TOO MANY POOR CATTLE ON SALE

Trade Was Slow for Most All Kinds at the Union Stock Yards.

Trading at the Union Yards was very quiet yesterday, and not so much to the lack of a good demand as to the fact that the general quality of the cattle arriving is generally common to poor, few really choice cattle coming on the market. A lot of poor western cattle are here, but not many of the better kind. The better class of stockers and feeders are wanted, but there is absolutely no demand for the common stuff.

The lamb market continues strong around 14¾c for the top, and the calves are holding steady.

Hog Trade.

The general run of hog prices was 20¼c f.o.b., and 21¼c fed and watered, with a few outside buyers paying the ½c. The outlook is for lower prices.
