LONDON, May 12.

Consols 94⅛ a 94⅜; breadstuffs quiet.

The Post publishes an address of Carlist Gen. Aguire, to Ravaney and Basque, Carlists, inviting them to turn their arms against their leaders, who prolong the war only to enrich themselves. It declares that the events of the last two years are only a show of inaptitude of Don Carlos, who has lost his right to the Crown before God and the world. Aguire is exceedingly popular, and it is confidently claimed that his entrance into Spain will cause a large defection from Carlist ranks.

The Czar, Gortschakoff and Bismarck had a long consultation to-day.

The Roman Catholic bishops of Prussia have decided to dissolve even religious orders which the State tolerates, being unwilling to see them subjected to Government supervision. The London Telegraph's Vienna special says Bismarck, with the help of Russia, intends to obtain a public written guarantee of status created by the treaty of Frankfort. Russia and Austria are ready to support it.

RUSSIA IN THE EAST.

Japan has ceded Russia her part of the Island of Saghalien.

THE SPANISH STRUGGLE

An exchange of 250 prisoners has been effected between the Carlists and Alfonsists.

THE SCHILLER DISASTER.

Embalmers have arrived at Scilly and will embalm the bodies of the dead passengers taken from the wreck of the Schiller, whose friends desire it.

At the inquest held at St. Mary's H. Hillers, first officer of the Schiller, testified that at the time the vessel struck Captain Thomas and another officer were on the bridge. Two men were looking out forward, and two others were on the bridge with the captain. The jury recommended that a telegraph be established between Bishop's Lighthouse and the shore. They expressed the opinion that if such communication had existed all on board the Schiller would have been saved. Officers Hillers and Poleman concurred in this opinion.

The remains of Mrs. Hermine Weste were privately buried after the inquest. The bodies unclaimed were also buried. The funeral was attended by Mr. Dorrien Smith, the owner of the Scilly Islands, the coroner and members of the jury, and nearly all the inhabitants of the island. The bodies were first numbered, and careful record was made of the valuables, marks, &c., found on each. They were then enclosed in separate coffins. Two graves were dug, each 25 feet long. In these the coffins were placed in two layers. Over one hundred bodies have been recovered.

WHAT WOMEN CAN DO.

A crowd of women mobbed an old Catholic school house in Koningshute, Silesia, yesterday, causing great excitement. The military was called out and made twenty arrests.

Circuit Court.

The monotony of the twice told tale of Sherwood vs. Stackhouse has its effect in keeping the court room clear of spectators and business drags along very quietly. Messrs. D. S. Kerr and C. N. Skinner are slowly and carefully getting along with the witnesses.

Shipping Notes.

Windbound.—The ships Choice and Andrew Lovitt, also the bark Jennie Armstrong are detained at the Island, waiting a favorable wind.

Arrivals.—The bark Margaret with a cargo of railroad iron from Barrow, E., for the Intercolonial, came into port this morning; also the brigs Albert Dewis and Beauty, and a number of schooners.

Steamers.—The Nyanza sails for Pictou this evening to take in a cargo of coal for New York, at which port she will take in a Western cargo for England.

The New Brunswick which sailed this morning for Boston will have a rough time of it, as there is quite a heavy roll in the Bay.

The R. M. S. Peruvian, from Portland, arrived at Moville yesterday.

The Arraignment of Rogers.

It is not known when Rogers will be arraigned at the Supreme Court. The matter rests with the Attorney General, who wishes to allow the prisoner time to procure and instruct counsel in order to give him every benefit of the law. Rogers has been in consultation with a leading member of the legal profession, but it is not yet known whether he has retained him as counsel.

Quite a number of persons were present at the opening of the Court this morning, expecting that the prisoner would be brought out. It is probable he will be arraigned to-morrow or Saturday.

The prisoner continues to bear his trouble well.
