Contestants weigh in at the rink each night after 7 o'clock.

Besides winning the league, for which they get a handsome set of medals, they also won the Wilson Trophy, given by Harold Wilson, King-street, and the Ryan Cup, given by J. W. Ryan of the Riverdale Hotel. These trophies will be presented at the banquet and the boys of the blue and white expect a large attendance.

Sporting Notes.

Toronto Baseball Club has been sold, says an exchange, and so has the man who bought it.—Hamilton Herald.

The boys at St. Andrew's College are hard at work training for the annual cross-country race, to be held to-day for the Wallace Cup.

In a 24-hour billiard match in Paris the pedometer attached to the leg of one of the contestants showed that he had walked 22½ miles around the table during the contest.

Jimmy Ryan, the old National Leaguer, and last year manager of the Colorado Springs team of the Western League, has practically completed negotiations for the purchase of the franchise at Evansville in the Central League of which G. W. Pickett is president.

Highlanders' Bowling League.

The Highlanders will roll for the company championship of the regiment this winter, having decided to organize a league. For that purpose a meeting will be held to-night in E Company's quarters. One representative from each company is requested to be present, as officers will be elected and preliminary arrangements made for the season's bowling.

Varsity Lacrosse Meeting.

The Varsity Lacrosse Club will meet on Friday, Nov. 18, at the gymnasium, not on Tuesday, as previously announced.

IGNORANCE PRODUCES DISTRUST.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, Nov. 14.—Hon. W. H. Irvine, ex-premier of Victoria, Australia, in the course of his speech, commented on the amazing ignorance in Great Britain regarding Australia as producing distrust and tending to paralyze enterprise in commercial relations. The ties of sentiment were already too attenuated, and many were incapable of standing the strain and struggle with self-interest. Mr. Irvine saw a solution in Mr. Chamberlain's scheme.

Turf Gossip.

The Kentucky autumn steeplechase, Saturday's feature at Latonia, was captured by Rip in a driving finish from the odds-on favorite, Charawind. Pemberton, on Charawind, claimed a foul, but it was not allowed.

On a muddy track and held at the probabilitive price of 1 to 12, Dolly Spanker easily won the Elgemore Stakes at Aqueduct. Out of the original six starters, four were scratched, and Seymour was added. The start was good, Ostrich being practically left at the post. Seymour made the pace for a quarter of a mile, when Dolly Spanker went to the front and won by eight lengths. Seymour tired in the stretch and Ostrich beat him five lengths.

Saturday was getaway day at Pimlico and the attendance was the largest of the meeting. The feature of the card, which was an extra good one, was the steeplechase handicap, which was won by King Carter, a 12 to 1 shot. Woolgatherer was made a big favorite, but was never in the running. Walter Cleary took the lead at the start and held it for two miles, when King Carter, beautifully ridden by Helder, forged ahead and won in a romp. Walter Cleary tired and was beaten in the stretch by Woden and Billy Ray.

At a meeting of the stewards of the N.Y. Jockey Club Saturday, the dates June 10 to July 25, 1905, inclusive, were granted to the Buffalo Racing Association. Thus the O.J.C. will likely open Saturday, May 20, running to Saturday, June 3, and allowing Hamilton the week, June 5—10.

A meeting of the Dufferin Driving Club takes place at the club house to-night at 8 o'clock.

Conscience and Creed.

Rev. A. B. McKay of Crescent Presbyterian Church, Montreal, occupied the pulpit in Bloor-street Presbyterian last evening.

"I intend to speak of conscience and creed," he said. "It might be suggested that I mean conduct and creed, but I do not. A man's conduct is not an infallible index of his soul. He may go around among men and walk uprightly, while at heart he is black as hell. A man's creed is a statement of what he believes, but he can never know God by any rule or statement. If one's soul has not been touched by the grace and mercy of God, and has learned what is good and pure and true, he can never be taught by quoting texts or by any rules."

Harvest Home Service.

New Richmond Methodist Church, McCaul-street, held its harvest home services yesterday. The pastor, Rev. J. C. Speers, D.D., preached both morning and evening. The services were enlivened by a chorus of some 200 children from the Sunday school, who sang several fine choruses. The text for the evening service was Chronicles xxvi., 27: "Out of the spoils won in battles did they dedicate to maintain the house of the Lord." His subject was "Church Support," pointing out the many ways of worship and the people who used the church for all there was in it, but gave nothing towards it.

Latest for So Many.

Quebec, Nov. 13.—Nine hundred and eighty-five immigrants arrived in port Saturday by the Tunisian and Lake Manitoba. Never before have so many new settlers arrived in this port so late in the season.

$1500 PRIZES FOR TRIAL RACES R.C.Y.C. MAY HAVE 5 CHALLENGERS

General Meeting Saturday Night Elects Sailing Committee—About New Island Club House—The Prize Winners.

On Saturday evening the R. C. Y. C. held its general meeting for the election of a sailing committee for the season of 1905. Amongst those present were the officers of the club, ex-Commodores Boswell and Jarvis, Drs. Riordan, Garratt, O'Reilly and Russell, Messrs. Bath, Turner, Nasmith, Cartwright, Carter, Young, Lockie, Wright, Rutherford, Watkins, Gooderham, Jellatt, Worts, Brown, Jennings, Macrae, Milne, Ardagh, Playfair, Douglas, Wilson, McArthur, Angus, Logan, Staunton, Sweetman, Crean, McMurrich, Murray, Bond, McMurtry, Townsend, Harman, Marks and others.

Commodore Haas took the chair and after a few preliminary remarks pointing out the prosperous condition of the club, commenced the business of the evening. The notice calling the meeting having been read and the minutes of last meeting having been confirmed, the report of the 1904 sailing committee was adopted.

The various prizes having been distributed by the commodore, the question of giving a club ball was taken up, ex-Commodores Boswell and Jarvis both speaking strongly in favor of holding one, and both expressing the hope and full expectation that the new governor-general and Lady Grey would consent to grace the occasion with their presence.

Last year the club suspended the payment of annual subscriptions for members dated between now and April 1 next, and it was decided to follow the same course this year for the same period.

The coming race for the Canada Cup was next taken up, the commodore informing the members that already three challengers were ordered—one by F. B. Nicholls, another by J. Worts and a third by H. I. Darrell, and he had an idea that at least two more might be built. He also pointed out the inducements for building offered by the club, the prizes for the trial races amounting to $1500.

The commodore then informed the members of the new island club property lease—$100 annually for 21 years, which was unanimously concurred in and pronounced very satisfactory.

A bylaw by which funds for the rebuilding of the Island clubhouse destroyed by fire in August last could be provided was submitted and unanimously agreed to. It authorizes the committee to raise $24,000 by first mortgage on the club's entire property and the issue of debentures for $12,000 additional to be secured by a second mortgage on the club property, out of which moneys to reduce the present indebtedness of the club, amounting to $6000, will be paid and the new club house built.

The sailing committee for 1905 were then balloted for, and the scrutineers, Messrs. Bruce Harman, C. Townsend and T. McMurrich, declared the following elected: J. S. McMurray, P. A. Bath, F. W. Turner, H. Logan, J. W. Rutherford, W. H. Parsons, Dr. A. H. Garratt.

A vote of thanks to the scrutineers closed the meeting.

Report of Sailing Committee.

The sailing committee in presenting their report beg to congratulate the yachting men and members generally on the enthusiastic manner in which the sailing program for the year has been carried out.

There has never been a season in which all the club races have filled and sailed as in the season just ended.

The cruising races were a feature of the racing, and proved entirely successful, both in the first class and in the divisional races by the fleet.

The division of the fleet into two classes also proved desirable, as it gave all the boats in the second division a chance to sail in every race, irrespective of their class, which otherwise would not have been the case.

There have been a number of additions to the fleet in the smaller classes, including the 16-foot ballasted class, in which there are three new boats; and your committee hopes to see this popular and useful class largely increased next year.

A challenge has been issued to the Rochester Yacht Club for a series of races for the Canada's Cup, to be sailed at Rochester next year, and a handsome sum to be given as prizes for the trial races has been subscribed, and there is every inducement to build for this class, which will develop a type of boat which will be very desirable, apart from the racing standpoint. Two boats have already been ordered from designs by the best men in Great Britain, and several others are being discussed, and everything points to a successful effort to bring the cup back to Toronto.

In addition to the regular scheduled race, a series of handicap races were sailed for very handsome prizes, generously donated, the first by Commodore Haas and the second by E. F. Nicholls.

The commodore, with his accustomed liberality, had provided for a third cruise, but owing to the lateness of the season and the very bad weather prevailing, this latter, much to the commodore's regret, had to be canceled.

The cups and flags sailed for by the cet have been awarded as follows:

Queen's Cup was sailed for this year in the smaller classes, and was won by the 20-footer Whirl.

The Prince of Wales Cup was won by the Yama.

The honors of the season belong to the flagship Canada, she being winner for the second time of the challenge flag for that class for 1904, in addition to which she won the Lorne and Murray cups.

The Whirl, in addition to winning the Queen's Cup, wins the McCaw Cup, and for best average in her division the Lansdowne Cup and championship flag for 1904.

The Beaver wins the handsome Beaver Cup, which was presented by her owner to the club for a perpetual challenge cup in this class.

The Cosgrave Cup and champion flag in 16-foot ballasted class were won by Kathleen.

The winner of the Harman Cup in the 14-foot dinghy class is C. F Sweetman, and the Barber Cup for 12-foot dinghies goes to R. E. Chadwick.

The club flag for best average in 14-foot dinghy races goes to N. R. Gooderham, and in 12-foot to E. Lennox.

The handsome cup presented by Vice-Commodore Gooderham and allotted to the 16-foot skiff class, was unfortunately not sailed for, there being no entries in that class, which seems to have outlived its usefulness and dropped out of the racing.

Your retiring committee bespeak for their successors the hearty support accorded them in the season just closed.

J. W Rutherford, chairman.

SCHOONER DRIVEN ASHORE POUNDS ON JAGGED ROCKS

At Nine o'Clock Last Night it Was Feared Crew of Four Would Be Drowned.

Woods Hole, Mass., Nov. 13.—The two-masted schooner Earcularius, Captain Nelson, of Rockland, Maine, went ashore in the severe northeast gale shortly before dark to-night, about three-quarters of a mile west of Tarpaulin Cove, on the Island of Naushen. At sunset the seas were breaking over the craft masthead high. No trace of the crew of four has been found, and fears are entertained for their safety. The vessel is in a particularly exposed condition, and the chances of her being saved are slight.

Keeper Carson of the Tarpaulin Cove lighthouse, and a man named Robinson, one of the keepers of the Forbes estate, saw the schooner when she struck. It was just before dark and a terrific gale was blowing. The schooner was coming thru Vineyard Sound from the eastward, and was proceeding under her foresail 'tho gale being too fierce to permit more canvas being carried. The schooner tacked and tried to work into the cove for an anchorage, but the wind bore her off, and as she swung away she struck with a crash upon a ledge of rocks not more than 100 yards from the lighthouse.

Carson and Robinson were unable to render any assistance to the men on board the schooner. The crew numbered four men, and all were plainly seen when the vessel struck, but darkness set in almost immediately, and nothing more was seen of the men or the vessel.

The nearest life-saving station on the north side of Vineyard Sound is at Cuttyhunk, 20 miles from Tarpaulin Cove. On the south side of the sound there is a life-saving station at Gayhead, but that is too far away to be of any service in to-night's disaster. Keeper Carson had no boat that could be launched, and, besides, the seas were so high that nothing but a surf boat could possibly escape almost instant destruction.

No lights were shown from the schooner after she struck, and no answer was given to the frequent hailings of Carson and Robinson.

A careful watch has been maintained since the schooner struck in the hope of rescuing any sailors that might be swept ashore. According to Keeper Carson, it would mean certain death on board the vessel to attempt to reach the shore in a small boat.

At 9 o'clock to-night it was feared that all on board had perished. The seas were breaking over the craft, and it was not believed that she would hold the ground until daylight. She struck in a particularly exposed position, and no vessel could be expected to stand the terrible pounding on the jagged rocks to which she was subjected.

Called to Brockville.

Brockville, Nov. 13.—The Presbyterian congregations of Westport and Newboro met in the church at Westport last night to choose a minister. A unanimous call was extended to Rev. Hugh Ferguson of Fitzroy Harbor. It is expected he will accept.

CIVIL LAW AND RELIGION.

Position of Seventh Day Adventists As Stated by Their President.

W. H. Thurston, president of the Canadian Union Conference of Seventh Day Adventists, addressed the adherents of that religious sect last night upon "Religious Liberty and Sunday Laws." He took the ground that every man was free to worship when and how he choose, that Christianity and religious worship are freedom, and that civil government had no right to legislate in regard to the Sabbath. What belonged to civil government must be returned to civil government, and what belonged to God must be returned to God. As the Lord's Day belonged to the Lord, and must be rendered to Him, it could not be rendered to civil government. Thus civil government had no right to legislate in regard to it. Civil government has no right to dictate whether a man should worship or not; neither had civil government the right to say on what day he should worship. The principle of Sunday laws had been wrong since the days of Constantine. No civil law should compel a man to abstain from labor on a certain day. He should be persuaded to abstain and abstain from principle.

The Seventh Day Adventists in London, Ont., were notified that they should rest on the first day of the week. It was said that by working they disturbed others in their devotions on that day. While this was argued he never heard it admitted that those who observed the first day, disturbed those who worshipped on the seventh day. It was argued that the majority should rule, but while this might be right in civil affairs it did not apply to religious matters.

The state could not come between man and his maker. King Nebuchadnezzar, the Lord's servant, set up an image and commanded that when all kinds of music were sounded, the people should bow down and worship the image. With the exception of three men all the people did bow down to the image; but the minority argued that they had the right to obey the dictates of their own conscience, and did not bow down to the image. They were cast into a burning fiery furnace for disobeying a civil command, but the Lord protected them.

Religious laws and Sunday laws were wicked. The law said that the seventh day was the Sabbath. The government had no right (it might have the might) to compel the first day of the week to be observed as the Sabbath. He had the kindest of feeling for members of the Lord's Day Alliance; but the principles upon which they worked were wrong.

WEST END HARRIERS WON DOBSON FINISHED FIRST

Central Runner Five Seconds Ahead of Isaacs of West End—Summary.

The Toronto Harriers' Association intermediate team race Saturday afternoon at Rosedale was a very successful event. Three teams faced the starter, namely, West End, Central and All Saints. The course was very hilly and tired the runners very much. Coming up the last hill most of them walked. The pace was set by A. Wright of the All Saints' Club, and he held it over half the course, when it was taken by E. Dobson, Central, and G. Isaacs, West End, who together started to make things lively and succeeded in stringing out the runners. The finish was one lap on the track. Dobson was first to appear, closely followed by Isaacs. They set up a hot pace, but Dobson succeeded in holding his lead and won by a very narrow margin. The feature of the race was the strong showing put up by the All Saints' Club. This is their first attempt at public running, and a great deal of credit is due to them for their splendid showing, they having three men to finish in the first ten. The following is the order of finish:

	Time
1—E. Dobson, Central	21.26
2—G. Isaacs, West End	21.33
3—W. Redick, All Saints	21.45
4—G. May, West End	21.49
5—A. Wright, All Saints	21.56
6—N. Marshall, West End	22.07
7—J. Parkes, West End	22.11
8—V. Carroll, All Saints	22.15
9—A. Spencer, West End	22.18
10—D. Black, Central	22.36

F. Meredith, G. Counter, W. Vanevery, W. T. Turvey, A. P. Park, A. J. Ford, S. Collins, B. Jeffries also started. The final score was: West End 19, All Saints 52, Central 35, thus giving West End
