THOUGHT OF OTHERS MAKES HER SPEAK OUT

Farmer's Wife Wants Everyone Suffering With Rheumatism and Stomach Trouble to Know How Tanlac Brought Health to Her.

"Since Tanlac has done so much for me, I can't help but think of others who need it like I did, and I feel that I ought to tell them about it," declared Mrs. J. P. Summers, wife of a well-known retired farmer, who recently moved to R. R. No. 8, London, Ont., from Lambeth.

"Before I got Tanlac I suffered terribly with stomach trouble, and I have been bothered with sick headaches and dizzy spells as long as I can remember. My appetite was so poor that I didn't relish a bit of my food, and anything I did eat seemed to turn to sour gas which caused my heart to trouble me a great deal. I had no energy at all, and could walk only a little way before I would give out completely and have to sit down and rest. About four years ago rheumatism started worrying me, and kept getting worse until my hones and joints ached dreadfully, and my back was so bad that after sitting down I could hardly get up again. It seemed like every muscle in my body hurt me, and I underwent treatment for about a year for muscular rheumatism, but got no relief.

"I saw in The London Advertiser where Tanlac was helping others, so much that I began taking it. I started to improve from the very first, and after finishing my second bottle I could eat all kinds of meats and vegetables, and thoroughly enjoyed my meals. I have taken five bottles now and no longer feel a sign of rheumatism, and never have a pain of any kind. Tanlac has certainly done a lot for me, and I believe in it so strongly that I want to recommend it to others suffering like I was."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, and by an established agency in every town.

PLAN IMPROVEMENTS FOR FAIR BUILDINGS

The Directors Will Consider Estimates At Their Annual Meeting.

SARNIA, Nov. 20.—The directors of the West Lambton County Fair at a meeting in the chamber of commerce headquarters considered many needed improvements to their quarters here including a new poultry building, new horticultural and dairy buildings, and also sheep and swine inclosures and subsequently appointed a committee to secure estimates on the costs of these improvements and report at the annual meeting to be held in January. The directors adopted a resolution authorizing the president to make alterations in the main building by having constructed an elevated platform for the exclusive display of ladies' work which will give space for ten more booths for mercantile or other displays the demand for which this year was greater than the accommodation. A preliminary summary of the year's transactions was submitted showing total receipts from all sources $6,963.35, with total disbursements to date $6,606.80, against which there are further liabilities estimated at $340. Included in the above disbursements was $1,927.44 paid out for permanent improvements.

The camp will be held at Windsor, and will be in command of Colonel Wigle. Winter classes will be commenced the first week of December at the armory for qualification in all ranks. May Revert to Piece Work.

Another 10 per cent of the employees of the M. C. R. shops will be laid off tomorrow. Although the staff is being gradually reduced, the men claim that there is much unfinished work to be done. The older men see in the periodical reduction of the staff, a possibility of the company making the piece system a permanent proposition in the shops.

ACQUITTED ON CHARGE OF HAVING LIQUOR

Fred Griffin of Port Rowan Filed Claim For Broken Jar.

SIMCOE, Nov. 20.—Fred Griffin was acquitted by Magistrate Hutchinson at Port Rowan yesterday on the charge of having liquor in an unlawful place, but it has developed that the broken jar, received from the express company, and for the deficiency in which he has filed a claim, had been emptied after it was taken over by the constables. The action grew out of a row between Griffin and Procunier, a garage man of Port Rowan, who charged Griffin with the theft of two bottles of whiskey from his premises. Griffin declared that he purchased the bottles from a man on the street.

Griffin was also charged with theft and assault. He elected to go before a higher tribunal. His farm helper, Swan, was coupled with him in all the charges, but has been eliminated from all save one.

GREASY RAILS CAUSE CRASH AT WOODSTOCK

WOODSTOCK, Nov. 21.—Greasy rails caused a collision in the local G. T. R. yards yesterday afternoon. The eastbound passenger train was pulling out of the station, and at the first switch came in contact with the yard engine. The engineer of the yard engine saw the passenger approaching, but the rails prevented him getting his engine out of the way. Both locomotives were derailed, and it was necessary to summon the auxiliary from London. The track was cleared before 5 o'clock.

Special services at All Saints' Church were conducted today by Bishop Williams. The event was an important one in the history of the church, which has succeeded in clearing off all its debt. The church was built through the efforts of Bishop Farthing 33 years ago while the bishop was rector of New St. Paul's, and was connected with that parish until 1915, when it became an independent parish.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

TWO LOADS HAY SELL AT $30 PER TON TODAY

Buyers Claim Sales Will Be Slow This Week—Active Demand for Eggs.

Inclement weather in this part of the country kept a number of the farmers from the local market this morning. Two loads of hay were all that were offered. They sold for $30 per ton. Buyers would not pay any higher because both loads were damp as a result of coming several miles in the rain, thus weighing heavier. Buyers say that the demand this week will be slow. Two of the leading buyers stated to The Advertiser that they had no orders this week. Therefore if there is no demand, prices will undoubtedly take a big slump. There were 60 loads sold on the market last week.

Although heavy supplies of potatoes were offered last week, and especially on Saturday, there were no changes recorded. Officials say they will remain at the present quotations all this week, but buyers say that if the supplies increase they will be cheaper.

The active demand for eggs at this time of the year did not increase prices any. Farmers say their hens are laying well for this time of the year. The wholesale quotation is 73c per dozen, and the retail 80c per dozen.

Dressed hogs were slightly firmer when they brought from $20 to $21.50 per cwt. today. Live hogs were unchanged, although there is a tendency for them to be higher before the end of the week. Saturday markets in Toronto brought the price up to $14.75 to $15 per cwt.

Creamery butter to the retailer was 2c per pound lower. It now sells for 60c per pound. All other grades of butter are firm and in good demand.

Poultry quotations were unchanged, although supplies on Saturday were large.

GRAIN.

Winnipeg, Nov. 22.—Wheat opened 1½c higher for November at $1 98½; December 3c up at $1 78, and May 2c to 3c higher at $1 79@1 80.

Oats opened ⅛c higher for November at 52½c; December ⅝c higher at 51⅝c, and May ¼c up at 56c.

Flax opened 3c lower for November at $1 97, and 1c lower for December at $1 96.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Opening: Wheat—Dec., $1 70; March, $1 62.

Corn—Dec., 65¼c; May, 71¼c.

Oats—Dec., 44⅛c; May, 48⅝c.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Wheat prices dropped today to the lowest level yet, although it is now 71 days since the grain market began to fall. Adverse commercial conditions remained the ruling factor. Opening prices, which varied from the same as Saturday's finish to 3½c higher, were followed by tumbles which received no important check until the market had reached $1 62½ for December and $1 55 for March.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Corn gave way with wheat. After opening ½ to 2⅞c higher, including December at 65c to 65¼c, the market hardened a little more, and then suffered a decided general break. Oats reflected the weakness of other cereals, starting unchanged to one cent higher, and then descending rapidly.

The strongest features included Bethlehem, Crucible and Republic Steels, United States Rubber, Atlantic-Gulf, Mercantile Marine preferred, Mexican and Pan-American Petroleums, American Tobacco, Tobacco Products, Retail Stores, Beet Sugar, American Locomotive and General Electric. Such rails as Southern Pacific, Reading, New York Central, New Haven and Rock Island also contributed in moderate measure to the rally. WOOD DOORS DATE TO EARLIEST TIMES

Richly Carved Specimens Are Found in Ancient Churches.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—Among the famous doors of history are the carved wooden doors of the Church of Saint Sabina, Rome, depicting in relief scenes from the Old and New Testaments. These are one of the most remarkable examples of early Christian sculpture extant.

In the earliest times, as in Babylon, doors swung on sockets instead of hinges. In Roman days wooden doors were decorated with bronze and inlaid, and throughout the middle ages richly carved doors of wood adorned the churches. In the Gothic period wooden doors were decorated with wrought-iron hinges, which were often elaborated into intricate ornamentation covering a large part of the door. The doors of the cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris of the thirteenth century are the finest examples of this class. During the Renaissance in Germany and France elaborately carved doors were among the most beautiful products of wood sculpture.

Some of the old English doors were formed of narrow planks placed side by side. In dwelling houses generally, in the middle ages, the doors were small and fairly simple, meant for strictly practicable purposes and often provided with some means of defense. The doors of the Norman period were round-headed, while with the thirteenth century came the doorway, with the pointed arch and later the flattened arch.

In the case of interior doors splendid old polished mahogany doors were important features in some old English homes and there were old oak doors of wonderful beauty, especially when found in oak-panneled rooms.

Haphazard selection of doors of the ready-made variety should not be allowed in the building of a fine home, but the doors should be designed by the architect who builds the structure, that they may be in keeping with the general style of the house. Upon the attractiveness and distinction of the doors and doorway depends the visitor's first impression of the home he is about to enter.

SNOW WIDOW, 90, TO TAKE 4TH HUSBAND

Stanley, B. C., Nov. 20.—Mrs. John McKenzie, the "Snow Widow" and idol of the Cree Indians, again is to become a bride at the age of 90. Rumor has it that every evening at dusk a redman makes his way to the wigwam of the "Snow Widow." He will become her fourth husband.

Along those fabled rivers that go tumbling north of the Arctic the weird, tragic tale of the "Snow Widow" is still whispered at night in the glow of the campfires. Around the adventures of the aged Indian woman members of her own tribe are ever weaving new tales. But in the records of the Hudson Bay Company may be found the true story.

The Crees say the "Snow Widow" represents the great soul of the far north, which can be found only among redmen and their squaws.

Mrs. McKenzie lost three husbands, all trappers. Two were frozen to death. The third died of starvation. It was while the latter lay dying that Mrs. McKenzie's tragic adventure took place. They were camped 100 miles north of Stanley Mission. In the dead of winter game became so scarce that with their two babies they faced starvation. Then the husband fell ill. Only food would save him.

With the two babies, one nursing, Mrs. McKenzie started the 100-mile trip with a famished dog team. After 30 miles the dogs died. Buckling the babies in the sled, she fastened the harness about her own waist and continued 10 miles.

Then one babe fell ill and died. She wrapped a blanket about the tiny body, placed it deep in the snow and out of the twigs of a pine tree fashioned a pitiful little cross which was placed over the spot. Then she continued the journey.

On her arrival food was hurried to her husband, but he was dead. She became the "Snow Widow."

FIRE GUTS QUEBEC RETAIL STORES WITH HALF MILLION LOSS

QUEBEC, Nov. 21.—(By Canadian Press).—Fire losses aggregating over half a million dollars were caused here this morning by a blaze which swept the heart of the retail business section and at one time threatened to become a conflagration. The blaze, which was discovered in the early hours of the morning, had been burning for hours before discovery, and started in the drygoods firm of Marceau & Co., 155 St. Joseph street, spreading thence to the Woolworth store. The fire, reaching a deposit of celluloid goods, was followed by a violent explosion, which immediately caused the fire to spread to the Paquet clothing establishment next door.

By 8 o'clock the blaze was under control, but not before the Marceau and Woolworth stores were completely destroyed and the Paquet Building, with its contents much injured.

Insurance is carried on only a portion of the burned stock.

Fireman Fraser Lapointe was severely burned about the head and face and was taken to Hotel Dieu Hospital. Seven other firemen were more or less injured, but remained on duty.
