It Has Come To Stay.....

When we introduced the wood rim three years ago some people predicted its early death, but in a short time they were forced to admit that it had come to stay—and it did stay. Now the same thing is being said by some regarding the WOOD FRAME, but the wheelmen are fast CATCHING ON to the fact that it has also come to stay. Next year all the factories will make them. Get a Comet Wood Frame this season and be a year in advance. Don't forget that we have steel frames, too, at all prices.
