therland and a young man of the name of Spencer, whom they say is his Aid-de-Camp were captured yesterday by Colonel Prince of Sandwich, about two miles on the ice, he brought them in here, and lodged them in the Guard House; but I think it is not safe than they should remain here long: I shall forward them to-day under a strong escort to Toronto, in charge of Captain Rudyer of the loyal Essex Volunteers.

I have had no conversation with this man, except merely to state to him that it was my duty to send him to Toronto.

Captain Rudyer has been acting here as Brigade Major since the calling out of the Militia Force in this part of the country. I and Colonel Townshend have found him very useful in this situation; he was with his company with me at the capture of Point au Pele Island, and will be able to give you any information you may require upon this subject.

I was very lucky in having nearly the last of the frosty weather to drive these fellows off the Island, for last night and this morning the weather has become soft, and the ice is beginning to get rotten.

Somehow or other, I think Sutherland must have been making his way to the Island when he was taken, but he pretends to know nothing of the action that took place.

I have nothing new to report to you. Our wounded men are doing pretty well, but some of the wounds are most severe bone wounds. I have been obliged to send to London express for the other Assistant Surgeon of the Regiment; indeed, I think if he could be spared, another Army Medical Officer is required for the moment.

Enclosed is a deposition made before a Magistrate by Colonel Prince, relative to the capture of Sutherland and Spencer.

I am, Dear Colonel, Your's faithfully,
(signed) JOHN MAITLAND.
Colonel Commanding Western District.
To Colonel Foster, Commanding the Forces in Upper Canada, &c. &c. &c.

Montreal, March 8th.—We regret to learn that the Legislative Council of Upper Canada have rejected the Bill passed by the Assembly, granting a sum of money to purchase swords, to be presented to Colonel Macnab and Captain Drew, in token of their meritorious conduct on the Niagara frontier.

We learn from Toronto that Mr. Wells has been expelled from the House of Assembly, and that Mr. Salmons has taken his seat in the House, as Member for Norfolk, in the room of Dr. Rolph, expelled.

Communication to the Editor of The Quebec Gazette.

SIR—Sir George Arthur, successor to the present Lieutenant Governor of Upper Canada, is probably on his journey from New York to Toronto; and in a few days, we shall have within our walls, the noble and patriotic Sir Francis Head. Let the citizens of Quebec do honor to themselves, by inviting this true-hearted Briton to a public banquet; and let a meeting for that purpose be called without delay. No reasons of delicacy towards the late Governor in Chief must now interfere with this proper and necessary act of respect, to one who has maintained to the last the honor and welfare of the Province entrusted to his Government.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient Servant,
"ONE OF MANY."
