
THREE HURT IN MINOR ACCIDENTS IN LONDON

Wilson Avenue Man Falls Through Veranda Roof, Injuring Head and Shoulder.

Three minor accidents occurred in London during the past 24 hours.

While Mr. Comiskey, 100 Wilson avenue, was remodelling the veranda of his house Thursday the roof of the veranda caved in, causing him to fall to the floor and injure his head and shoulder. He is at present resting quietly at his home.

John Smith of Toronto, scale inspector for the G. T. R., injured his left hand while at work in the London yards Thursday afternoon. He was attended by Dr. F. R. Clegg, who had him removed to Victoria Hospital.

When at play in the municipal playgrounds in West London, the young son of Samuel Prince, 147 Wharncliffe road north, had his arm broken. He was attended by Dr. J. Cameron Wilson.

HALTS CAREER OF SOLDIER OF THREE NATIONS

Detroit Police Arrest Globe-Trotter At Smith's Falls, Ont., On Fraud Charge.

WON FRIENDS IN TORONTO

Faces Charge of Obtaining $1,200 Worth of Goods by False Pretenses.

DETROIT, Mich., July 6.—Globe-trotting and adventure have been the hobbies of Christopher C. Holland, alias Paul D'Montigny, but his career has been temporarily halted through his arrest in Smith's Falls, Ont., and his incarceration tonight in Detroit on the charge of obtaining goods by false pretences.

He is accused of obtaining about $1,200 worth of goods from stores on forged orders. He got all the goods in one afternoon last September and skipped out. The police have been on his trail ever since.

Holland, or D'Montigny, has had an eventful career, and says he never did anything wrong until he squandered the last of a substantial legacy.

Soldier of Fortune.

He has been a soldier of fortune, having sworn allegiance to three flags—British, French and United States, seeing service under all. He has been around the world twice and more than half around on another occasion.

He was born in England of wealthy parents. His mother died when he was quite young. He declares that his aunt, a Mrs. D'Montigny, took him to raise, and he adopted her name. He was educated by private tutors, which enabled him to move in high social circles.

Hid in Canada.

Holland has been in Canada ever since his departure from Detroit. He became a salesman for a Toronto mortgage security house, and was successful, but it wasn't long before he was up to his old tricks. He won the confidence of influential men in Perth, Ont., and other places. One of them took him for a cruise on his yacht and otherwise entertained him. Then Holland forged his name to an order for a lot of expensive wearing apparel.

Holland doesn't take his predicament seriously. He has that plausible manner that wins friends. One of the heads of the Toronto firm for which he worked is world vice-president of the Brotherhood League, and he wants him back in his service if he can get out of the trouble in Detroit.

Canada Still At War For Naturalization Purposes.

OTTAWA, July 6.—Canada is still at war—for purposes of naturalization. This came out when inquiries were made this morning in respect of Canadian action regarding the births, nationality and status of aliens bill which has just been given second reading in the British House of Commons. The home secretary indicated in the British house that similar action would be taken by the overseas dominions.

As far as Canada is concerned the enactment of legislation of this character was postponed by the government last session.

SWIFT CAN HAVE DEPOSIT MONEY

Housing Commission Offered Pine Lawn Purchaser Chance To Give House Back.

Commissioner Cunliffe Terms Dissatisfied Owner As "Chronic Kicker."

Assuming the stand that L. O. Swift, who purchased a home from the London Housing Commission on Pine Lawn, and whose statements relating to it and members of the commission have been published in The Advertiser recently, is dissatisfied with his house, the commission, in session Thursday night, granted him the privilege of returning the house over to them, on the understanding that his deposit fee be refunded.

Mr. Swift was present, but was not allowed to address the meeting. D. J. Tallant, one of the commissioners, who is alleged by Mr. Swift to have informed him that his taxes would be less than $20 per year, and who denies this charge, introduced the subject.

Deny Swift Speech.

"I think the members of this commission who have served on this body with me for two years will bear with me when I say that Mr. Swift has made a statement that is untruthful," began Mr. Tallant.

"I cannot let that pass without saying anything," interrupted Mr. Swift.

"I move that we hear no more from Mr. Swift," said Commissioner J. W. Cunliffe. "He has had a square deal." Chairman R. Hessell ruled that Mr. Swift be denied the privilege of addressing the meeting.

"Severe criticism has been made of us by him," continued Commissioner Tallant. "It is not my wish that any man be forced to go on and live in one of the commission houses as a dissatisfied owner. I mean to bring this to a climax. It appears to me that Mr. Swift is a chronic kicker.

"We have been very fair in all our dealings with him. I move that he be granted the privilege to sign off all claim to his house, and if it is in reasonable condition that his deposit fee be refunded. His payments can go on as rent, and Building Inspector Piper is to pass on the house before we accept it back."

Investigate $1,390 Account.

J. W. Cunliffe seconded the motion, which carried.

As Mr. Swift was leaving the meeting, Chairman R. Hessell cautioned him, saying: "I ask you not to implicate the commission as a body in any statements to the press. Commissioner Tallant and myself are practically disinterested, and want no newspaper criticism."

"I am fair-minded enough for that," agreed Mr. Swift.

F. B. Lavender, former sales manager for the commission, through his solicitors, presented an account for $1,390, alleged due him from the above body. As vouchers were produced showing that the bulk of these accounts have been paid, and that little if any money is owing to Mr. Lavender, the accounts were ordered held up for further investigation.

In addition to transacting routine business the commission decided to meet in future on the second and fourth Monday of each month.

FLIES 1,000 MILES WITH NO STOPS

PARIS, July 6.—Lieut. Pelletier Doisy effected a non-stop flight today from Tunis, Northern Africa, to Le Bourget, near Paris, a distance of about 1,000 miles, in 10 hours and 55 minutes, in spite of high winds. He started at 7 o'clock this morning, flying over Sardinia and Corsica; he then followed the valley of the Rhone to Paris, and landed at Le Bourget at 5:55 p.m.

REPORTS HARVEST OUTLOOK BRIGHT

CALGARY, July 6.—Crop conditions based upon reports of the United Grain Growers were given out today by E. J. Fream, newly-appointed commissioner of the Southern Alberta drought relief act, and which were said to be the most optimistic reports yet issued on the crops thus far this season.

True, in some districts lack of rain has been more or less destructive, but this will be more than offset by the yields where plenty of moisture has been recorded. The reports have been gathered from practically every section of Alberta, with the exception of Grande Prairie, and are such as further to instill confidence that the harvest this season will compare favorably with other years, and will doubtless surpass the yield of the last three seasons.

STATES WHEAT BOARD NECESSARY

CALGARY, July 6.—Only through the establishment of a compulsory wheat board, preferably one operated by the three western provinces, could the farmers ever hope to get a fair price for their grain, was the opinion expressed by H. W. Wood of the United Farmers of Alberta, in an address on the wheat board given before the members of the board of trade today.

"The price of wheat will never be stabilized unless such a board is established. Under the present system we are unable to control the flow of wheat to the market, and consequently we cannot hope to control the price," he said.

GIVEN CUSTODY OF HER CHILDREN

TORONTO, July 6.—Mrs. Isabel Vale, 53 Dunvegan road, through her counsel, George H. Kilmer, K.C., at Osgoode Hall today obtained from Mr. Justice Middleton an injunction until trial of her action, restraining her husband, Percy A. Vale, from interfering with the custody of the two children, Nisbet, aged 11, and Eleanor, aged 4.

The boy and girl are with her now.

TRAVELERS WILL HOLD PICNIC JULY 15

Chairmen Complete Arrangements of Varied and Interesting Program.

All details of the arrangements for the big picnic of the Ontario Commercial Travelers' Association, July 15, have been completed by the chairmen of the committees, it is announced.

The prize lists and sports lists were gone over at a meeting of the chairmen. Many donations, for which the committees are very grateful, have been received from wholesale and retail merchant establishments throughout the city and district and from manufacturers. These donations to the prize lists have swelled the number of events to about 35.

Included in the sports are many novelties, a watermelon eating contest, a big mystery contest for the ladies, a pie eating contest in the evening for everyone on the beach in bathing suits, and others. The stunts committee reports that they have a number of surprises, which they intend to keep from the light until the big day.

Next Saturday night the travelers will hold a parade in the downtown district to stir interest in their forthcoming grand event of the year. Several bands are expected to be in attendance.

The committee chairmen are: John Doidge, general chairman; Fred St. Lawrence, Richard Magee, Daniel S. McGugan, George T. Hair, Edward Thorpe and O. H. Gidley.

Besides the prizes for the contests from six to eight grand prizes have been prepared for the picnic.

FAMOUS SOLDIER BORN IN LONDON

OTTAWA, July 6.—The distinguished soldier, Major-Gen. Sir Edward Morrison, is today celebrating his 55th birthday at his home, McLeod street.

Gen. Morrison, who was recently seized with a serious illness, is fast recuperating, and is able to be up and about.

Friends and well-wishers who called today were glad to note the marked improvement shown in his general health, and although a period of rest has been prescribed by his physicians, Sir Edward hopes soon to resume his duties at milltia headquarters. Sir Edward was born in London, Ontario.

BOY DROWNS AT SOUTHAMPTON

Special to London Advertiser.

SOUTHAMPTON, July 6. — A drowning accident occurred here yesterday, by which a boy, Fred Scott, lost his life. With a couple of companions he was bathing in the harbor, and jumped off the dock in about fifteen feet of water. His companions were unable to rescue him, not being strong swimmers. His body was recovered about two hours later.
