Cable News.

Special to Evening Telegram.

BERLIN, Sept. 25.

Although Germany has not offered formal mediation it is learned that she is exerting her best endeavours at Rome and Constantinople to bring about a peaceful settlement of the controversy between Turkey and Italy over Tripoli. Germany regards hostilities between these two countries as a menace to European peace, since it would probably be followed by an outburst in the Balkins into which Austria-Hungary and other Powers would be drawn. Germany advocates as a solution of the question, Turkish recognition of Italy's special interests and her abandonment of opposition to the economic development of Tripoli by Italy, also the recognition by the latter of Turkish sovereignty. Germany's position is a delicate one, as she is bound by alliance to Italy, and by friendship to Turkey.

Special to Evening Telegram:

PARIS, Sept. 25.

A despatch from Palermo to Le Temps says that the Italian fleet is reported as ready to move against Tripoli, but still remains in the harbor of Palermo. It was understood that the fleet had left Syracuse in Sicily for Tripoli, but detention at Palermo appears to be the result of a decision on the part of the Italian Government to await Turkey's final determination concerning a lease of Turkey under the terms of which it would remain under the sovereignty of Turkey, that country to receive annually a sum of money from Italy.

Special Evening Telegram,

BELFAST, Sept. 26.

A conference of Unionist leaders was held here to-day, when resolutions were adopted declaring that Unionists would not acknowledge the authority of any Home Rule government. A Committee was appointed to devise a provisional government for Ulster, which should become operative on the day that the Irish Home Rule Bill was passed. Sir Edward Carson, M.P., for Dublin University, was chosen as leader of the movement.

Both Legs Broken.

Yesterday the Telegram referred to the fact that Wm. Bulley, an old man in the employ of the Municipal Council, had been hurt in a cut which he with others was digging for the Municipal Council in Bowrings' Cove. The man had not entered the cut long when the side of it foundered, and the clay, which was wet and heavy, pinned him against the side of the trench. Most of the weight fell against the man's legs, and it was some time before he could be dug out by fellow employees. When the man was extricated he was taken up to the side of the Cove where he was cared for by officers Stamp and Devine. The man wore a pair of three-quarter boots and the officers had to cut these from his feet. When they were removed it was seen that the man's two legs were broken, one at the ankle and the other just above it. The policemen rendered first aid in a skilful manner, and Dr. Scully, who was called by 'phone from Rankin & Co's., splinted the broken bones and sent the man to Hospital in the ambulance. Bulley has been a sailor all his life but has recently been working ashore.

A Fine Display

In the window of Messrs. Parker & Monroe's boot and shoe store, there is at the present time displayed 27 kinds of ladies' boots, all made in their factory. Every boot in the window was made in St. John's. It is an object lesson of the advancement that has been made in making the finer lines of footwear the past ten years. Many people who purchase those boots in the city stores think that they are imported. Messrs. Parker & Monroe make about 200 different qualities altogether.

Suggests Local Co.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—I notice in your issue of yesterday a letter from "Citizen," who shows that the opportunity for theatricals, so long wanted, is now available. While I heartily endorse "Citizen's" suggestion that a company should be brought on the scene at once, I would go one further.

How is it that in a city like St. John's we have no local company? There are I know one or two private companies, but the public only see and hear them once or perhaps twice in a year. Now, Mr. Editor, it seems to me that not only do we want a Choral Society, but we also want a local dramatic company, and perhaps the latter a great deal more than the former.

We have plenty of excellent talent in that direction, and surely it would not be difficult for an experienced man or woman, regardless of denomination, to form a local company. I myself started a small company a short while ago, but lacking both funds and backers, we are only able to cater to the public in a small way. Every city of our size in other countries has its own company. Why not St. John's?

Hoping some one who is interested in theatricals will make a move in this long felt want, I am,

Yours sincerely,
AMATEUR.

St. John's, Sept. 26th, 1911.

The Ladies of St. John's May Now Grow Beautiful Hair.

McMurdo & Co. backed up by the manufacturers of SALVIA, the Great Hair Grower, guarantees it to grow hair.

SALVIA destroys Dandruff in ten days.

The roots of the hair is so nourished and fed that a new crop of hair springs up, to the amazement and delight of the user. The hair is made sofe and fluffy. Like all American preparations SALVIA is daintly perfumed. It is hard to find an actress who does not use SALVIA continually. A large bottle for 50c. 2

Harbor Grace Notes.

Mrs. J. Syme, of St. John's, and her little daughter are in town, the guests of Mrs. Archibald, at Donnelly Hall.

Holy Communion was dispensed in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church yesterday morning.

Rev. F. S. Coffin leaves by to-morrow's train for Charlottetown, P. E. I., where he will attend the Presbyterian Synod which meets in that town shortly.

Sergt. Spracklin had four parties of the West End before the court last week charged with having unyoked goats at large, contrary to law. They were all convicted and fined.

The police raided a suspected shebeen in Riverhead, on Wednesday last, and captured a case of whisky. The party was brought before Judge Oke on Saturday and a fine of $100 imposed.

Mrs. J. Noel, of Harvey Street, went to St. John's on Saturday morning on business. She is expected home to-night.

Mr. Eugene Noel, while cutting a piece of meat at his store on Thursday had a bad gash inflicted in his left hand by the slipping of the cleaver which he was using. This is unfortunate as Mr. Noel is very popular, and consequently very busy in his store attending to the wants of his customers.

We have been requested to say that the collecting boxes in aid of the Hospital Fund are at the residence of the Treasurer, Mrs. Judge Oke, Victoria Street, and any person desirous of obtaining one can do so by calling there.

The C. C. C. attended Mass at St. Joseph's Church yesterday morning. The lads looked well as they marched up Harvey Street about 8 o'clock. What could look better than 70 to 100 lads at an early hour on the Sabbath Day on their way to attend Divine Service in their Church. The lads and their officers deserve all the encouragement the general public can give them.

Mr. Ward took a little walk countrywards early on Friday morning; he carried his gun and was accompanied by his dog. By breakfast time he had secured 10 fine partridge. It is useless for birds to try and smuggle away from the genial Collector of Customs.

Miss Rose O'Connell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. O'Connell, is at present home on a holiday. Miss Rose's many friends are very pleased to have her home for a few days. Miss C. has spent several years in the States.

CORESPONDENT.

Harbor Grace, Sept. 25, 1911.

Death of Mrs. Bursell.

We record with regret the death of Mrs. Eva Bursell who passed peacefully away at her late home, Bay Roberts, Sunday last, the 24th inst. Deceased was the relict of the late W. H. Bursell who formerly was one of the most prominent citizens of Bay Roberts. Deceased was in her 77th year and was highly esteemed and respected by all her neighbours. Mr. George Bursell, Accountant in the Contingencies and Treasury Department, this city, went to Bay Roberts last Saturday and gave his dying parent the great consolation of being present at her bedside. He will remain to attend the funeral at 2.30 p.m. to-day.

An Inebriated Woman.

Yesterday evening about 7.30 the police on Water Street East heard screams coming from the rear of Mr. Frank Connors' premises, and going there found an unfortunate female of the East End intoxicated and helpless. She was saturated with rain water and was in a bad way, and getting a cab the officers brought her to the station. Later Sergt. Oliphant and two policemen went to the woman's residence and found her husband alone there and also inebriated. Fearing that some ill would befall him the officers barred up the house and brought him also to the police station.

NOTE OF THANKS. — Mr. and Mrs. J. Buckingham and family wish to thank the many friends at Harbor Grace—Mr. E. V. Greene, Mrs. Jas. Cron, Mr., Mrs. and Miss Martin, Miss Hawkins, Mrs. Butt and Mrs. Pilley; at St. John's—Mr. and Mrs. George B. Whitten, Miss J. Whitty, Miss Kane, Inspector and Mrs. Collins, Miss S. Knight, E. and Mrs. Lester, Mrs. John Reardon, Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. R. Shortall and all Freddie's school companions at St. Bonaventure's College, all who sent notes of sympathy and also wreaths and flowers to adorn the coffin of their dear little son, Freddie.—advt.
