GAS LIGHT COMPANY.—A meeting of the stockholders in this company was held on Tuesday last, when the following gentlemen were chosen Directors for the ensuing year:—James Kirk, Thomas Allen, John Duncan, Robert Jardine, John M. Walker, Thomas Daniel, Alfred Smithers, Frederick A. Wiggins, and W. J. Ritchie, Esquires.

A meeting of the Directors was held yesterday morning, at which James Kirk, Esq. was elected President, and W. J. Ritchie, Esquire, Solicitor.—The appointment of a Secretary and Treasurer was deferred, Mr. A. Jack being appointed secretary pro tem.

We understand that Mr. Thomas Allan will proceed to Halifax by the way of Annapolis to-morrow, for the purpose of acquiring information relative to the working of the Gas company there. It is understood that Mr. Peebles, Manager of the Halifax Gas company will return with him next week.

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.—The Annual General Meeting took place at the Hall on Monday evening, and the Report read by the Secretary contained the gratifying information of a large decrease in the debt, which this year but slightly exceeds £400. Immediately after reading the report, &c., the election of Officers for the ensuing year was proceeded with, when the following persons were duly elected:—John M. Robinson, Esquire, President; Isaac Woodward and W. J. Ritchie, Esquires, Vice Presidents; James Paterson, L. L. D., Corresponding Secretary; W. H. Adams, Treasurer; J. W. Lawrence, Recording secretary, and secretary to the Board of Directors; Samuel Jordan, James Lawson, Robert Shives, Edwin Fairweather, H. J. Chubb, James Pettingell, William Curry, Wm. M. Smith, James Agnew, John R. Marshall, E. Stephen, and John Gray, Committee.

We learn that private letters received from Halifax mention that the departure of the steam boat Unicorn is countermanded; she was to have left for England, but is now detained for further orders on this side the ocean.—Montreal Courier.

Arrival of Admiral Austin.—The Vindictive, bearing the Flag of Vice Admiral Sir Francis Austin, arrived yesterday in a passage of 30 days from Portsmouth. The Vindictive came up the North side in gallant style; she was saluted by the Illustrious soon after she rounded St. Georges, which was returned after the anchored. The Admiral is accompanied by two of his daughters. Mr. Austen, one of Sir Charles's sons is his Flag Lieutenant, and Mr. Jeans his Secretary.

Miss Elizabeth Reid, daughter of his Excellency the Governor, came passenger in the Vindictive.

It is rumored that Admiral Sir Charles Adam, will leave for England early next week.—Bermuda Gazette, April 22.

The New York Courier & Enquirer says a Millerite meeting was a short time since broken in upon in the night, near North Buckeport, Maine, by some forty or fifty people, disguised as negroes. They forcibly entered the house in which the degusting conventicle was held, and proceeded to administer an oath to those assembled that they would not attend any more such meetings. They then turned to and hustled the fanatics, male and female, out of the house and afterwards searched the premises, upon which they found plenty of provisions for victualing the second Adventers, together with forty or fifty dollars in money, which the "Regulars" took possession of, for the expense as they said of handing it over to the "Select Men." Several of these engaged in this disgraceful transaction, are said to be men of character, and property and intelligence, who took this mode of managing Millerites, as the best way to get rid of them from the town. They ought to be ashamed of themselves as long as they live, and be punished into the bargain; for bad as the Miller men may be, and annoying as their orgies may be to the community infested by them, the conduct of these self constituted avengers is even still worse. The law ought to be brought to bear upon these mischievous fanatics, but this mob interference can find no justification under any circumstances.

Cruelty in the United States' Navy.—The "Old Dominion" states that Captain Voorhees, of the U. S. frigate Congress, is charged with the grossest cruelty towards the men under his command. It is said that on leaving the Capes of Virginia, he had the whole crew assembled, and made to them the following proclamation:—"I wish every man to understand, that if he is reported, I will punish him, whether right or wrong: for I believe that I can place confidence in my officers, that they will not report a man without a cause." Under this brutal policy, says the Old Dominion, punishment was perpetual, and the charge is boldly made that more than one sailor or inferior person was whipped to death! This we do know, that the officers of that ship did not dare to stay to mingle with the men, but hurried themselves off at the earliest moment; for threats of vengeance were loud and deep against them, and we have no doubt had the men been discharged, serious scenes would have been witnessed in this town. (Portsmouth.)

Law Case Touching the Family of the late Governor of Canada.—Miss Sophia Poulet Thomson, daughter of John Poulet Thomson, Esq. of Waverly Abbey, Surrey, and sister of Lord Sydenham, was in Germany, in the year 1825, when proposals of marriage were made to her by the Baron de Biel, a German noblemen, who was possessed of an entailed estate at Zierow, in the duchy of Mecklenburgh Schwerein. On the 22d of December, 1845, the two brothers of the lady and the baron had an interview to arrange the terms of the settlement, when they informed him that the fortune of their sister was to consist of £10,000 to be paid down on the day of the marriage, and an allowance of £300 per annum during her life to be paid by her father. It was further intimated that it was the intention of the lady's father to leave her by will the further sum of £10,000 to be settled on her and her issue.—The other parts of the arrangement were fully complied with, and the question in the cause was, whether this last mentioned was a positive stipulation, or only an indefinite intimation, depending for performance on the volition of the party making it. The defence in substance was that the memorandum was a mere note of at intention, and was not a binding agreement, and that not being signed it was void within the Statute of Frauds. The master of the Rolls rejected these defences, and made a decree in favor of the claim, and on appeal his decree was confirmed by Lord Chancellor Cottenham. The present appeal was then brought.—Council having been heard on both sides, the Lords considered it a positive agreement, subject only to the condition of settling the money according to Mr. J. P. Thomson's discretion, in case his daughter should not have any children. The decree of the court below was therefore affirmed.

UNION AMONG PROTESTANTS.—What we strongly recommend is union among those who know and love the truth of God, in opposition to Popery without, and Popery within the Church. We would recommend the formation of such unions in every city, town, and parish throughout the kingdom, where they can, in the exercise of due care and exertion, be affected. They will all be wanted. If they be adequate, through the blessing of God, to the occasion, they will more than realize the expectations of many sober minded and able men.—Record. This is precisely what the Orange Association is doing, and we recommend all persons desirous of following our contemporary's advice, to study (as carefully and minutely as they please) all rules and regulations of that excellent society, which are open to the perusal of every one.—Liverpool Standard, January 28.

MUSIC.—From the prevalence of Music in every age, and by its cultivation in every part of the world, it is evident there is something in the "concord of sweet sounds" congenial with the mind of man. Whether among rude or polished nations, it has ever been regarded as of the highest importance, and been introduced to aid the expression of joy and grief upon the most serious and the most festive occasions, in the temple and in the theatre, in solemn processions and in the sprightly dance. It has ever been the solace and the delight of men of genius, and there is no subject which is praised in more ardent expressions or expatiated upon with more delight, by Homer, Shakespeare, Tasso, Milton—by all writers indeed of refined taste and highly cultivated intellect. As civilization advances, music, as a science, gains new advocates; and the day is evidently fast approaching when few will decry music on the ground that its effects are merely sensual. It is addressed to the ear indeed; but all the influences which we receive from without are conveyed through the medium of the senses; and the tones of music often speak a language to the soul richer in meaning than words could express. Nothing is merely sensual which makes a lasting spiritual impression upon us; and those who deny to music such a power, have not heard its sublimest strains, or have not the capacity to appreciate them.—Maunder's Universal Class book.

The Great Western and Great Britain—The New York Tribune says:—The Great Western had the largest letter mail she has ever taken. The postage will probably reach $3000. The steamer had probably not less than 275 people on board. We understand from a gentleman who has recently returned from England that it is doubtful if the Great Britain comes out to this country. Her owners, it is believed, are endeavoring to sell her to some European power as a war steamer. She is considered to be too expensive a ship for this trade. The agents here, however, have no advices that there has been any change in the arrangements.

Louis Philippe and the Pope.—A French Journal says, that it has been asserted in the diplomatic salons that an order has been given to M. Rossi to negotiate at Rome for an interview between the Pope and Louis Philippe, to take place the approaching summer, at Nice. It is added that the object of this conference would be to regulate, in a definite manner, the great religious question which has been agitated for a year past, and to introduce a new article into the Concordat, in order to regulate all the liberties of the Gallican Church.

Royal Letters Patent—Granted March 4, 1844.

Patent Washing & Cleansing POWDER.

ONE great advantage which this Powder possesses over others, consists in its not injuring the hands of the persons using it. Other Washing Powders contain Carbonate of Soda in its free state, which by acting upon the skin, inflames the hands, and renders them sore and wrinkled.

Other advantages peculiar to this Powder, may be stated as follow, viz:

A saving of at least one half of the Soap which is necessary when Soda is used.

A great saving in the labour of washing.

The colour of linen and other fabrics turn out far superior in whiteness to that which is given by any other means.
