Mr. W. Howard, who has been quite ill, is well again, we are pleased to see, and frequently journeys (like the wise men of old) towards the east.

The moon was slowly rising, o'er the woods across the way,
The silvery beams fell softly at the close of that long day;
They fell upon the door step, where the bride and bride-groom sat,
They fell on her white fore-head and on the old door-mat;
They fell upon the tin-ware, that sparkled like the sea—
This was the scene before me, at Soperton "chivaree."

The vast array of tin-ware moved slowly on its way,
Led by young Captain T. it were sure to win the day;
The loudly tooting dinner horn would quell the bravest soul,
While the shrilly ringing cow-bell chimed with the watch-dog's howl,
Lieutenant H. his powerful voice did raise with might and main,
And sang with tender pathos (?)—"I long to be single again".

Until two o'clock they waited, but no bride-groom did appear,
Still the gallant captain spoke, without restraint, I hear;
So they rattled on their tin-pans, tin-horns and cow-bells rare,
And I'm sure of "high class" music they got enough o'er there.
The bride and groom indifferent to the beauty of the scene,
Still sat apart and pondered, on "Love's young dream".

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Beach, of Athens, guests at Cedar Park, were among the limited list of successful salmon anglers at Charleston last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Kennedy and Miss Deyell left for Port Hope yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Arnold, with whom they were visiting, have broken camp at Charleston and returned to Athens.

Our special offer of the Reporter to Jan., '95 for 25c to new subscribers is being taken advantage of by a very large number. Week after next we commence a new story of absorbing interest—"A Terrible Secret."

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Layng, of Gouverneur, N. Y., were visiting friends in Athens last week. Mr. Layng has many friends in this section and at Greenbush where he formerly resided, but, of course, after an absence of thirty years, he finds great changes in place and people.

Messrs. W. Earl and St. Elmo Hickey are this week en route for Kingston by row boat via Gananoque and will return by way of the Rideau, White fish creek, Delta Lake and the Furness waters. A week is the time they have allotted for the trip.

In support of the statement, so generally made, that the number of fish being caught at Charleston Lake this season is above the average, we give the catch made by Mr. W. G. Parish one day last week, which consisted of 122 fish, 79 of which were black bass, all over ten inches in length. In accordance with the commendable custom observed by many of the best anglers, nearly all of these were returned to the lake, almost uninjured. These sportsmen simply line the fish up to be counted, perhaps to be weighed and measured, and then give them their freedom.

It will be remembered that John Livingston, of Lake Eloida, had $19 snatched out of his hand by a faker following Cook & Whitby's circus while the show was in Brockville. His son-in-law, W. Mackley, armed with a warrant and accompanied by Chief Rose, of Brockville, went to Prescott on Saturday to identify and secure the arrest of the thief. He found his man at the station, but he escaped by running, while the Chief was surrounded by the thief's pals and threatened with revolvers. The Chief was armed and there would have been serious trouble, had not the proprietor of the circus come forward and settled Livingston's claim amounting in all to $30.

Nearly a Fatality.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McLean had a narrow escape from drowning at Charleston Lake on Thursday last. They were fishing from a small boat anchored near stone-fence, both sitting in the stern seats; they decided to change their location, and Mr. McLean stepped forward to lift the anchor when, it is supposed, the anchor slipped off the ledge upon which it was resting into deep water, jarring the boat and causing the occupants to lose their balance. The result was that the boat was upset and both were precipitated into the water. They had a hard struggle, above and below—but finally succeeded in supporting themselves on the upturned boat. The anchor rendered it impossible to right the boat or make any progress towards shore and their position was indeed very critical. However, their calls for help were heard by Messrs. Rockwood and Crummy and G. A. Wiltse and Stanley Anderson, who were fishing in different parts of the lake, and they arrived on the scene at the same time and effected a rescue. Mrs. McLean was very much exhausted and could not have much longer retained her hold on the upturned boat.

The accident was a peculiar one, but just such as is liable to happen to any fishing party, and too much caution cannot be observed while fishing from a small boat.

Dr. H. S. Anderson, dentist, of Mitchell, Ont., and Mrs. Anderson are visiting relatives in Athens and vicinity. Together with friends, they occupied the Wilson cottage at Charleston Lake last week. They start for their home in the west on Friday of this week.

DOING THE ISLANDS.

And Incidentally A Few Hotel Keepers

This week's issue of the Clayton paper says: "A crook of the slickest sort made his appearance on the river last week and but for the vigilance of Officer Northrop of Alexandria Bay would have taken his departure leaving behind him several unpaid board bills. He registered at the Jefferson house at the Bay, last Friday night, and his actions aroused the suspicions of the clerk, who requested Officer Northrup to watch him. Early Saturday morning word was received from Thousand Island Park asking the authorities to look out for a man answering the description of the Jefferson house guest, with the further information that he had jumped his board bill at the Columbia hotel at that place. He was at once arrested and held to wait the arrival of Proprietor Inglehart of the Columbia. After settling his bills with both hotels he was given a limited time to get out of town. It was discovered that he had made un usual preparations for skipping from that place by leaving his baggage at a saloon near the dock. The name he gave, which is known to be correct, as J. Sheriff Yates, and his home is in Athens, Can., a small place back of Brockville. He is a neat appearing fellow, smooth face, about 28 years of age, and is said to be wanted in Syracuse for jumping a board bill there a few months ago."

Another version of the story is given as follows: "A man and woman registered at the Columbian Hotel, Thousand Island Park last Wednesday as "J. S. Yates and wife, Syracuse," and in a few days took French leave. They were located at Alexandria Bay, and when the hotel bill was presented they professed to be dead broke. A bill of sale of Yate's watch and clothes was taken and he will endeavor to redeem them Monday."

UNIONVILLE FAIR.

Directors' Meeting.

The directors of the Unionville fair association met yesterday (Monday) for the appointment of judges, arranging for special attractions, and general business. N. H. Beecher, pres., in the chair. B. Loverin, sec., E. Davis, treas., and Messrs. Moore, Jelly, Forth, Barlow, Loverin, Bissell and McNish, directors, were present.

The minutes of previous meeting were amended by inserting $125 as amount voted the sports committee.

Secretary read letters from Prof. Montford regarding a baloon ascension, and the sec. of Lyndhurst brass band offering their services on the two last days of fair.

On motion, the secretary was instructed to procure 175 lithograph posters for advertising purposes, also to get out 4000 fly sheets for the same purpose.

Barlow and Moore moved that this board decide to have a baloon ascension on 2nd day of fair, if satisfactory arrangements can be made.—Carried.

McNish and Loverin moved that the pres., sec., and Jelly be a committee to negotiate with manager of B. & W. Railway and baloonist regarding terms for baloon ascension, and that they make the best arrangements possible.—Carried.

Loverin and Barlow moved that the same committee be instructed to make the Lyndhurst band an offer for their services on the afternoon of the two last days of fair.—Carried.

Loverin and Barlow moved that this board allow all fakers on the ground provided they pay suitable fees for their privileges.

Moore & McNish moved in amendment that we allow no fakers on the ground on any consideration. Amendment carried.

Moore and McNish moved that this board allow all religious denominations, including the Salvation Army, the privilege of holding meetings on the grounds at such place and hours as the directors may decide.—Carried.

Forth and Loverin moved that the space for religious services be in the north corner of the grounds, and that Messrs. Moore and McNish be a committee to have charge of same and arrange the place and the hours when such meetings may be held.—Carried.

The list of judges for the different classes were then filled out and the secretary instructed to notify them in the usual manner of their appointment. The board then adjourned to the call of the president.

After the business of the board was concluded, Mr. Fred L. Moore treated the members present to a very choice lot of comb honey, which, from the quantity eaten and the many expressions of thanks which followed, must have given unbounded satisfaction to the partakers of Mr. Moore's generous donation.

PRIMARY EXAMS.

The Result in This Section—As Usual Athens Leads the County.

It has been customary with the education department to withhold the result of the primary exams. until all the other papers had been passed upon; but this year a change was made and we are enabled thus early in vacation to give the list of successful primary candidates.

The certificates of successful candidates and the marks of the unsuccessful candidates will be sent to the Principals of the High Schools, and Public School Inspectors, immediately after the results of the junior leaving and matriculation examinations have been announced. In no case will the marks be reported direct by the department to the candidates.

Candidates who have failed, and who may desire to appeal, are requested to wait until they have received their marks of the examination before making a protest.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

The Tramps Keep Away From the City—Gen. Wolfe's Sword.

OTTAWA, July 30.—The first detachment of the 400 who are marching down the Parry Sound railway track gave the city a wide berth, owing to the precautions taken by the police to keep them out. Fifty of them made a detour by way of the railway bridge over the canal and Rideau river and marched along the south side of the river bank, finally bringing up at Hurdman's bridge. They occupied a barn there, while some of them slept in the bush. In the morning they pushed on east and very few ventured into the city.

The rumor published that an order-in-Council had been passed requesting the Lieutenant-Governors of Manitoba and the Northwest Territories to modify the regulations and lighten the burden of the Catholics as to separate schools under their control is stated to be without foundation.

The "patriotic and public-spirited Canadian," who, it is reported, has purchased Wolfe's sword and the Victoria Cross of Lieut. Col. Dunn, the hero of the Light Brigade, is very reticent as to his name and has given instructions to Mr. H. J. Morgan, chief clerk in the Department of the Secretary of State, who has charge of the matter, not to divulge his identity.

Sidney Lobb Out on Bail.

NANAIMO, July 30.—Sidney Wentworth Lobb, whose wife was found dead in bed on the 8th of June last, has been released on bail of $5,000. The preliminary hearing of the case has been constantly delayed at the request of the Crown prosecutor. It was understood that the proceedings on Saturday would be final, but Magistrate Plata apparently does not wish to assume any judicial responsibility in the matter. He announced that now that Mr. Lobb should be released on bail it was his intention to remand the case from week to week until the November assizes, when accused could appear. This is tantamount to a committal for trial, but the evidence is apparently considered so slight that the magistrate has adopted this method of allowing Lobb his freedom.

An Expensive Blaze in Markdale.

MARKDALE, Ont., July 30.—For the second time in a week Armstrong Bros.' large veneer cheese box and basket factory was found to be on fire on Saturday night. All the machinery, buildings, a stock of rollers ready for export, worth about $1,500, and about 10,000 feet of oak timber, went up in flames. It was with the greatest difficulty the storehouse and piles, sash and door factory and Henery's tannery was saved, and at one time McFarland's elevators were on fire. The loss to Armstrong Bros. will be about $10,000, with only $2,500 insurance, besides losing for the whole summer orders and throwing about thirty men out of employment. The cause of the fire is probably incendiary.

Poisoned by Pressed Chicken.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., July 30.—The Knights of Pythias, of Otsego, had a party about three weeks ago, and the following day 20 persons who attended were taken sick all with the same symptoms. Charles Brundage died a few days later. Monday Dr. French died, and yesterday J. J. Gelb died. All the rest have recovered except six, who are still confined to their beds. Many believe that the trouble came from eating pressed chicken at the party.

The Rogers Company Suing Newspapers.

DETROIT, Mich., July 30.—The Rogers Typographers Company, of Detroit, has filed bills in the United States Circuit Court against the Detroit Free Press and the Detroit Evening News to restrain them from using the spacing device used in the Mergenthaler typesetting machine, the linotype in use on those papers. The Rogers Company will in time begin suit against the 500 or more papers using the linotype machines.

This Sharper Was Served Right.

ST. JOHN, N. B., July 30.—A man calling himself Cawhite, and giving Boston, Mass., as his last place of residence, visited the chief of police on Saturday and offered him 20 per cent. of the gross proceeds if he would protect him in running a first-class gambling dive. The chief promptly consigned the Yankee to the cells and will lay information against him on Thursday of attempted bribery and corruption

North Wellington Patrons.

ARTHUR, Ont., July 30.—There was a meeting here on Saturday of the Patrons of North Wellington to choose a candidate to represent them at the Dominion Parliament, but on account of the small attendance no choice was made. They adjourned to meet again this fall.

Mr. Purcell's Body Reburied.

CORNWALL, Ont., July 30.—The body of the late Patrick Purcell, which was stolen from its resting place on May 14, 1891, and which was found on Thursday, was taken to his late home "Fairfield," at Summerstown. Here the funeral again took place on Saturday.

Lord Randolph in Canada.

MONTREAL, July 30.—Lord Randolph Churchill, Lady Churchill, and George Keith, private secretary, arrived in the city on Saturday from Bar Harbor in the C. P. R. private car "Iolanthe."

The Miranda Leaves for the Arctic.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., July 30.—The steamer Miranda, with the Cook Arctic expedition aboard, sailed on her voyage to Greenland on Monday night, all her repairs having been completed.

THREE BOYS DROWNED

Lost Their Lives While Bathing in the St. Maurice River.

GIRL DROWNED AT TORONTO

A Young Man Killed by a Kick From a Colt—Cleveland Boy Drowned at Fort Stanley—Tales of Tragedy Told by Canadian Wires.

ST. JOHN, N.B., July 30.—Ernest S. Ruel, aged 21, youngest son of James R. Ruel, collector of customs of the port, was drowned on Kennebecassis river at Rothesay on Saturday evening. He had been taking part in races by the Rothesay Canoe Club and challenged a companion to an extra race. The challenge was accepted and the two young men started. Ruel fell behind and when some distance out his competitor on looking round was horrified to see Ruel's empty canoe drifting with the tide. From the position of the limbs and the fact that there was no water in his stomach, the physicians who viewed the body believe Ruel was stricken in his canoe from heart failure or brain affection, resulting from over-exertion, and that life was extinct ere he fell into the water.

An Aged Woman Severely Burned.

MONTREAL, July 30.—A very sad accident occurred at Three Rivers and may yet prove fatal to an old and much respected lady of that locality. Mrs. Philippe Pleau was sitting in one of her apartments, when suddenly a lamp which stood above her fell and in doing so was dashed to pieces. The oil was soon ablaze and first started in the room. In attempting to subdue the flames Mrs. Pleau's dress caught fire and she was soon enveloped in the flames and would undoubtedly have been roasted alive but for the prompt arrival of her husband and some of her neighbors. The firemen were also called out and subduing the flames. Mrs. Pleau was at once placed in bed and medical assistance summoned. Owing to her advanced age it is doubtful whether she will recover.

Killed By a Kick From a Colt.

SEAFORTH, Ont., July 30.—While hitching up his horses on Friday a young man named Charles Murray of the township of Tuckersmith received a kick on the abdomen from a colt, which terminated fatally on Saturday night. His internal injuries were of such a nature that doctors were powerless to do anything.
