THE B. M. E. CONFERENCE

Still in Session in This City—Pastors Who Reported—Ministers' Characters Marked.

The conference of the B. M. E. Church in Ontario is still in session in the B. M. E. Church, Grey street, this city. Rev. Supt. Walter Hawkins is chairman. The following pastors have submitted reports: Revs. B. Stewart, Windsor; R. R. Ball, Chatham; C. A. Washington, Toronto; Robt. Miller, St. Catharines; G. R. Blout, London and Woodstock; W. R. Drake, Drummonville and Fort Erie; Peter Brooks, Buxton; W. H. Davis, Colchester mission; S. A. Lucas, Brantford; R. L. Holden, Collingwood and Owen Sound; J. W. Brown, Dresden; T. C. Oliver, Guelph.

The question of quarterly tickets was raised and elicited much attention and profit to the conference. The question of probationers having the right to vote was discussed at length and resulted vere beneficially to all. However, the original ruling was sustained that they have no vote.

The next business was the consideration of the different ministers' characters. Those of Revs. C. A. Washington, T. C. Oliver, G. R. Blout, Peter Brooks, B. Stewart, S. A. Lucas, R. L. Holden, R. A. Ball, Robert Brown, Chas. May, W. H. Davis, J. W. Brown, and R. R. Ball were found satisfactery, while those of Revs. T. H. Slater, W. T. Minter, S. P. Hale, and Caswell Crosby, were marked. The cases of the first two were referred to the judiciary committee, and the others were exonerated.

Rev. J. J. Moore, of Toronto, was presented and made a member of the conference.

The educational sermon was preached by Rev. T. C. Oliver, of Guelph, before a large audience.

LONDON'S LORD MAYOR.

When Arrayed in His Robes of State His Glory Is Like Unto Solomon's.

(From the London Telegraph.)

The fountain of municipal honor in England undoubtedly springs from the Guildhall, London, which justly claims to be accounted the most ancient of our municipal halls, seeing that the Lord Mayors of the last eight centuries are with justice assumed to have had prototypes in the Roman Prefect and the Saxon Fortreye or Burtgrave. For a considerable number of years the robes of the Lord Mayor, the court of aldermen and the common councilors have been settled with a precision that none, save the most reckless of innovators, would presume to disturb. The Lord Mayor himself has his "gold" robe for the occasion of the annual Guildhall banquet and for the times when he proceeds in state either to the new law courts or to the Houses of Parliament. The aldermen have their scarlet gowns, the sheriffs their distinctive and very handsome robes of chains, while the common councilors appear in gowns called "mazarines," it being generally understood that mazarine is a term for a particular dark-blue color, though, according to some lexicographers, mazarine also means a drinking vessel and an old way of dressing fowls.

Then, again, when the Sovereign comes to the city the Lord Mayor is bound to wear a robe of crimson or purple velvet, trimmed with ermine. At the time of his investiture he wears a massive gold chain, and when he is honored by re-election at the expiration of his term of office he wears the chains. The mace of silver-gilt, surmounted by a royal crown and the imperial arms, is carried before the mayor by the authority of the charter of Edward III.; and the city possesses no less than four swords, one called the "Pearl," presented by Queen Bess when she opened the first Royal Exchange, and so called from its being richly set with pearls. This sword precedes the chief magistrate on all occasions of rejoicing and festivity. The sword of state is carried before the Lord Mayor as an emblem of his sovereignty within the city proper; the "black" sword is used on days in Lent and at the death of any member of the royal family; while the third sword is that placed close upon the Lord Mayor's chair at the Central Criminal Court.

Essex Gas Wells Are Risky Things to Fool With.

"Tabernacle" Meetings in Middlesex—Sudden Death in Harwich—Thirteen Unlucky Sheep.

ESSEX.

In making an examination of the gas well on the premises of S. Ruth at Ridgetown the other night the flame from a lamp in Harry Ruth's hand caused the gas to ignite. The flames shot up to a height of twenty feet, badly burning his face.

Two men who gave their names as Pat Burns and Chas. Welsh were arrested Wednesday morning while they were stealing a ride on a G. T. R. train. They answer to the description of the men who are wanted by the Windsor police for shooting at an officer Monday night.

ELGIN.

Thomas Ibbetson, of Southwold township, near here, had thirteen of his sheep killed with lightning during the storm the other evening. They ran under a tree for shelter which attracted the lightning.

J. Wilkie, for years a resident of Shedden, died at Dutton the other day of cancer of the stomach. He had been confined to bed since February. The growth ate through the coating of an artery, and death resulted immediately.

The amount of customs duty collected at St. Thomas for the month of June was $6,309 91; dutiable imports, $22,475; free imports, $14,499; duty collected for the year ending June 30, 1893, $93,858 67; for the quarter, $19,116 94.

The traveling dairy in charge of Messrs. G. E. Day and W. J. Hume has just completed its tour of East Huron. Meetings have been held at Winthrop, Londesboro', Walton, Brussels, Ethel, Fordwich, Wroxeter, Bluevale and Wingham.

KENT.

The death occurred on Sunday of James Doyle, of Harwich, aged 26 years, son of John Doyle, of Raleigh, under distressing circumstances. The young man, an intelligent, well-to-do farmer, was in his ordinary good health when he arose in the morning. After breakfast he went out to the barn to make preparations for taking the family to church. Not returning within a reasonable time, the wife grew alarmed at his absence and proceeded to look for him. She was horrified to find his dead body in a field only a few rods from the house. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause of death.

MIDDLESEX.

Tabernacle meetings are being held by Rev. Stephen Knott, of the Methodist Church, Sylvan circuit, in the maple grove on the farm of C. Doniker, con. 7, West McGillivray, four miles west of Parkhill. Several persons have decided to reform their lives, and it is said quite a large amount of good is coming out of these meetings. A number attend these services that could not be persuaded to go to a church to hear the gospel preached, and impressions are made for good that would not be but for these services. Service next Sunday at 2:30 p.m. and 7 o'clock p.m.

COLLISION ON THE C. P. R.

Seven Persons Badly Injured, of Whom Four Have Died.

OTTAWA, July 5.—The Citizen publishes an account of a collision on the C. P. R. Saturday at Rossport, 100 miles this side of Port Arthur between a ballast train and a handcar, by which the train was thrown from the track and wrecked. Seven men were badly injured, of whom four have since died.

CANADA'S "CRACK" CHEESE.

The Big One—Rates Away Above New York's Best.

Prof. Robertson says that while he was at Chicago the big cheese was tested by the judges and rated at 93, so that had it been entered for competition it would have won a medal. Of the entire cheese exhibit of the State of New York only five samples came up to the standard of 90 points. It is not likely that Canada will continue to take part in monthly cheese competitions at Chicago as it is not thought to be advisable to continue shipments to the World's Fair during the summer. A specially fine exhibit of September's make of Canadian cheese, however, will be forwarded to Chicago.

Burglars Loot a Windsor Shoe Store.

WINDSOR, Ont., July 3.—The most daring burglary in the history of Windsor took place at the shoe store of R. Gluns on Sandwich street to-day. Sergt. Nash and several constables found four men hiding in the rear of Askin's ice house, and took them to the station. There they were recognized as Enos Monohan, Charles Gregory, J. Sloneburg and Bob Ritzer. In the marsh near the old dry dock in Sandwick four pairs of fine shoes were found concealed and indentified by Mr. Glun as part of his stock. The prisoners were brought before Magistrate Bartlet and remanded till Monday.

BEFORE THE CONVENTION.

Steady Streams of C. E. Delegates Pouring in Montreal.

Preliminary Meetings—San Francisco Favored for the 1895 Gathering.

MONTREAL, July 5.—Delegates have been arriving all day for the opening of the Christian Endeavor Convention. The weather is cool and pleasant, and nothing now seems to stand in the way of the convention turning out a complete success. Latest calculations place the number attending at 18,000.

The incoming trains and steamers tonight brought more delegates, and when it opens to-morrow morning there is likely to be a crowded audience.

The trustees had a general meeting this afternoon, Dr. Clark, the president, in the chair. The principal subject before the meeting was the selection of a meeting place for 1895. The convention meets in Cleveland in 1894, but the meeting place for 1895 has not yet been decided. The two cities who are asking for the honor are San Francisco and Denver. As the Denver delegates have not yet arrived the matter was left over. The majority of delegates seem to favor San Francisco for 1895.

A special committee was appointed to report on the election of officers for the ensuing year. A number of preliminary meetings were held in the city churches tonight and addresses were delivered. One of the speakers was Dr. Cryler, of Brooklyn, who delivered an effective address on "The Prayer that Has Power."

JUMPED FROM THE CAR.

Marvelous Escape of an Old Lady at Brantford.

BRANTFORD, July 5.—Last night an accident of a fatal character occurred at the Great Western station in this city. The down train from Norwich, due at 5:30, was nearly twenty minutes late on arriving at Colborne street station, and among the passengers was Mrs. Jas. Duncan, mother of the proprietor of the City Hotel. In the rush and bustle the old lady did not realize that she was at Brantford station for quite a little time, and started to get off just as the train moved out. The cars were going at a good pace when Mrs. Duncan leaped from the rear of the train and was pitched face downward upon the track. Fortunately she fell clear of the wheels, though with only a narrow margin. Her face was considerably bruised, and her nose very much lacerated. This morning, though feeling pretty sore, the old lady is not considered in any danger.

Had Been Drinking Hard.

OTTAWA, July 5.—Nelson Sanderson, a shanty man, dropped dead on St. Patrick street to-day. He had been drinking hard for two months.

He Killed Three Men.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 5.—Joal Mitchell, Woodbine, Knox county, yesterday killed John Marsee, James Francis and Dempsey Smith. They had been drinking and there had been bad blood between them. Mitchell escaped.

Three Fatally Injured.

ELGIN, Ill., July 5.—A runaway occurred near this city yesterday at a picnic. A carriage was overturned containing Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pease and child. The latter was instantly killed and the others were fatally injured.

Patrons' Picnic.

CORNWALL, July 5.—A big picnic was held in Bullock's Grove, Wales, to-day under the auspices of the Stormont Patrons of Industry. The attendance was one of the greatest ever seen there for years, the Patrons being present in large numbers from all parts of Eastern Ontario.

The Borden Sisters.

FALL RIVER, Mass., July 5.—The Borden sisters have received a large photograph of the jury before whom Miss Lizzie was tried and acquitted, and it has been placed in their parlor. It is understood that the foreman of the jury presented the picture in compliance with a request by the other members.

The Piano Cure for Warts.

Two doctors were recently walking together down a suburban thoroughfare, when one of them lifted his hat to a lady whom they met.

"A patient?" asked the other.

"Oh, in a way," answered the first doctor. "I treated her the other day for a small trouble."

"What was it?"

"A wart on the nose."

"And what did you prescribe?"

"I ordered her to refrain absolutely from playing the piano."

The other doctor was astonished.

"Ordered her to leave off playing the piano—for a wart on the nose? Well, I can't understand your treatment."

"If you knew the circumstances you would," said the first doctor. "She lives in the next house to me."

Malaria.

Malaria was formerly considered as a miasm, limited to the exhalations engendered in low lying lands, but modern researches have shown that while the miasm is more intense in such localities, yet it is by no means confined to them, and that as a fact in very few and narrow sections of country are entirely free from malaria.
