GRAHAM FAILED TO GET BREAKS

Toronto Youngster Outpitched Peterboro Heaver, But Was Beaten.

PETERBORO, July 29.—Schettler was lucky to beat Graham this afternoon, as the Beaver youngster out-pitched the local veteran. The final was 3 to 2, and the game was won and lost after two were down in the first, when Trout dropped a difficult fly. Schettler was wilder today than he has been this season, having hit one and passed five. He fanned nine, while Graham whiffed four and failed to issue a pass. Toronto's two runs were gifts, as Schettler walked a man with the bases full on two occasions. Both teams put up a snappy article of ball, the fielding being exceptionally good. Blount robbed Ort of a hit in the ninth by a great shoe string catch, while Byrne also pulled a sensational grab on a foul. Burrill, in centre for Toronto, pulled down two away out at the track. The Beavers scored in the third, when Snell singled, Hunt was safe on an error and Ort and Trout drew walks. In the sixth Snell doubled, Ort walked, Trout was hit and Killilea drew a free ticket. The Petes got two in the first after two were down, when Dolan singled and Trout dropped Rooney's drive, which looked like a three-bagger. Byrne's single scored Rooney. Fox hit into the river for a home run in the second, and after that the Peter never had a chance to score again. Score:

SAINTS OUT-LUCK HAMILTON SQUAD

ST. THOMAS, Ont., July 29.—The Saints luckily outscored Hamilton here today, making the series two out of three, winning the odd game by the score of three to two. Howick, in the box for the locals, held the visitors to three hits, two of which were bunched in the first innings, and then the visitors were blanked until the eighth, when two bases on balls, coupled with a hit and Corns' long fly to the outfield scored their only other run. Several times the Athletics threatened, but each time Howick was equal to the occasion. A base on balls to Kopp in the seventh innings provided the Saints with the winning run, as Craven singled to Corns, who threw to the infield was low, allowing Kopp to romp home. Score:

JINX WYATT LEE WAS PUT AWAY BY KELLEY'S BOYS IN THIRD GAME

With Newark Fighting Hard Against Our Early Lead, Rogge Relieved Wagner and Saved the Day—Then Lee Was Slaughtered.

Once upon a time there lived in the Village of Newark a baseball team, who went by the name of the Indians. Now these Indians were not such great ball players, altho they usually were up in the top division, but among their tribe was one hoary giant who caused terror whenever he appeared upon the field. Over in the country called Canada another team resided, called the Leafs, who used to fight these Indians. Now the Leafs were good fighters and they usually made the Indians work hard to beat them.

But whenever this giant appeared upon the field of battle the Leafs seemed to lose all their fighting powers, and the Indians, knowing this, used to send this giant out against them on many occasions. The poor Leafs finally became disheartened at not being able to beat this giant and they schemed and tried every way possible to see if they couldn't make him stop beating them. But the giant kept coming up all the time and he never seemed to grow older, and his fighting was so wonderful that the Leafs quailed before him. This giant went by the name of Wyatt Lee and he had a mighty left arm.

Time after time this giant turned the games and fights against the Leafs, but finally another giant by the name of Kelley, who led the Leafs, found a way to beat Lee. They called the Newark man a "jinx," but finally Kelley and his braves beat the jinx. However, after a long rest the Indians returned to Canada and after two hard fights, in which each tribe had won one, Newark sent this giant against the Leafs again. The Indians hoped that he would repeat, and so they would take the odd fight. But Kelley had not forgotten the way to beat the jinx before, and so the Leafs went into the fight determined to beat him again, and they did, so the dreadful old jinx from Newark will never frighten them any more.

The battle was staged yesterday at the Island and Newark were very confident, but Kelley saw to it that they gave us the edge on the series. The Leafs won by the score of nine to three, which is an awful beating for Wyatt Lee. But the jinx is still powerful, for he made the locals fight all the way to the eighth before he let them get away with the game. Kelley sent Wagner in to stave off the visitors and he went along famously until the eighth, when the Indians started to fight in desperation as they saw that the battle was going away from them. Wagner wavered under the terrific fusillade and it looked as if they might come thru and win.

With only one down, Wagner walked Kraft, and Getz advanced him to third with a single, and then stole second on the next ball. This made things look serious for us, as we were very leading by one run. Kelley signaled for Rogge and our mainstay came thru in grand form. Eddie Zimmerman was up to bat and the peppery little third baseman is always a formidable batter. However, we got the breaks, as he fouled one to Pick, and we were safe for a time. Heckinger was brought in as a pinch hitter for Wheat, but Rogge passed him purposely, filling the bases. It looked a hazardous thing to do, but Rogge wanted to show the old "jinx" up. Wyatt Lee came to the plate smiling and he was very patient, spoiling several good ones and generally taking good healthy swings at our twirler's offerings. However, he finally got Rogge in a nice hole with three and two on him. Rogge simply smiled and handed the jinx a fadeaway that Lee hardly had a chance to see. That gave us more hope.

In our half of the eighth, just to show Mr. Lee that he was no more a jinx and that we did not relish those silent breathing spells with the bases crowded, the Leafs just plumped right on to his curves in grand style. Bingle, bingle and then some more was the way it went. Finally after five singles and a three-bagger, which netted five runs, the Leafs decided that they had shown Lee that they were not frightened of him any more. There were certainly some grand, joyous moments for the fans.

CARDINALS TRAVELING AT A GREAT CLIP

PHILADELPHIA, July 29.—St. Louis developed a batting streak in the twelfth innings today and pounded out four runs, which gave them the victory over Philadelphia by 8 to 5. Marshall and Perritt had a duel, with the former being backed up in faultless style, while the visitors offset their errors by some great plays, Huggins, Miller and Snyder being particularly prominent in making star catches or stops. After S. Magee had made a home run and Cravath had got on by striking out the former with the bases full in the tenth, and again with two runners on the sacks in the twelfth, each time with two men out. Cravath threw Beck out at first on what ordinarily would have been a single to right field. Score:
