WALL STREET GOSSIP.

Cox & Co. received the following despatch from New York to-day: The talk among brokers at the uptown hotels last night was something of an improvement over that of the previous evenings, and here and there was found a broker whose opinion of the market was decidedly bullish. It is very generally conceded that if there were only more activity the market would go considerably higher, but past experience has proven that as a general thing a period of dullness is always at the expense of values. The Drexel-Morgan people, who do nothing of a speculative business, are bullish on the market generally, and their followings agree that no better opportunity than the present, is likely to be seen for investment purposes. While no general buoyancy may be looked for, a steady, even though moderate, improvement may be counted upon.

EUROPEAN AND MISCELLANEOUS.

The London market opened stronger and continued so throughout the day, closing fractionally higher in American securities, which were fairly dealt in.

The Bank of England rate remains at 4 per cent:

Hudson's Bay was quoted at 23 in London today.

Canadian Pacific sold to-day at 64½ in London, and 62½ in Montreal.

At Oil City to-day oil was again less active, and on a narrower range of prices, opening at 93½, touching 92½.

London quotations to-day were: Morning—Consols 102 15-16 for money, and 103 for account; U.S. 4's 128½; U.S. 4s's 110½; Erie 29½; Erie 2nd 100½; C.P.R. 64; N.Y.C. 112; Ill. Cent. 121. Afternoon—Consols 103 1-16 for money and 103½ for account; C.P.R. 64½; N.Y.C. 112½.
