Away They Go

Our policy is to clear out all broken lines of Boots and Shoes at any price before our sale closes.

Better to sell these goods when people want them and get part of a price than keep them till people don't want them, and let them go to waste on our shelves.

That's not our way.

We keep our stock clean by carving the prices when we want to see goods move quick. That's what we are doing now.

Every pair of Rubber Boots and Long Boots and Felt Goods will go at cost. All our finest American Footwear is now offered at 20 per cent discount.

Try a pair of Geo E. Keith's $5 Shoes at $3 50. We guarantee the latest, up to-date lasts at this price.

CUT IN TWO!

Joseph Groundie, Stoney Point Cheesemaker,

Meets a Terrible Fate—He and His Rig Struck by One Train and Crushed by Another.

Comber, Ont., Feb. 16.—Joseph Groundie, cheesemaker, Stoney Point, was killed yesterday at the Grand Trunk crossing at Stoney Point while driving over a crossing. He was struck by the east-bound express and he and a portion of the wagon thrown on to the west track in front of the express going west, which ran over him and cut him to pieces.

The remains were gathered up in a basket.

Both horses were killed.
