IN MEMOR'AM.

On the death of Mrs. E. G. B. Respectfully inscribed to her husband, Edwin G. B. Esq.

BY THEO. S. DOBBS.

Old friend of mine, words can but ill express,
The deep and earnest sorrow that I feel,
For you, dear friend, in your heart's distress,
Words are too poor my feelings to reveal.
Mary's gone. That young and loving wife,
The dear companion and the loving friend,
Has left us in the brightest hour of life,
Loving, kind, and patient to the end.

How well I knew her; as a friend how kind—
How much I loved her let my heart reply:
I knew her purity of soul and mind,
Her aspirations all were pure and high.
She loved the beautiful, the good, the true,
While every action was a type of grace.
In friendship's tie she strong and stronger grew
While welcome smiles were always on her face.

A few short months ago how bright and clear,
Seemed every prospect of her future life,
When you, my friend, with her you loved so dear,
Stood at the altar's foot as man and wife.
She sleeps the slumber that is free from strife,
While blessings on her memory descend,
And while, my friend, you lost a loving wife
I feel that I have lost the best of friends.

I know full well your thoughts will oft return—
To that lone grave up on New Brunswick shore,
With hopes that your sweet little one will learn,
The virtue of her mother—gone before.
I will not say, my friend, you should not grieve,
And that your heart's afflictions you should quell;
I simply ask you that you may believe,
That living truth, "He doeth all things well."

New York, Feb. 23, '75.

NOTES AND NEWS.

UNITED STATES.

The President has appointed Joseph M. Livermore Surveyor of Customs at Eastport and for the District of Passamaquoddy, Maine.

Several merchants of Williamsburg, N. Y., were arrested Wednesday on the affidavit of a man who charged them all with conspiracy to kill him. He proved to be insane, and they were discharged.

The Louisville Courier Journal believes that water proof armor, similar to that used by Paul Boynton, will enable many a criminal to escape from justice, as there is no possibility of following tracks in water.

The Adventist of Chicago assembled on last Monday night in a private way, and waited till morning with their white robes in readiness for the expected coming of Christ. They finally dispersed quietly.

Martin Hilbert is under arrest in Brooklyn for setting a bloodhound on his wife, who was fleeing from his cruelty. The hound tore the woman shockingly, and her life was barely saved by the neighbors.

At Manchester, N. H., the other evening a woman shot an unknown man three times who attacked her. The ruffian uttered a loud shriek and fled, escaping in the darkness. He was probably fatally wounded.

The jury in the case of Alice A. Early of Rockford, Ill., against Wilbur F. Story, editor of the Chicago Times, for libel in the publication of a story nearly a year ago, in which Miss Early's character was assailed, brought in a verdict of $25,000 for plaintiff.

There is a centenarian living in Trescott, Me. His name is Charles McCurdy, aged 101 years. He is very smart. Walks a mile and a-half to attend Catholic church Sundays. His sight is good, can read easily. He manufactured the season's stock of wood at the door during a short time past. He lives with his son and grandson, four generations in his family.

The Little Corporal and The School Day Magazine have been consolidated with St. Nicholas, giving it a National circulation. As a magazine for young people St. Nicholas stands unsurpassed by anything of the kind yet published. It is always filled with the choicest matter, is finely and profusely illustrated, and is just what the boys and girls want. The May number contains the full complement of fun, illustrations, stories, poetry, etc., and will afford its young readers both amusement and instruction.

Scribner for May opens with Gilbert Stuart's threefold portrait of Madame Patterson-Bonaparte, of Baltimore, one of the most conspicuous victims of the great Napoleon's selfish and unscrupulous ambition. The accompanying sketch of "The Baltimore Bonapartes" is an authentic history of this interesting family, which may yet give France its Emperor. The New Paris Opera House is described, with pen and picture. "Droogmakerij" is the title of Col. Waring's carefully prepared account of the drainage of Haarlem Lake. Dr. Ward sums up, in an illustrated paper, some of the curious discoveries that have recently been made in and about Assyria. Some Recent Women Poets is the title of a brief, but thoughtful critical paper. Yung Wing and His Work tells about the Chinese Educational Mission, and its devoted originator. In the way of fiction we have two chapters of Dr. Holland's Story of Sevenoaks, in which there is more about Jim Fenton, and a new character is introduced.

The American Cardinal.

Next Tuesday morning the Archbishop of Baltimore will perform the ceremony of conferring the berretta on Cardinal McCloskey in St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York. The indications are that the occasion will be peculiarly imposing, and judging by the demand for tickets an immense assembly will undoubtedly be present. The Cathedral organist is working hard to make the musical part of the ceremony worthy of the occasion. Besides his own chorus, he has accepted numerous offers from members of other choirs and from several singing organizations. Probably fifteen hundred priests will attend, and not less than fifty archbishops and bishops. The tickets of admission to the ceremony are under the charge of a distributing committee, who are rapidly giving them out. They are printed in purple, and bear the number of the pew the holder is entitled to enter; a coat of arms and hat in carmine are emblazoned upon them, and underneath are the words: "Admit bearer to the ceremony of imposing the berretta, St. Patrick's Cathedral, April 27, 1875, at 10.30 a. m." Tickets for special guests are as follows: "The Cardinal Archbishop of New York requests the pleasure of your presence at the ceremony of imposing the berretta at St. Patrick's Cathedral, on Tuesday, 57th inst."

The Award of Premiums will be superintended and under the control of a committee of gentlemen, residents of St John, well known for their uprightness a d sagacity, and who will have exclusive charge of Books, Registers, &c. of the Company, containing entries of numbered, classified and registered Debentures, Bonds, Coupons, etc., etc. that have been issued. Upon the 15th of September the outstanding Bonds will be called in and cashed. Cash Drafts will be drawn on our Financial Agents in payment of all premiums included in Class A. (Side Schedule.)
All merchandise and other property must be taken away as soon as awarded, as we shall not hold ourselves responsible for it after delivery. Holders of Bonds should, if possible, present their Coupons for payment in person. Having briefly explained
HOW WE DO IT,
we will proceed to state
WHY WE DO IT.

In the first place we know that we have a good article, and we also know that the public will be pleased with it when they try it. Secondly—by the plan we herewith submit, the public are put in possession of the article at once and from four to ten years saved to both consumer and proprietor. Thirdly—thousands of dollars that would be required in advertising the remedy, saved, and vast quantities of stock lying dead on the paralyzed hands of energetic (?) druggists in active use. Fourthly—quick returns will enable us to furnish a better article, and more of it, for the same price. Knowing that it will form one of the necessaries of life, and that it will answer the purposes for which it is intended, we are satisfied that it will advertise itself wherever and whenever used.

It will appear evident to our patrons that general satisfaction must be given, in the distribution of our premiums, otherwise our remedy would hereafter meet with little or no favor.
