NOT RUNNING ON TIME.—Although there may be an excuse for the inconvenience caused the public lately by the ferry, there is no reason why the boat cannot make regular trips. GOING UP.

Howe seems to have inspired the boys with new life, and yesterday they won again from the Shamrocks. Unfortunately, in the fifth, Howe was struck on the neck, and disabled. Priest went in to the box, and did fine work, for which he has received not a little credit.

The Shamrock game was full of errors while James Sullivan was batted for 12 total bases. Lezotte, displayed remarkable ability in muffling the ball, and Fitzpatrick was not far behind him in that respect. Parsons for the St. Johns is rapidly acquiring the faculty of fumbling the ball, and doesn't seem to know when to hold it after he has fumbled it. Parsons appears to think the further he canthrow it from him on these occasions the better.

Frank White put up a great game, and once landed the sphere way out of sight.

Pushor comes in for a large share of the credit, and the way the little backstop works is a matter of unceasing admiration to the grand stand.

Kennedy and Kearns were right up to time yesterday, and the latter did some effective stick work at the right moments.

The score by innings stood:—

Presentation to F. W. Cram.

A very pleasant duty devolved upon Mr. Moses Eurpee, chief engineer of the New Brunswick railway last evening. The occasion was the reading and presentation of a farewell address to F. W. Cram, the retiring general manager of the road.

The address was from the employes of the N. B. R. and expressed the profoundest feelings of regret at Mr. Cram's retirement. It was neatly gotten up on parchment, the engrossing having been done by Walter C, Fairweather, sufficient guarantee for its excellence,

After Mr. Burpee had read the address and made a few remarks, Mr. Cram arose to reply. He made a very feeling speech, thanking the employees for their gift and wishing them all prosperity through life. The address was signed by Messrs. Burpee, chief engineer; G. A. Haggerty, mechanical superintendent, Jno, Stewart, northern division and A. J. Heath, general ticket and passenger agent, on behalf of their different departments. It is enclosed by a magnificent bronze frame.

Mr. Cram left this morning for his home at Bangor, Maine, carrying with him the best wishes of hosts of friends. He will ever be remembered as a kind and courteous gentleman, to whom his employes could go for advice or assistance, both of which would be willingly given them.

Of Personal Interest.

Mr. George Stewart, formerly of the firm of Messrs. Stewart & White of this city is visiting here at present.

Mrs. M. R. Wright, the special commissioner of the New York World, who has been here for the past few days left last night for Montreal.

A Live Newspaper.

[Fredericton Gleaner.]

The St John GAZETTE celebrated its second birthday of publishing a handsome sixteen page paper. The GAZETTE is a live newspaper ably edited and well conducted in all departments. The Gleaner wishes the GAZETTE continued success.

MONDAY WAS A PRETTY HOT DAY, but not too hot for a down town merchant to take some exercise on a bicycle. He rode very well, but the crossing over the gutter was steep, and a plank stuck up pretty high and the telegraph pole wouldn't get out of the way, so a collision occurred. The damages were not extensive.—Fredericton Reporter.

TO PLOUGH UP A GRAVEYARD.—Some parties have made complaints concerning the use of the old burying ground at head of Steadman street as a horse pasture. It appears that policeman Steadman claims the graveyard, it having been the property of one of his ancestors who was among the early settlers and gave the land for burial and church purposes. When parties remonstrated with him about the use of the burial ground as a pasture Steadman replied that if they had any friends buried there they better remove them at once as he intended to plough up the ground next year.—Moncton Times.

Some Good Days.

An Adelaide, Australian, daily paper has in its employ three men named Day. One of them is called Sun Day, because he is a clergyman; another being the cashier, is called Pay Day, while the third being a law reporter, goes by the name of Judgment Day.

PEIER ISLAND CO.'S Grape Juice is invaluable for sickness and as a tonic is unequalled. It is recommended by Physicians, being pure, unadulterated juice of the grape. Our agent, E. G. Scovil, Tea importer, No. 13 North Wharf, can supply our Brands of Grape Juices by the case of one dozen.

Nolan Again.

Mr. John Mackay rather enjoys his experience with A. E. Nolan, the confidence man, some of whose operations have been noted in these columns, as he came out of them unscathed. Nolan introduced himself as the representative of Carney & Co., a large tea firm in New York, and wanted to purchase 25 half chests of tea dust, an article that is hardly known in this market, for a customer. This Mr. Mackay was unable to supply. Nolan appeared to be a shrewd business man, and suggested that Mr. Mackay should supply him with samples of some grades of tea that his house did not carry, for use during his trip up the North Shore, which was done. Nolan's next move was to ask Mr. Mackay to cast his cheque on the Dalhousie savings bank. Now money is never drawn from savings banks on cheques, and that the representative of such a house as Carnny & Co's should be so ignorant of business methods awakened Mr. Mackay's suspicions and he declined to act as his banker. They did not disconcert Mr. Nolan in the least, as he said he probably had sufficient funds to last him till he reached Dalhousie, where he would draw from his deposit in person. Shortly after Mr. Mackay was shown a sample of tea for which Nolan had taken an order from a firm on King Square at 7 cents a pound. As the tea was worth 25 cents, Mr. M. sent for Nolan and referred to his King Square sale, which he at first denied but afterwards acknowledged. Mr. Mackay then proposed to buy the entire stock of this brand of tea held by Carney & Co., (some 500 half chests) cash on delivery, but Nolan did not care to break up the stock. This precious scoundrel attempted to palm off another bogus check on the King Square grocers but as they had been warned by Mr. Mackay of the slippery character of the man they escaped being victimized. At a final interview Mr. M. got back his samples and advised Nolan to leave his store with the utmost despatch and to keep on travelling till he got out of town, which he did.

Ashore on Mahogany Island.

The schooner A. J., bound from Advocate, N. S., to this port with a cargo of deals went ashore about 9 o'clock last night on Mahogany Island. There was a thick fog and very little wind. Previous to striking, breakers were heard but before the vessel could be "stayed" the swift tide drifted her on the rocks. She thumped about for half an hour when she again went into the water. The hold and cabins were full, and the crew were forced to remain on deck. The A. J. reached Partridge Island this morning and was towed in by the tug G.D.Hunter. When grounded at Lower cove the bottom was found to be badly damaged. All the shoe is destroyed, a hole is stove in the port side below the main rigging and the bottom is very badly chafed, a piece of keel is also broken off and the rudder slightly damaged.

Captain Malcolm Morris of Advocate who commands the A. J. owns her. After the cargo of deals is discharged the intention is to take the vessel to Advocate for repairs.

Police Court.

Leonard Rourke, Michael Cain, Leonard Morris and Michael Donovan, were fined $4 each for drunkenness. Margaret Christine was fined $8 for the same offence,

A boy named John Baird, of Amherst, was accidentally shot in the leg, last Monday morning. He was playing with a revolver, when it went off and the bullet lodged in his leg, just above the knee. He was afterwards seen by a doctor, but no trace of the bullet could be found.

On Tuesday evening a young man named Arthur Carroll had a narrow escape from being killed in Halifax. He was riding on a hack when a branch of a tree which hung over the middle of the street, caught him by the throat and hauled him off the cab. Carroll was picked up senseless. In addition to a deep skull wound there was a bad bruise on the young man's neck where the branch had torn some of the flesh off.

Harkins' Dramatic Co.

Fate, at the Institute last evening, met with a hearty reception. It is emotional throughout, although the sameness is broken in many places by flashes of humor. Miss Arthur, as Florence Grantly, had a difficult role to perform, and she performed it well. Miss Maddern as Blanche Sterling, was cunning, contriving and capable, and displayed excellent discernment in the interpretation of this character. E. L. Snader appeared to his best advantage as Harry Grantly, and received well merited applause, while W. T. Melville was as funny as ever. Fate will be presented to-night for the last time.

It is proposed by the friends of Manager Harkins that he be tendered a complimentary benefit on Saturday night next and the idea is a good one. There is no doubt a crowded house would be present as a mark of public appreciation of Mr. Harkins' efforts to give the citizens of St. John a theatrical season of special merit. This gentleman has spared no pains, no labor and no expense to produce plays here which are in the main new to this city, and St. John folks will be glad of an opportunity to show Mr. Harkins that they recognize his work. His company is one of extra talent, one and all, and the manager fully merits the proposed compliment.

Progress of the Fisheries.

FISHERIES REPORT, July 29.—There was no fishing today at Margaree, Cheticamp, Ingonish and Meat Cove, owing to rough sea and scarcity of bait. Fishing was poor at Arichat, St. Anns, White Head, Caraquette, N. B., and point Escuminac—also at Pierce (Que.) and very little done at Grand River (Que.), as most of the boats are out on the Banks. Cod fishing was very good at Paspebiac (clams being used for bait), and good at Pubnico, N. S., and L'Ardoise, C. B. Codfish are reported plentiful at Lunenburg and 10 miles off Port Latour. The only report of herring fishing today is from L'Ardoise where it is reported good, and from St. Peter's where it is fair. Mackerel reported taking hooks freely at Miminegash on Saturday evening, yesterday and this morning. Mackerel fishing still continued good in shore at Lunenburg. Large quantities of squid are schooling in Lunenburg harbor and fair catch made at Campobello.

Does Not Forget to Crow.

[Newcastle Advocate.]

The St. John Evening Gazette of Monday last celebrated its second anniversary by issuing a double number of sixteen pages. The GAZETTE has a large circulation, and consequently a good advertising patronage, and does not forget to crow about it frequently, which is perhaps excusable under the circumstances. We cordially congratulate it for its enterprise.

Direct China Teas.

London, 17th July, 1890.

W. F. HATHEWAY,
St. John, N. B.

DEAR SIR.

The settlements in Foochow have up to date been very small and the probability is that the pickings of the 3rd and 4th crop will fall considerably short compared with late years. Furthermore the rise in silver must increase the laying down price of teas.

Yours &c.

My Teas now on way from China are First Crop.
