FERGUSON SAVES PARTY FROM CONFIDENCE VOTE

Premier Manoeuvers Labor Member Out of Direct Attack On Government.

ROLLER AT WORK

Special to The Advertiser by a Staff Correspondent.

Toronto, March 11.—The reliable old Tory steam-roller saved the Ferguson government this afternoon from the embarrassing prospects of a division of the house on the issue of unemployment relief and unemployment insurance.

The issue was raised by Peter Heenan, Labor member for Kenora, in an amendment which he moved to the treasurer's budget motion; an amendment which under rules of parliamentary procedure must have been constructed as a motion of want of confidence.

But, through a threat of a lengthy night session, and of a prolonged debate, should the amendment be pressed, Premier Ferguson staved off the prospect by persuading the Labor member to withdraw it, promising that opportunity would be afforded later in the session for discussion of the same topic.

Sting Is Lost.

The point, however, is that later in the session the government will be able to amend Mr. Heenan's motion to suit its own purposes, while as an amendment to the budget resolution it could not be further amended, but, if pressed, would have gone to the House for division.

Heenan's amendment, seconded by J. F. Callan of Rainy River, read: "That all the words in the motion after the first word 'that' be struck out and the following substituted therefor: This House regrets that the government, in its efforts to exercise economy, has failed to provide more adequate means for relieving unemployment in this province, and for the establishment of an unemployment insurance scheme."

Another indication of the speeding-up process now under way in government circles was witnessed in the House this afternoon, when the lieutenant - governor visited the chamber to give royal assent to 15 bills passed through the House.

DEBATE ENDS TUESDAY.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Toronto, March 11.—It is expected that the budget debate in the legislature will be concluded next Tuesday when the leaders of the three parties will speak. The debate will be carried on tomorrow by private members. This afternoon Peter Heenan (Labor, Kenora), moved an amendment to the budget motion, but withdrew.

Mr. Heenan devoted most of his time to the unemployment situation, declaring that not much had been done by government, except passing the blame on to others. The dominion government passed it to the Ontario government and the latter to the municipalities. He said that the new building being erected by the Ontario government gave no relief as it employed only 150 men. The offer to pay one-third excess cost of municipal work was worth little because municipalities were doing little work. The payment of a third of municipal relief was real relief.

W. S. Haney (Conservative, West Lambton) got second reading for a bill providing that police villages in townships, which have abolished statute labor, may make a tax levy for road purposes.

The premier announced that the Ontario temperance act amendment would be brought down next week.

The House adjourned at 6 o'clock.

Irish Hearts Are Heavy As Law Bars Coming of the Shamrock

Associated Press Despatch.

Boston, March 11.—More than 1,000 packages containing shamrock from "the old sod," and intended to brighten Boston homes on St. Patrick's Day, were banned by the department of agriculture here, and will be turned over to postal authorities today to be sent back to Ireland. The action was taken under the regulation which prohibits the importation of living plants because of the danger of plant pests.

In one box packed with shamrock inspectors found a small bottle of Irish whiskey with a note reading:

"This will keep the shamrock fresh, so St. Patrick said."
