Common Council.

A special meeting of the council was held yesterday afternoon at which the board of public works recommended: That under the provisions of section 19 of an agreement dated the 31st day of July, 1885, and made between Daniel W. Clark and Daniel C. Clark of the one part and the mayor, aldermen and commonality of the city of St. John (now the city of Saint John) of the other part, the city purchase and take the whole of the plant and personal property connected with street lighting by electricity in Carleton, on the western side of the harbor and thereby determine the contract, and that the city give notice, under the common seal of such city, their intention to Messrs. Daniel W. Clark and Daniel C. Clark, as provided for under said section and that an appraiser be now appointed on behalf of the city by this council, and Messrs. Clark be requested to appoint another in their part to act with him in making an award and valuation in accordance with the provision in said section of the agreement.

Recorder Jack, who was present, asked the council to give Messrs. Clark the necessary notice. A short time ago Messrs. Clark gave Wm. Bruckhof a bill of sale of the plant in the electric light station for $3,000. Under the circumstances Mr. Jack thought it would be better for the city to terminate the contract and purchase the property under the agreement.

The report was adopted and James Fleming was appointed appraiser for the city.

S. K. Wilson was appointed a surveyor of lumber for the city.

The land committee were authorized to confer with E. G. Dunn with a view to the reduction of the rent, also of the lots at Carleton which he would require in case he rebuilds his mill.

They were instructed to give renewal leases of the lots at Carleton under lease to Stetson, Cutler & Co., to Mr. Purves, who has purchased their mill.

The tender of John Flood for $9,496 for the erection of No. 3 engine house was accepted.

A resolution was passed authorizing the lands committee to take possession of certain lots at Carleton.

It was ordered that Joseph C. Woods be appointed a poundkeeper at Marsh bridge in case the law will permit of such an appointment being made.

Ald. Stackhouse drew the attention of the council to the dangerous condition of the bridge over the raceway on Union street, Carleton.

Ald. Christie moved that the recorder be requested to give an opinion as to whether the power to appoint firemen is vested in the chief engineer of the fire department or the council.—Carried.

Bills in the hands of the common clerk were referred to the several departments for payment.

It was ordered that Mr. Cain be paid for the painting wall on Victoria Rink.

The matter of building a retaining wall on St. James street, Carleton, was referred to the board of works.

when he was somewhat rudely interrupted by his horses attempting to take a short turn at "The Highland Fling." Looking ahead he descried through the gloom a huge bear growling like mad. After the usual quantum of yelling and shouting, bruin floundered into the bushes and disappeared. On another evening an ursine burglar entered the sheep preserves of Mr. Andrew John Slater and gobbled up a fine ewe and promising lamb. Lastly, shortly after Mr. John Knowlton had consigned to their last resting place the remains of an old and faithful horse, in the immediate neighborhood of which Mr. Isaac Blackie had set a bear trap of cunning workmanship, one of the gang, no doubt attracted by the smell, drew near and was grabbed by the darbies. The ground smeared with blood gave evidence of a desperate struggle. He succeeded in wrenching the trap from its moorings, and bore it off in triumph.

Mr. Charles Simpson of Amity, came across a splendid bull moose, the other day, on Mr. Slater's farm. The antlered monarch of the woods politely wished the gentleman a "good morning," and presenting his tail, gracefully retired. Mr. George Blackie likewise had a friendly interview with two deer on his premises, and arranged for a subsequent hunt. Mr. James Pilley attempted to bring down a beautiful representative of the same family, but was unsuccessful. The deer was fleeter of foot than he.

Reformed Baptists.

At the reformed Baptist alliance meeting yesterday an interesting report was recieved from the corresponding secretary B. N. Goodspeed. The report showed that four new churches had been organized during the year—at Seal Cove (Grand Manan), and at Campbell Settlement, Maplewood and Maple Ridge, York Co. During the year conventions had been held at Sanford, Cedar Lake, Bear Point and Caledonia, all in Nova Scotia, under the direction of Rev. A. Kinney. In the New Brunswick district, under Rev. W. B. Wiggins, conventions were held at Grand Manan, St. John and Fredericton. In the northern district, several conventions were held under S. A. Parker's direction. At all these conventions great interest in the work of the church was manifested and at some of them many members were added. Three new church buildings were erected and six are now in course of erection and soon to be finished. Some of the churches are hampered by reason of having no proper place of worship. There are places where congregations might be organized but for lack of accommodation, action has thus been deferred. There are calls both from Nova Scotia and this province for men to labor among the people. Some of the churches have mission societies and there are a number of very prosperous Sabbath schools. The report gave details of the work of the various churches throughout the province. After encouraging addresses in connection with the discussion of the report it was adopted. Capt. Gardiner and another Salvation Army officer spoke and were given a hearty greeting. Last evening Rev. W. B. Wiggins preached a good sermon to a large congregation.

The Teachers Institute.

At yesterday afternoon's session of the teachers institute a resolution was passed to the effect that such legislation should be asked for as would enable this institute to elect annually one or more representatives to the senate of the University of New Brunswick.

Another resolution was a lopted urging the members of the institute to give the Educational Review a liberal support. Thoughtful and suggestive papers were read by F. O. Sullivan, of St. Stephen, John Brittain, of the Normal school, Inspector Bridges (Patriotism: How can it be developed in the common schools?)

An address was delivered by John March, and Sir S. L. Tilley was elected an honorary member.

The following officers were elected for present year: Secretary, H. C. Creed, Fredericton; assistant secretary, Wm. C. Simpson, St. John; executive committee, Philip Cox, Geo. U. Hay, Samuel C. Wilbur, James McCready, W. P. Parlee, George J. Oulton, Wm. M. McLean, James Barry, Berton C. Foster, Samuel W. Irons.

Presbyterian Progress.

In giving a resume of the business of the Ottawa assembly last Sunday morning in St. Andrew's church, Rev. Mr. Macneill gave the following interesting statistics of Presbyterian progress in Canada in the fifteen years that have elapsed since the union of the four churches in Montreal in 1875.

	1875.	1890.
Ministers	679	922
Stations	1,135	2,300
Church accommodations	249,000	454,000
Families	54,132	83,100
Communicants	88,000	159,000
S School pupils	79,000	124,000
Stipend paid	$443,000	$ 777,200
Congregational expenses	836,000	1,640,000
Schemes of church	95,000	268,117
Total raised for all purposes	982,671	2,054,951

Thus, as Mr. Macneill remarked, the church has nearly doubled her membership, her ministry and the amount given to congregational objects; while she has more than trebled the amount raised for missionary and other schemes of the church.

Auction Sales.

At Chubb's corner to-day Mr. Hanington sold a $500 six per cent. city school bond, due 1900, at 113½ per cent. premium.

Mr. Lantalum sold a house and barn on St. John street, Carleton, to Francis McCafferty at $250.

Mr. Gerow offered the house and lot on Erin street known as the Proud property, the sale being on account of the foreclosure of a mortgage for $600 held by J. Ryan and Eleanor Ryan. James Brennan objected to the sale on the ground that the mortgage was not a legal one, as Thomas Proud was not capable of doing any business at the time of giving the mortgage, that John Ryan was the only one who made the arrangement and had placed a rum bill of $78.16 to another bill of $521.84 making the total amount $600 and when Thomas Proud was not in his senses got him to sign those papers. Brennan also said he was in possession of the property and had a deed of it and was prepared to hold it. Mr. Chas. Doherty, the mortgagee's solicitor, told the auctioneer to proceed with the sale and the property was knocked down to Ryan at the amount of his mortgage $600.

Keep the Streets Clean.

To the Editor of THE GAZETTE:—

SIR,—The department of public works is now doing excellent work in cleaning up the streets of the city—they should have the support of the citizens. I notice that some of the streets, in many cases, are littered up by unsightly piles of posters and other things that are torn off by the bill posters and thrown in the streets in such a way that they are blown all over the newly cleaned streets. As an instance, the scavengers had just completed their work on the south side of Queen square, which was looking remarkably well, when the bill poster came along and tore off the circus posters on one of the gang, no doubt attracted by the smell, drew near and was grabbed by the darbies. The ground smeared with blood gave evidence of a desperate struggle. He succeeded in wrenching the trap from its moorings, and bore it off in triumph.

Mr. Charles Simpson of Amity, came across a splendid bull moose, the other day, on Mr. Slater's farm. The antlered monarch of the woods politely wished the gentleman a "good morning," and presenting his tail, gracefully retired. Mr. George Blackie likewise had a friendly interview with two deer on his premises, and arranged for a subsequent hunt. Mr. James Pilley attempted to bring down a beautiful representative of the same family, but was unsuccessful. The deer was fleeter of foot than he.

Reformed Baptists.

At the reformed Baptist alliance meeting yesterday an interesting report was recieved from the corresponding secretary B. N. Goodspeed. The report showed that four new churches had been organized during the year—at Seal Cove (Grand Manan), and at Campbell Settlement, Maplewood and Maple Ridge, York Co. During the year conventions had been held at Sanford, Cedar Lake, Bear Point and Caledonia, all in Nova Scotia, under the direction of Rev. A. Kinney. In the New Brunswick district, under Rev. W. B. Wiggins, conventions were held at Grand Manan, St. John and Fredericton. In the northern district, several conventions were held under S. A. Parker's direction. At all these conventions great interest in the work of the church was manifested and at some of them many members were added. Three new church buildings were erected and six are now in course of erection and soon to be finished. Some of the churches are hampered by reason of having no proper place of worship. There are places where congregations might be organized but for lack of accommodation, action has thus been deferred. There are calls both from Nova Scotia and this province for men to labor among the people. Some of the churches have mission societies and there are a number of very prosperous Sabbath schools. The report gave details of the work of the various churches throughout the province. After encouraging addresses in connection with the discussion of the report it was adopted. Capt. Gardiner and another Salvation Army officer spoke and were given a hearty greeting. Last evening Rev. W. B. Wiggins preached a good sermon to a large congregation.

The Teachers Institute.

At yesterday afternoon's session of the teachers institute a resolution was passed to the effect that such legislation should be asked for as would enable this institute to elect annually one or more representatives to the senate of the University of New Brunswick.

Another resolution was a lopted urging the members of the institute to give the Educational Review a liberal support. Thoughtful and suggestive papers were read by F. O. Sullivan, of St. Stephen, John Brittain, of the Normal school, Inspector Bridges (Patriotism: How can it be developed in the common schools?)

An address was delivered by John March, and Sir S. L. Tilley was elected an honorary member.

The following officers were elected for present year: Secretary, H. C. Creed, Fredericton; assistant secretary, Wm. C. Simpson, St. John; executive committee, Philip Cox, Geo. U. Hay, Samuel C. Wilbur, James McCready, W. P. Parlee, George J. Oulton, Wm. M. McLean, James Barry, Berton C. Foster, Samuel W. Irons.

Presbyterian Progress.

In giving a resume of the business of the Ottawa assembly last Sunday morning in St. Andrew's church, Rev. Mr. Macneill gave the following interesting statistics of Presbyterian progress in Canada in the fifteen years that have elapsed since the union of the four churches in Montreal in 1875.

	1875.	1890.
Ministers	679	922
Stations	1,135	2,300
Church accommodations	249,000	454,000
Families	54,132	83,100
Communicants	88,000	159,000
S School pupils	79,000	124,000
Stipend paid	$443,000	$ 777,200
Congregational expenses	836,000	1,640,000
Schemes of church	95,000	268,117
Total raised for all purposes	982,671	2,054,951

Thus, as Mr. Macneill remarked, the church has nearly doubled her membership, her ministry and the amount given to congregational objects; while she has more than trebled the amount raised for missionary and other schemes of the church.

Auction Sales.

At Chubb's corner to-day Mr. Hanington sold a $500 six per cent. city school bond, due 1900, at 113½ per cent. premium.

Mr. Lantalum sold a house and barn on St. John street, Carleton, to Francis McCafferty at $250.

Mr. Gerow offered the house and lot on Erin street known as the Proud property, the sale being on account of the foreclosure of a mortgage for $600 held by J. Ryan and Eleanor Ryan. James Brennan objected to the sale on the ground that the mortgage was not a legal one, as Thomas Proud was not capable of doing any business at the time of giving the mortgage, that John Ryan was the only one who made the arrangement and had placed a rum bill of $78.16 to another bill of $521.84 making the total amount $600 and when Thomas Proud was not in his senses got him to sign those papers. Brennan also said he was in possession of the property and had a deed of it and was prepared to hold it. Mr. Chas. Doherty, the mortgagee's solicitor, told the auctioneer to proceed with the sale and the property was knocked down to Ryan at the amount of his mortgage $600.
