CITY LEAGUE STANDING.

The correct standing of the City League—second season—is as follows:

	Won.	Lost.
Stars	4	3
Rockets	4	3
Ramblers	3	4
Youngs	3	4

There are five games more to play, and every team has a chance to cop the honors of the league.

There was plenty of good ball, and considerable comedy in the games in the City League at Tecumseh Park on Saturday. The first was a thirteen-innings affair, the Youngs defeating the Ramblers by 6 to 5. The second went to the Rockets, who trimmed the Stars 3 to 1. There was a fair attendance.

There was every sort of baseball in the opening contest. The first three innings caused no end of amusement to the hot fans, and they settled back in their pews to have a real afternoon's laugh even if it did cost some exertion. Immediately the pitchers settled down, and the teams took a brace, and for the next ten innings showed fine baseball, just as good as has been shown this season.

Both teams were bad in the first three innings. The Ramblers did not support Heathfield, in the first two innings particularly, and the Haberdashers scored 5 runs on 4 hits, and a handful of errors. The Youngs did not help Clark much, either, and he was hit hard as a result 4 runs coming across in the first three innings.

With the score 5 to 4 in favor of the Youngs, the teams steadied away. Tiny Heathfield and Isshy Clarke settled into a pitching duel and both were as unhittable as one could well imagine. The Ramblers tied the score in the fifth on a muff by O'Rourke, and for the next seven innings hits were as scarce as they had been plentiful in the earlier rounds. In the thirteenth the Haberdashers won out. Ecclestone, the first man up, rolled one to the infield. Shannon should have handled it, but he made no move to do so, and little Dinsmore tried to make the play. He fumbled, making the throw too late. McFie attempted to bunt popping a little one not five feet in front of the plate. Pook made no effort to get it, and it rolled as a hit, Ecclestone going to third on the play. An easy double should have followed, and the game would have gone another inning or so. O'Rourke, the next man up, lifted a long fly to left and Ecclestone scored the winning run.

It was a hard one for Heathfield to lose, as he pitched magnificent ball most of the way. Isshy Clark was just as good, and that is saying some. Ball starred at short and little Dinsmore again made some great stops. Garney Arthurs fielded and hit magnificently, while Costello made some brilliant plays, and also one or two careless ones. Ecclestone had a busy day.

This was the longest game of the season to date. The score.

Second Game.

The second game was a hummer also, both pitchers showing great form. Fauria and Tether hooked up in a duel, the Cuban Wonder coming out with the honors. The Stars did not take advantage of their opportunities, and lost out on that score. They certainly could not blame Tether.

Tether was hit 5 times, and Fauria 4 times. Not one of the hits made off the Cuban went outside the infield, the whole quartette being bunts. With a fast-fielding pitcher at least three of them would have been smothered. He had fine breaks, good control and bothered the batters all the way.

Tether deserved better. He allowed five hits, no two of which came in the same innings. He had beautiful breaks and excellent control, and looked all over a winner. He had no luck, though. Once he struck Ward out, but the ball got away from Daniels, and the run scored on a two-base overthrow by Daniels.

The Stars lost the chance of their lives in the seventh inning. Two safe bunts in a row, and a piece of slow-thinking on the part of Fauria filled the bases with none out. Perkins nailed the next ball hit, and got the man at the plate. Fauria fanned the second and Dewan handled the third chance, preventing a score. After that there was little doing.

However, the Rockets played superior ball in tight pinches, and deserved to win. They added a run in each of the sixth, seventh and eighth innings, errors figuring largely in the scoring of them.

Clucker Dunn fielded fast and hit well. Bill Graham showed the best form for the Stars. Daniels was busy and aside from one bad throw did well. Ward had many chances. The score:

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Detroit, Aug. 16.—Tiger fans forgot the past yesterday and loudly welcomed their favorites back after the latter's somewhat uneventful sojourn in the east. The Champions responded fittingly with an 8 to 2 victory over the White Sox, and as a result Detroit is once more disputing the claim to first honors in the American League race with Philadelphia, each team having a percentage of .613.

Edward Killian proved the one ponderous obstacle between Chicago and a victory yesterday. The veteran twirled a splendid game, held the "bitless wonders" to four thinly scattered smashes and was complete master of the situation from start to finish. Score:
