STIRRING EVENTS AT THE WESTSIDE

Display of Beautiful Goods of Latest Designs and Finest Quality.

These are stirring times at The Westside. The spirit of progress and the enthusiasm of success have reached the highest point known in its history. The preparations for the fall and winter trade are on a grander and more magnificent scale than ever before. The fall importations, arriving by every ocean steamer, show a thorough knowledge of the styles in things for ladies' wear.

The Westside's grand millinery opening is always one of wide-spread interest, one that every lady visits who wishes to keep in touch with the latest fashions. Ever since Tuesday and up till 10 o'clock Saturday evening, a constant stream of visitors flowed into the millinery department, which is now in charge of Mrs. Dickie, whose reputation as a first-class artist and designer is beyond dispute. London, Paris and New York are represented by their best, and many dainty hats and bonnets from the Westside's own workroom go to make up the exhibition. Mrs. Dickie, who, by the way, is an enthusiast in millinery, showed the reporter a superb hat made in the "Gainsborough" style, with a rich black ostrich plume, handsomely trimmed with silk velvet, fastened with a jeweled buckle. "The Marie Antoinette," an imported picture hat, was perfect, with real black ostrich plumes and soft silk draperies. "The Tri-corn" is also a Parisian novelty of black velvet, lace, bird, cabochon and silk trimming. "The Nethersole," another pretty turban, with brim of peacock feathers, over which is draped Arab lace, finished in peacock ribbon and fine cut steel buckles. The favorite trimmings this season are to be chenille, sequins, panne velvet, ostrich plumes and pheasant breasts.

Many a pleasant and happy hour sightseeing has been spent in the Westside by the ladies of this city, viewing the immense quantities of new autumn goods, rich novelties, that have made thoughts linger on things beautiful.

A tour through the various departments of this great emporium on Saturday by one of the Colonist representatives was a revelation. The jacket and costume department is now under the charge of Miss Bessie Mitchell, whose ability, experience and amiability ensure for this department a great success. The ladies' jackets, which comprise some of the new Automobile coats, are made in the three quarter style, and cut either in the semi-fitting or loose sac style, with "Stuart" sleeves, the same sleeve as was in vogue during the Stuart reign. The rich garments in costumes, capes, silk waists and furs, with style and grace of form, and dainty elegance of decorations, are original productions, that are characteristic of French handiwork, and never fail to win many a long and lingering look from feminine eyes.

The corset department is under the charge of Mrs. West, a corset expert. The Westside has been fortunate enough to secure the sole agency of the popular W. B. straight front corsets, of which one reads so much in all the magazines, and of which they sell many thousands of pairs every season.

Turning to leave the store by the grand staircase, one catches a glimpse of a very rich and handsome cosey corner situated at the head of the stairs, which reflects great credit on Mr. Boulton, of whose artistic draping this is a splendid example. While passing down stairs an excellent view of the main floor can be gained, and one cannot help being struck by the neatness and thorough up-to-date look of this handsome store. Beautiful plate glass show cases glitter with all the latest novelties in ladies' neckwear, real hand-made laces (of which this store carries a great assortment), silk ribbons in all the newest shades, French kid gloves, just arrived, leather purses and chatelaines, many of the latter being in real sterling silver, smallwares of every description, of which all the new novelties are put on display, as they arrive from day to day.

The linen and staple department is under the charge of Mr. Savage, who has a stock that would please and dazzle the eyes of any housekeeper.

The house furnishings department is under the charge of Mr. Boulton, who has just now many beautiful novelties in costumes and rich English tapestries.

The silk department, which is presided over by Mr. Dewar, has some of the richest silks that have ever been imported to Victoria, elegant, heavy satin brocades direct from Paris, for evening wear, and worth the visit of every lady in Victoria.

The gentlemen's furnishing department is under the sole charge of Mr. Wollison, whose stock at the present moment is causing quite a stir among the men, on account of a special purchase of London neckwear, of which the window trimmer has made a very creditable showing in one of the Government street windows.

The boys' clothing department, which comes last, but not least, is under the charge of Mr. Wilson, whose pleasant and courteous manner has already won for the store many new friends during his short time with The Westside.

Great credit is due to Mr. John Hector, the manager, who has steered this great store to such a successful point in its history.

The windows have been specially decorated for this occasion, and are even better than usual, which is saying a great deal, and reflect great credit on Mr. Charles Hills for his ability and taste.

A great future for The Hutcheson Co., Ltd., whose illustrated catalogues, mailed gratuitously by the thousands, augment daily newspaper advertisements, in keeping out-of-town customers in touch with the store's doings.

CAPT. BALCOM'S ENTERPRISE.

Two Schooners to Be Sent South From Halifax Sealing.

From Halifax Herald.

A year ago Capt. Sprott Balcom conceived the idea of sending a small sailing vessel from Halifax on a cruise to the Southern Atlantic and Pacific for fur bearing seals. That the project was received with a shake of the head by some of those who professed to know it all, did not deter the promotor from taking action. The schooner Edward Roy was fitted out with every facility for successful sealing, and manned by a crew of competent men. Some months after she arrived back with an exceptionally good fare and with owners and crew satisfied with the venture.

That trip demonstrated beyond a shadow of a doubt that there is another field into which Nova Scotia's fleet can enter with every prospect of securing good returns. Capt. Balcom has decided to make another attempt with the Edward Roy, and that trim and speedy craft is again being put in commission with the expectation that she will sail from here in the near future. Capt. Balcom will also send out another suitable vessel which is expected to arrive here in a few days. Both will have crews made up from the ranks of hardy shore fishermen. The vessels will, if necessary, round the Horn and go north, but they will probably confine their operations to the same waters in which were cruised last year.

It is understood that other parties are taking an interest in the sealing business and are thinking of also taking a hand in.

THE SCHLEY INQUIRY.

Court Examines Four Witnesses But No Startling Evidence Given.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 20.—The Schley court of inquiry reconvened today and before adjournment examined four witnesses. The most important incident of the day was the decision of the court withdrawing a question put by the court itself asking a witness to give his opinion concerning a point in controversy. The witness was rear-admiral Higginson, who participated in the Santiago campaign as captain of the battleship Massachusetts. This vessel at the time was a part of the flying squadron commanded by Schley and the court asked him to state whether all possible measures were taken to capture or destroy the Spanish vessel Cristobal Colon as she lay in Santiago harbor from May 27 to June 1, 1898. Counsel for Admiral Schley objected to the question on the grounds that a reply would involve an opinion and not a statement of facts. Judge Advocate Lemley admitted that the precedents were against questions of this character and the court withdrew this interrogation. It is generally admitted that this decision will have the effect of materially shortening the term of the court as will also the court's manifest intention to cut out irrelevant questions and all hearsay testimony. In several cases the witnesses were admonished to relate only events coming within their own observation. Admiral Dewey showed himself a prompt and methodical presiding officer. The witnesses today were Rear-Admiral Higginson, who commanded the battleship Massachusetts during the Spanish war; Captain C. M. Chester, who commander the cruiser Cincinnati; Major Thomas N. Wood, of the marine corps who commanded the marines on the Massachusetts; and Commander C. B. Harber, who was the executive officer of the Texas; the latter being on the stand when the court adjourned.
