To-Night.

To Mr. Lindsay Crawford,
President of the Self Determination League for Ireland, at Ottawa. Journalist and Lecturer.

Sure you'll come for to greet to-night
Irishmen all.
One who tells of the fight,
Where Erin's call,
The truth of a Nation's pride—
For which there, her sons had died,
The sad years her soul has tried,
Irishmen all.

Come hear the truth to-night,
Irishmen bold—
Who fears to tell the tale,
Or hear it unfold?
Tested by deeds—by tears,
Tested by weary years,
Pressed by tumultous fears
Irishmen bold.

Come to the meet to-night,
Wexford men all,
Dublin men, Kerry men,
Men from Innsfall.
Cork men, Tipperary men,
Cashel and Sligo ken,
Galway and its "Dail Eirean"
Irishmen all.

"A Contented Woman."

A Play Dealing With Woman Suffrage.

Last night the Klark-Urban Company again delighted their huge number of friends with a delightful rendition of a political satire, by Charles Hoyt, entitled "A Contented Woman." The play deals with the political career of the ambitious Benton Holmes who is nominated for Mayor and is opposed by his wife who is led into the affair by Aunt Jim, a raving suffragette. The comedy part of the production was amply distributed by Mr. N. S. Scoville who held the audience in convulsions of laughter with his original wit. Mr. Harden Klark, as Benton Holme, was all at home, whilst Miss Maizie Cecil did ample justice to the role of Mrs. Holme, the contented woman. To-night the attraction will be another sparkling comedy, entitled "Nothing but Lies," by James Montgomery, who is also author of the recent comedy success, "Nothing But the Truth." In this play, however, the hero bets he will tell nothing but lies, and in doing so finds he has tackled a difficult job, for when he does tell the truth he discovers that nobody believes him. This is a bright piece with fun in galore.

Congratulates Bell's Managers.

Editor Evening Telegram

Dear Sir.—In congratulating Bell on his wonderful exhibition last night, I think it only fair that a meed of praise should also be extended to his manager—the popular Harry Raines—and his trainer, A. Harvey Thomas.

After Bell's misfortune at Halifax, these two lads lost not their faith in him, but night after night were with him at his training. Ducky's preconcerted signals to the runner by means of a kerchief last night would do credit to the professional coach of a 'varsity football team.

We do not wonder where Mr. Thomas got his running experience, for we know him to be fully capable of being able to run a baseball team, and also a fair maiden, with professional aspirations, but we do wonder where Mr. Raines got his, for if we remember rightly it was for not knowing how to run that he earned his D.C.M. and Cross de Guerre in the war.

However, gentlemen, to all three of you our heartiest congratulations are extended; and under such capable management our local marathoner should seek fields afar to exhibit his prowess.

Yours very truly,
ONE OF THE STOVE LEAGUE.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited,

Gentlemen,—In July, 1915, I was thrown from a road machine, injuring my hip and back badly and was obliged to use a crutch for 14 months. In Sept., 1916, Mr. Wm. Outridge, of Lachute urged me to try MINARD'S LINIMENT, which I did with the most satisfactory results and to-day I am as well as ever in my life.

Yours sincerely,
