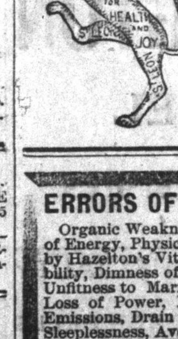
The cured-all sing St. Leon's praises,
The drink makes strong and fresh as daisies.



ST. LEON WATER is fast becoming the greatest power in the land for good. To those who have struggled to regain health and have been tortured, suffered all but death, 'tis a Godsend, and so they sing for joy. Others hear of the wonderful cures and so the demand increases. Thousands of new barrels are required to satisfy the press of orders. Incontrovertible proof that "St. Leon is valuable more than tongue can tell or gold purchase."—Dr. Welsh.

PAPER WAREHOUSE
30 WEST MARKET STREET, TORONTO.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
We beg to notify our patrons, and consumers of paper generally, that a gross FRAUD is now, and has been for some time past, being perpetrated upon them by some manufacturers of brown and rag linings and wrapping papers.
The fraud consists in the manner the paper is put up in. Papers invoiced as reams, which should always contain 480 sheets to the ream, are put up SHORT COUNT and contain usually 400 sheets—some only 320. The short count paper is made thicker than the standard sizes and weights, and is being used against us and to the loss of the consumer, especially when full count was expected as well as full weight.
Parties having such paper in stock, INVOICED TO THEM as REAMS, can demand the shortage in count, notwithstanding they have bought same by weight.
