$500,000 Fraud Alleged.

New York, August 28.—Claude J. Van Slyke, president; William H. Cooper, former president; Ernest Sharp, and James A. Robinson, secretary of the New York Central Realty Company, a bankrupt concern, were arrested here by Federal officers, this afternoon on indictments charging use of the mails to defraud. The frauds are alleged amount to $500,000.

Van Slyke was held in $5,000 bail, while the others will appear for pleadings next Wednesday.

The company, which went into the hands of a receiver last March, had bondholders all over the world, especially among naval officers and enlisted men, to whom special inducements were offred in statements as to the sums all would have when their period of enlistment closed. The bonds were advertised in high-class magazines, and were described as secured by first mortgages, which, it is alleged, were of fictitious value.

Some of the circular advertising is alleged to have falsely represented that the company had capital, surplus, and undivided profits aggregating $2,400,000.
