DORCHESTER EN FETE.

A Great Jubilee Celebration — The Whole Township There.

Yesterday was a great day for Dorchester Station. It seemed as if the whole township had poured into the village, hundreds of rigs being lined up on the streets, which were gay with bunting. Her Majesty's jubilee was celebrated with great enthusiasm in the adjoining park by the public and Sunday school children of the township and their parents and friends. Thousands of people assembled, and had a regular old-time picnic. Speeches were delivered by local ministers and by Inspector Dearness, of this city, and others.
