Miss Edith Bonnell, who have been guests of Mrs. Geo. J. Clarke, left last week for Montreal, where they will visit friends before leaving for their home in Fernie (B. C.)

Mrs. Berryman has been spending the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Hill M. Grimmer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carroll are deeply sympathized with in the death of their infant daughter, which occurred on Sunday last.

Mrs. O. S. Newnham has much sympathy from her friends in the death of her eldest brother, Mr. G. William Bishop, which occurred recently in England.

Miss Gladys Blair has returned from a pleasant visit with Boston friends.

Miss Eliza McBride is visiting friends in Detroit, Michigan.

St. Stephen, Oct. 23—On Wednesday afternoon the home of Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Budd, of St. David Ridge, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when their eldest daughter Mary Budd, became the bride of Hallett Whittick, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Waittick, of this town. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Greelaw, pastor of the Baptist church, at Oak Bay. The bride looked very pretty in her traveling suit of navy blue broacloth with hat to match. A number of useful and costly presents were received. They are enjoying their bridal trip in several of the cities of the province. Upon their return they will reside on Marks street.

The steam dredge Beacon Bar, recently came up the river and is engaged in dredging the river near the public landing and C. P. R. wharf.

Captain Ernest Hill, of Quebec city, is expected to arrive here in a few days, and will join his wife and young daughter, Georgia, who are guests of Henry E. Hill, Captain Hill's father.

Ensign Anderson, who has been a popular officer of the Salvation Army here, farewelled last Sunday and will leave Saturday for Moncton, where report says she will wed a prominent officer of the army.

ANDOVER

Andover, N. B., Oct. 22—Mr. Burton McAlary spent a few days this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McAlary.

The members of St. Agnes Guild met at the home of Miss Annie Bedell on Monday evening.

Mrs. Archie Dickinson and little boy, spent the Thanksgiving holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baird.

The first meeting of the Book Lovers Club was held on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. James Porter.

Mrs. Guy Porter spent the week-end at her mother's home in Fort Fairfield, Maine.

The sewing circle of Trinity church, Andover, were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Harry McAlary on Wednesday afternoon.

On Monday afternoon, Mrs. J. F. Johnson, of Perth, entertained at 6 o'clock dinner, as a farewell to Mr. Maguer, who has been in charge of St. James' Presbyterian church during the summer.

Miss McCain spent the Thanksgiving holiday at her home in Florenceville.

Miss Annie Magill spent the week-end in Fort Fairfield, the guest of her sister, Mrs. James Magill.

Senator Baird left last week for Cranbrook (B. C.), in company with Dr. and Mrs. King. Later he and Mrs. Baird will leave for California to remain for the winter.

Mrs. Thomas Allen left for her home in Bangor on Saturday, where she will spent the winter.

A business meeting of the Andover Ladies' Bridge Club was held on Tuesday last at the home of Mrs. Guy Porter. Mrs. N. J. Wortten was elected president; Mrs. Hubert Baird, vice-president, and Mrs. F. M. Howard, financial secretary. On Thursday afternoon the club was entertained at the home of Miss Miriam Baxter from 3 to 5.

On Tuesday afternoon the October meeting of the Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. D. R. Bedell. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. The November meeting will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. James Porter.

Mr. Raymond Hopkins, accompanied by Dr. G. B. Peat, left on Monday for Muskoka, where he will remain for some months.

Mrs. Myrtle Carvell spent Thanksgiving day with friends in Presque Isle.

Mrs. William Spike and Mrs. Walter Gillett have issued invitations for a children's masquerade party for all Hallowe'en night, to the number of thirty.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, Oct. 22—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peabody are visiting friends in Boston.

Captain Husten, of Halifax, was in town last week on inspection business.

Mr. Willard Baldwin, of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Florenceville, spent the week end with friends in town.

Mrs. George Saunders attended the Baptist missionary convention held at St. Stephen last week.

Miss Winnifred Smith, teacher of manual training, spent Thanksgiving at her home in St. Stephen.

Mr. and Mrs. Wellington B. Belyea left on Friday morning for Elmwood (Mass.)

Mr. Wilfred Hand left last week for Sackville, where he will take a commercial course.

Mr. Cecil Kemp, of the staff of the Royal Bank at Fredericton, spent Thanksgiving with friends in town.

Miss Lena Reynolds, of Sydney, is visiting her sister, Mrs. N. P. Grant.

Miss Lulu Vince spent a few days of last week in St. Stephen.

Mrs. John McLauchlan entertained at tea on last Monday in honor of Mrs. Harry McLaughlan, of Montreal. The guests were Mrs. Edgar W. Mair, Mrs. George E. Phillips, Mrs. Wilmot Hay, Mrs. Arthur Bailey, Mrs. Thomas Duncan, Mrs. H. V. Dalling, Mrs. Wendell P. Jones, Mrs. George McPhail, Mrs. H. E. Ellis, Mrs. William McCunn, Mrs. R. B. Porter, Mrs. Karl Daman, Mrs. Frank B. Carvell, Mrs. Frederick W. McLean, Mrs. Louis E. Young, Mrs. John Stewart, Mrs. J. B. Merriman, Mrs. J. K. Flemming, Mrs. R. Ernest Holyoke, Mrs. R. B. Jones, Mrs. N. F. Thorne, Mrs. Godfrey Newnham, Mrs. Albert Hayden, Mrs. George Gabel, Mrs. Ada Poole, Mrs. George E. Balmain, Mrs. Harry Lowney, Mrs. Joseph Oldham, Mrs. Archie Connell, Mrs. Arthur Garden, Mrs. George Mitchell, Mrs. Donald Nicholson, Mrs. H. R. Teed, Mrs. S. R. Boyer, Mrs. Claud Augherton, Mrs. Hubert Seely, Mrs. Alwin Sailer, Mrs. John A. Lindsay, Ms. R. B. Welsh, Mrs. James Foster, Miss Hester Hume, Miss Louise Allan, Miss Fannie Smith, Miss Isabell Watts, Miss Laura Davidson, Miss Alice Boyer, Miss Edith Dalling, Miss Grace Jones, Miss Ethel Bull, Miss Faye Camber, Miss Mary Wetmore, Miss Hattie Gabel. Mrs. McLauchlan and Miss McLauchlan were assisted by Mrs. Roy McLauchlan, Mrs. Guy McLauchlan, Miss Edith Everett, Miss Pearl Oldham. Mrs. John McLauchlan wore a gown of blue silk; Mrs. Herry McLauchlan, red rose silk with lace; Miss Bessie McLauchlin, white marquisette.

Rev. W. B. Wiggins and Mrs. Wiggins, of Moncton, were guests of Dr. E. J. Jewett and Mrs. Jewett last week.

Mr. Donald Machum, of St. John, was a visitor in town last week.

Miss Laura Balmain, of Edmonton, Alberta, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Balmain.

Mr. Hugh Stairs, of the C. P. R. engineering staff, left last week for Montreal, to which branch he has been transferred.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Newnham are enjoying a visit in Boston.

Miss Gertrude McKendrick has returned to Springfield (Mass.) after a visit in town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. McKendrick.

Mr. Kenneth Sutton, of the Royal Bank staff at St. John, spent Thursday with his parents.

Mrs. B. N. Nobles is visiting relatives in Boston.

Mr. George A. Taylor, manager of the Royal Bank at Fredericton, spent the week-end in town.

Mrs. P. Gillin and Miss Mary Gillin, of St. George, spent Thanksgiving in town, guests at the Carlisle.

Woodstock, Oct. 23—Miss Kathleen Lynott entertained a number of her young friends at a very enjoyable parlor dance, at her home on Connell street, on Tuesday evening. Miss Lynott, gowned in a very dainty dress of pink charmeuse with spangled net trimmings, was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. S. L. Lynott, who wore a pretty dress of black silk, with lace trimmings. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion with ferns and carnations, the color scheme being pink. The guests were waited upon by the little Misses Thelma Burden and Dorothy Loane. Those invited were, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Lowney, Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. A. Donald Nicholson, the Misses Martha Phillips, Lucy Phillips, Mildred Balmain, Grace Jones, Marion Winslow, Alice Neill, Caroline Munro, Hattie Gabel, Myrtle Gabel, Beatrice Payson, (Moncton), Mildred Carvell, Edith Brennan, Alice Sprague, Mary Sprague, Edith Dalling, Faye Camber, Isabel Watts, Helen McManus, Alice McManus, Mabel Lister, Isabel Lewis, Tot Demming, May Marley and Cassie Hay and Messrs.