WESTERN ONTARIO.

The Exeter Fall Fair opened Monday with every prospect of being a success, the number of entries being larger than any preceding year.

J. B. Cornwall, who was appointed special auditor to examine the books of the late Treasurer Barbier, of Windsor, has reported that everything was in proper shape.

Miss Edith Maude Campbell, of Woodstock, Ont., is pursuing her violin studies at the Buffalo School of Music. She will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Hewson H. Moyer.

The death of Roland Archibald Macdonald, eldest son of Mr. F. W. Macdonald, of St. Catharines, is announced, after a long illness. He was a barrister of Blenheim and was in his 35th year.

A frame house on Albert street, Stratford, was burned Tuesday afternoon. It was occupied by Christopher Twambly, most of whose furniture was saved, and was owned by John C. Forbes.

Poundkeeper Giles, of Windsor, is in a quandary. He took up two horses some time ago and now he cannot give them away. He has asked the Council to tell him what to do with the animals.

Dr. James Fulton, of St. Thomas, has been declared elected representative to the Medical Council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, from the Malahide and Tecumseh division.

Anniversary services were held in the Presbyterian Church, Forest, on Sunday. On Monday afternoon the corner stone of the new church was laid, and a tea meeting was held in the town hall in the evening.

The friends of Miss Clara Thompson, late teacher in the Tilsonburg public school, waited upon Miss Thompson at her father's residence and presented her with an album and six handsomely-bound volumes of the poets.

A dispatch from Winnipeg says: Watts, the sole survivor of the wrecked yacht Keewatin, is resting easily. He came to Selkirk from Kincardine, Ont., recently, and has three sons and three daughters residing in Detroit.

Among the applicants for marriage licenses at Detroit on Monday were: 5,981, James H. Myers, 21, Woodstock, Ont.; Agnes J. Cowman, 19, Woodstock. 6,991, Robt. W. Milligan, 23, Wallaceburg, Ont.; Annie Busha, 24, Wallaceburg.

One of Sandwich West's most respected and oldest residents, John McKee, of the Huron line, who had lived there for the past 50 years, is dead. When he arrived, Sandwich was the trading post, and the country swarmed with bears and wolves.

The Windsor (Ont.) list of successful candidates at the promotion examination in the Excise Department, include J. E. Gow, James Davis and W. Allen who get firsts, Jos. Weir and Geo. Henderson seconds, and F. E. Marcon and P. N. Keogh thirds.

Boarding-house thieves are reaping a harvest in Windsor. The latest to suffer is Mrs. Burton, corner of Mercer and Stuart streets. She rented a couple of rooms to two sleek-looking individuals, and when they departed they took with them $19 in cash and some jewelry. No clue.

Mr. George Vollans, a pioneer of the county of Essex, died at the age of 82. He was a man who enjoyed the confidence and respect of his neighbors in a high degree. He leaves behind him a family of five daughters and four sons, besides 56 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Mr. Peter Dolan, for some years back G. T. R. ticket agent at Stratford, has been promoted to the position of chief clerk at the city ticket office of the company in Toronto. Mr. R. Cassels, night agent, will take Mr. Dolan's place and Mr. Cassels' place will be filled by Mr. John Yorick.

Mr. Thomas Ballantyne, M. P. P., who was named as Speaker of the new Legislative Assembly of Ontario during his absence ing England, returned to Stratford Tuesday afternoon, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Jennie Ballantyne, who has been visiting in England and Scotland for three or four months.

Alfred Oliver and Aylmer Turner were sent to jail for a month each the other day by Reeve Ellwood, of Lucan, and Reeve Hodgins, of Biddulph, for stealing a goose from J. Howard. The Crown Attorney was not satisfied of the magistrates' jurisdiction, and, on his advice, they withdrew the original sentence, and committed the two men for trial.

John Ott, living on Selkirk street, Chatham, was found one night last week in the mow of his stable hanging by the neck dead. Deceased was a man of temperate habits, and there was no family or financial trouble to induce such an act, but of late his demeanor has pointed to an aberration of mind, due to a sunstroke. His age was between 50 and 60.

Henry Kunze appeared before Magistrate Bartlet at Windsor Tuesday to answer the charge of abducting Miss Flora Beers, now Mrs. Kunze. As soon as the case was called the Magistrate asked Mr. Kunze to stand up, and then, instead of committing him to trial, congratulated him most heartly upon his marriage, and wished both him and his wife a long life of happiness and joy, after which he dismissed the case and released the bondsman.

The corner stone of the new Presbyterian Church, Forest, was laid by Charles Mackenzie, M.P.P., Sarnia, with the usual ceremonies Monday, after which addresses were delivered by Charles Mackenzie, M.P.P., Hon. Senator Vidal, Hugh Mackenzie, M.P.P., and Revs. Geo. McLennan, of Camlachie; John Anderson, of Main; A. Grant, B.A., of St. Marys; Harris, of Forest. The opening air meeting, which was large, was presided over by the Resident Pastor James Pritchard.

D. Fisher, of Goderich, J. Gilson, of London, and J. Essery, of Exeter, Ont., had on exhibition at Toledo a fair sample of Canadian draft horses, and had the pleasure of taking with them nearly all the premiums given at the Toledo show, defeating every horse there that had shown in Detroit taking premiums in draft classes. Their stock consists of Dominion draft and coach horses. Their 2-year-old stallion, Kaiser, carried off the sweepstakes premiums over all draft horses exhibited, and is receiving a great deal of attention from the lovers of fine stock.—[Toledo Bee.

Chas. E. Milrain, a 32-year-old farmer, from Chatham, Ont., came to Detroit with Miss Agnes R. Johnston, a maid of 34, whose relatives thought she ought to make a better match than to marry a farmer. But Charles is a better looking man than the average in high life, besides being possessed of a large amount of common sense, and Agnes thought she could do no better. They were in a hurry, had no time to lose, and Peter C. Bird, of the Registrar's office, who is a justice of the peace from Romulus township, was called in to make them one. He did the job in short order, and they departed happy.—[Detroit News.

PORT BURWELL.

At a meeting of the Police Commissioners the expressmen's petition for the reduction of fees was taken up, and it was decided to reduce the fee from $4 to $2, the reduction to take effect Dec. 1.

A Landslide at St. John.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Oct. 1.—A big landslide occurred on the Shore Line Railroad in Carleton yesterday morning, just before the early train went out. About 130 feet of track was taken down, and tons of earth. It will now be necessary to move the Shore Lind further inland, as many places along the route are extremely dangerous. The landslide was caused by high tides.

Accident on the Intercolonial.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Oct. 1.—A serious accident occurred on the I. C. R. Monday night. The fast express from Halifax for Montreal, left Moncton 28 minutes late, and to make the time speed was put up to 40 miles per hour. After leaving Petit Codiac, near Anagance, a pile of sleepers thrown across the track was encountered. The locomotive was derailed and wrecked, but the engineer and fireman were unhurt. There were a large number of passengers on board, but all escaped unharmed.

Crash on the Jersey Central.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 30.—An accident occurred on the Jersey Central Railway between Lehighton and Packerton, near Mauch Chunk, last evening, a telegraph operator's mistake resulting in a collision between a coal train and a passenger train going at a high rate of speed. The passengers were panic-stricken, but none of them were injured beyond a few bruises. The killed are: Engineer Bigelow, of the coal train; Fireman Dunlap, of the coal train; Fireman Mitchell, of the passenger train. The injured are Taylor Bedford, engineer of the passenger train, and two brakemen of the coal train.

A BURNING SORE LEG.

Ulcers Form. Hospitals and Doctors Useless. Crazed with Pain. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

About eight years ago I wrote you from Wilkesbarre, Pa., describing how your wonderful remedies completely cured me of a terrible case of eczema or salt rheum. I must now tell you what CUTICURA REMEDIES have again done for me. On the 22nd of last September I had the misfortune to bruise my leg, and I put a piece of sticking plaster on it. Inside of a week I had a terrible leg. My wife became frightened and advised me to go to a surgeon. I went, and doctored for two months, but no good was done me, besides costing me big money. My leg had by this time formed into an ulcer, and got worse every day. I could not stand it any longer, and made up my mind to go to a hospital and see if I could be helped. I went to several here in the city, in turn, but none could do me any good. I had a terrible leg, with a hole in it as big as a dollar, and pain that almost set me crazy. I got scared about it, and determined to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. I obtained a set, and inside of five weeks my leg was healed up as well as it ever was, except the terrible scar it left for a reminder of what was once a terrible sore leg. These REMEDIES are worth their weight in gold. JOHN THIEL,
117 E. 88th Street, New York.
