YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS.

Sidney Kidney, a Young Man, Gets Into Trouble at the Junction.

Toronto Junction, May 27.—Sidney Kidner, a young man who lately came to town and got a position on the C.P.R., appeared before Mayor Laughton last night and confessed to having taken $10 from a satchel in Mr. Francis G. Halloway's house. Kidner wanted money for fireworks and candies on the Queen's Birthday, and took this means of getting the money. Whilst visiting a boarder at Mrs. Halloway's, Mrs. Holloway had occasion to take a $2 bill out of the satchel. Afterwards she missed a $10 bill, and this the police traced to Mr. Robinson's shop, where they got a description of the man. The matter was followed up and on the 25th Kidner left the C. P. R. employ complaining of being unwell. Yesterday Mr. Holloway came across Kidner, and charged him with the theft. He at last admitted it, and the police were called in. Mayor Laughton remanded him to jail until Tuesday, when he will come up for sentence.

Lodge Worcester, S.O.E.B.S., will parade to St. John's Church next Sunday afternoon, where they will be addressed by Rev. F. H. DuVernet. Mr. Tandy will sing upon this occasion, and the collection will go to the S.O.E. Hospital.

The newly organized Public School Board at Swansea, until recently in connection with Toronto Junction, met on Friday for the purpose of providing school accommodation for the children in the section living north of Bloor-street. It was considered advisable to re-open the old schoolhouse at the corner of Elizabeth and Annette-streets, which will need to be placed in proper repair, and engage a lady teacher to take charge after the summer vacation. The Swansea School will also be provided with a first-class teacher for the senior classes. It is the intention of the Board to make these schools in every respect equal to the city educational institutions, also to improve the grounds, making them attractive and instructive to the pupils. The school building at Swansea is architecturally a fine structure, with a fine cupola and flagstaff, and, when an ensign or Union Jack is provided, will be a marked object of the landscape scene from High Park or the Lake Shore-road.

The Bantam Baseball Club of the Junction played against the Parkdales at Brockton yesterday and were victorious by a score of 9 to 7.

Thornhill.

Mr. Thomas Farr left on Saturday for a trip to the Old Country.

Mr. William Ford, an old resident, was somewhat seriously hurt Thursday night, by being struck with a car. Mr. Ford had alighted from the car, and was walking along the track, and did not notice the approach of another car, which was fortunately traveling at a slow rate. He was picked up and conveyed home, and Dr. Nelles was called. It is not thought that anything more than a severe shaking up will result from the accident.

The waiting room has been refitted with lights of a much more satisfactory character than the previous ones.

Master Frank Houghton, who has had a painful illness, is now fairly on the way to recovery.

North Toronto.

The newly-elected Board of School Section 22 has applied to York Township Council for funds to improve the school grounds at Swansea, and for reopening the old schoolhouse on Elizabeth-street.

The Metropolitan Railway deny that the man found on Yonge-street on Thursday night fell off a car. The injuries from which the man was suffering are stated to have been the effects of a drunken brawl.

Notwithstanding the large amount of water said to have been obtained by deepening the town waterworks wells, the watering of Yonge-street has been discontinued, and the residents of that thoroughfare are highly indignant at the suffocating atmosphere that continually pervades the street.

Views of the life of Christ, by Mr. H. T. Whittemore, accompanied with a lecture by Rev. T. W. Patterson, will be given at Leaside Mission this night week.

A number of the members of Sherwood Lodge attended the S.O.E. church parade in the city yesterday afternoon.

"JOHN BROWN" SQUEALED.

And the Police Raided the House of Effie Spohn—Claims to Have Been Robbed.

On the complaint of a man named John Brown, who asserted that he had been robbed, the police on Saturday night raided a house at 13 Sheppard-street, kept by Effie Spohn. Besides the keeper, the officers arrested Constance Wainwright, Marguerite Tierney, Laura Johnston, Douglas McGregor, 19 East Richmond-street, and Frank Swansea, a "hooky" at the Woodbine. On their arrival at the station Brown alleged that the Johnston woman was the person who relieved him of his money, and she was charged with the theft. The others were charged with being keepers and frequenters of a disorderly house. The police also confiscated about two dozen bottles of beer found in the house.

Thomas Brown No More.

Thomas Brown, who had been a resident of this city for over 40 years, passed away yesterday at his late residence, 15 Bulwer-street. Deceased was 67 years of age. The interment will take place in Mount Pleasant Cemetery to-morrow at 10 a.m.

SOUTH AFRICAN WAR WILL BE OVER BY THE END OF JUNE

If Information From Boer Sources Means Anything—British Military Estimates Fix the Wind-up About July 4.

London, May 26.—(N. Y. Sun cable.)—The chief interest of the war now centres on the date of its conclusion. It is rather curious that the favored day in most of the military estimates is July 4.

Gen. Lord Roberts has shown an interesting predilection to select important anniversaries for the execution of his principal plans. It was on Majuba Day that he forced Cronje to surrender, and it was on the Queen's Birthday that he began his invasion of the Transvaal. It is hardly possible that this great Irish soldier should select the birthday of one republic for the destruction of another. It would be an act of bad taste, amounting almost to a direct affront, and Gen. Roberts has never been accused of being wanting in tact.

But if the information which comes from many Boer sources means anything, the war will be finished well within the ensuing month. There is now ample authority for the statement that the Transvaal Government asked Great Britain for terms of peace nearly a month ago. It was the relentless reply, equivalent to a demand for unconditional surrender, which alone united the federals for further resistance.

What Kruger is Doing.

President Kruger, even now, is willing to accept the inevitable without further bloodshed, for the Boer leaders can no longer deceive themselves with false hopes. A Spartan spirit, however, still dominates a large number of the burghers and they are ready to fight hopelessly with the same determination as tho a chance of retaining their independence remained. This indomitable band, however, diminishes daily in number.

According to public and private despatches received in the past few days the division of opinion as to the continuation of the war is impossible to reconcile, and President Kruger has shown his characteristic cleverness in referring the question of peace to the leaders of the Boer forces in the field. If they, or a considerable majority of the commandants, advise that they must succumb to the overwhelming forces of the enemy, the Transvaal authorities will make submission to Great Britain within a few days. Even this will not be accepted thru diplomatic channels. The reply of the British Government to an offer of submission from Pretoria will be that the surrender must be made to Gen. Roberts by all burghers under arms.

What About the Mines?

Additional attempts have been made unofficially this week to use the threatened fate of Johannesburg as a weapon to gain some promise of a concession from Great Britain. So far as known this has failed entirely. The probability increases, therefore, that the Rand mines will be destroyed by dynamite. This not unnatural act of revenge may indeed be the only condition upon which the irreconcilables among the Boers will consent to allow the peace faction to make submission.

The tendency in this country is to regard all Pretoria telegrams to the effect that the Transvaal Government is unable to resist the demand for the destruction of the mines as mere bluff. This is a natural suspicion, but it is hardly justified. According to the best Boer information, the owners of the Rand mines in the Transvaal are regarded as the chief instigators of the war. Gold is considered, of course, the real lodestone that is drawing Great Britain to the Boers' country, and the latter would be more than human if they did not desire to damage its source as much as possible. Furthermore, there are a large number of Transvaalers who will not remain in the country under British rule, and they have nothing to lose by doing everything possible that is detrimental to the usurpers.

Where Will Boers Go?

Ever since January leading Boers have been discussing the direction of their next trek. Many favor going to Brazil or the Argentine republic. Some of them advocate negotiating with France for a section of Madagascar, where there is said to be an execellent climate inland.

Peace seems, on the whole, not far off, but the owners of the Johannesburg mines cannot expect to escape scathless. As a matter of fact, the destruction of the mines, in the real sense of the word, is simply impossible. Immense damage can be done to the machinery, workings, etc., and an enormous expense must be incurred, but the gold will remain and will be still attainable.

COLLEGE ATHLETICS BARRED.

Dr. Quinn, Dean of Chicago College of Physicians and Surgeons, Says They Are Demoralizing.

Chicago, May 27.—The College of Physicians and Surgeons of Chicago decided to refuse recognition to athletics and no longer to give official sanction to the college football team.

Dr. William E. Quinn, dean of the college, says:

"Experience has taught us that college athletics have a demoralizing and disturbing influence on the students and interfere with the educational work of the college. We do not deny that athletics are of beneficial influence on the physical development of the young men, but the interests of education demand first recognition."

Death of Miss Pearcy.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon to St. James' Cemetery.

POLITICS IN GREAT BRITAIN

Government May Dissolve Parliament and Appeal to the People in July.

NEW IMPERIALISM IS POPULAR

And It is Thought Salisbury Will Take Advantage of It—Liberals Unprepared.

New York, May 27.—In his London cable to this morning's Tribune, Mr. Isaac N. Ford reviews the Parliamentary and political situation at considerable length, as follows:

"There are no indications in the bye-elections that the Government has lost the confidence of the country, or that any compromise will be tolerated in the settlement of the issues of the war. Successors to Sir Richard Webster and the Marquis of Lorne have been elected to the Commons by largely increased majorities. The South Manchester poll is an astonishing proof of the strength of the Unionist party in what was once a stronghold of Little England ideas and policies. There could not be a more striking illustration of the rise and progress of the new Imperialism than the nearly thirtyfold increase in the Ministerial majority in a factory constituency, where the ablest and most consistent Liberal, The Manchester Guardian, has been preaching to empty pews. These elections have a moral for the country, and hints for party managers.

Thoroness Without Sentiment.

"The moral is that there must be thoroness without sentimentality in the settlement of South African questions on broad lines of Imperial interests. The hints for party managers point to an early dissolution of Parliament, in order to allow the Unionists to take full advantage of the war feeling, and to entrench themselves in the stronghold of power for an interim of six years.

Liberals Are Unprepared.

"The Liberals are almost as unprepared to meet the Unionist onset as the Boers are to block the advance of Roberts' strong and mobile columns. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman lacks the instinct of leadership. Mr. Asquith is in better form than his colleagues, but the party is now made up of disheartened and scattered commandoes. Mr. Chamberlain, who is the best politician on the Unionist side, is known to be in favor of an appeal to the country in the early autumn, if not in July, and South Manchester backs him up.

Many Rumors in the Air.

"There are many rumors in the air today, but no decision has been reached by the Ministers, nor will there be one until Roberts is in Pretoria. If the war be brought to a close by the middle of June, as the most sanguine military authorities are now expecting will be the result, July seems to be out of the question, as the date of a general election. A far more probable time is October, the Houses of Parliament being simply adjourned toward the end of July, and not prorogued.

Personal Questions to Be Settled.

"Several important personal questions will have to be settled before the Unionists appeal to the country. One of these is Lord Salisbury's own preference for retirement from public life. It has been rumored many times that he would not remain in office after the dissolution of the present Parliament, and it is known that he was deterred only by a strong sense of public duty from retiring under the pressure of his bereavement and ill-health. The close of the war in South Africa and the strength of the Unionist party in the country will offer a most favorable opportunity for bringing his successful leadership to an end, when it has been crowned with honor.

Chamberlain and Balfour.

"It is not by any means certain that Mr. Chamberlain is anxious to wind up the South African controversy himself, especially when it is likely to prove a most harassing and thankless business. He would probably be readily reconciled to the elevation of Mr. Balfour to the peerage, with the honors of Prime Minister and the labors of the Foreign Office, provided he himself became either First Lord of the Treasury or Chancellor of the Exchequer with the leadership of the House of Commons; but there would be a searching of hearts and not a little high-toned profanity among old Tories if these changes were brought about.

Milner the Best Man.

"Sir Alfred Milner is without doubt the best man for the South African settlement for he has contrived to remain on good terms with the Dutch Ministry of Cape Colony, and has not excited personal resentment. This is an important qualification for the functions of a peacemaker, when there are at least 100,000 more Dutchmen than Englishmen in South Africa, and when the Confederation, to be worked out ultimately on Australian lines, must be essentially a Dutch scheme under a British crown. It is not unlikely that Sir Alfred Milner would be less embarrassed in working out a settlement if Mr. Chamberlain were in the Treasury, rather than in the Colonial Office; the Dutch in South Africa have come to regard the campaign as Mr. Chamberlain's war, and would be more easily placated if some other statesman were in the Colonial Office to settle the conditions of peace and reorganization."

BRYAN ASKED TO STEP ASIDE

And Make Way for Admiral Dewey as the Standard Bearer of the Democratic Party.

New York, May 26.—The Press to-day prints the following from its Washington correspondent:

"Bryan has been asked to step aside and make way for Admiral Dewey as the standard-bearer of the Democratic party.

"The anti-Bryan Democrats, or, more correctly speaking, the old Democratic leaders, are using moral suasion on the man from Nebraska to induce him to take this step in the interest of his party, that it may stand a chance to win a national victory next November. They have abandoned all plans for an open fight on Bryan in Kansas City, and have taken him into their councils and conference to show him the exact political situation as they see it. They have laid before him what they consider absolute information, showing that his election as President is impossible, and that his nomination in Kansas City means another Democratic defeat and the disorganization of the party."

THE SLAUGHTER WAS GREAT.

Native Allies of the British in the Gold Coast Colony Failed to Break Ashantee Siege.

Accra, May 26.—It is reported that three European officers were killed and Captain Aplin and 100 Hausers were wounded in a recent effort by the Lagos Hausers to break the investing lines of tribesmen at Coomassie.

The Ashantee loss is reported to have been great, as the Hausers had three Maxims engaged, altho themselves greatly outnumberd.

Three hundred Ashantees are said to have been killed in a previous action.

The rising is still spreading.
