—J. G. Anderson and wife, city, have been visiting Port Huron friends.

—Mrs. Wm. Taylor, 560 Adelaide street, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Conrad Lenz, Chicago, Ill.

—Mrs. Jerry McDonald has returned from Toronto after visiting her daughter, Maude—a pupil at Loretta Abbey.

—Mr. David Gardner, Dundas street, left on Saturday for Chicago on a visit to his father, Mr. Alex Gardner, formerly of this city.

—Prayers were offered in several city churches yesterday for the recovery of Rev. J. A. Murray. Mr. Murray was reported as not so well last night.

—The house of Miss McDiarmid, con. 1, was entered the other evening by thieves and a small sum of money stolen. Every room was ransacked. A screen on the cellar window was torn out and an entrance was easily effected.

—About 8:30 o'clock on Saturday night some one thought he saw smoke issuing from the upper story of the building formerly occupied by Woods' Fair. The brigade was called and the glass in the door broken and entrance affected, but no sign of fire could be found. The place is owned by Mr. Geo. T. Hiscox.

—Young man, is your name on the Dominion voters' list yet? It is not, if you have not signed the usual declaration. If you have not signed it, go to the Liberal rooms, Oddfellows' block, tonight. If you neglect this duty now, you cannot vote in the coming Dominion election.

—There has been more than one complaint recently of rowdyism and petty robbery in the south end, near the hospital. Women dare not walk unprotected in many parts after nightfall. A rough demanded money from Mr. Harry Pock on South street the other night, and on being refused he promptly knocked Mr. Pook down. The latter got up again but was again felled to the ground, and when he recovered consciousness the ruffian had gone. A few more policemen in this neighbourhood would do good.

—Hiram Fifield, of Dorchester Station, was arrested on Saturday by Detective Ward, of London West. Jonathan Capstick is the complainant, and he alleges that Fifield threatened to trample him into the ground and accordingly turned the horse onto him. Hiram and his brother William have also been summoned before Squire Lacey on the charge of having taken four head of cattle from Albert Capstick while the latter was driving them to the pound.

Nixon Is Weaker.

George S. Nixon, the victim of Saturday night's accidental shooting, was somewhat worse this morning, his strength having diminished during the night. He is partly conscious, and recognizes a few of his intimate friends and relatives. Nixon takes plenty of nourishment.

Robbery in London West.

Some bold thieves secured an entrance to Jennings' hotel, Blackfriars street, London West, early yesterday morning. The proprietor was awakened about 2 o'clock by parties talking in front of the building, but he thought nothing of it, and again was soon fast asleep. When he went to the cellar about 7 o'clock Mr. Jennings found that a large quantity of liquor was missing and that he was a loser to a considerable extent. The visitors had gained an entrance by tearing up a portion of the sidewalk and forcing the cellar window. The bar, in which was upwards of $60, had been untouched. Mr. Jennings recognized the voices of the men, and arrests will likely follow. The hotel has been broken into on several occasions in the same way.

The Gas Smothered Him.

William Kennedy, a witness in the Biddulph shooting case, was nearly asphyxiated by gas in his room at Jerry McDonald's hotel on Saturday night. Kennedy, who is a middle-aged man, had been in St. Thomas during the day and returned late. When he went to bed he turned out the gas, but turned the cock completely around and caused the gas to escape. Early Sunday morning the women of the house smelled the odor and heard the man groaning. The door was broken open, and Kennedy carried into another room. He could articulate feebly, but could not move hand or foot. He afterwards said that he felt as if he was in a dream. Dr. Fraser attended to Kennedy, who so far recovered later in the day as to be removed to the home of his sister on York street.

"Williams' Royal Crown Remedy Saved John Weir's Life,"

May be seen in large letters on the covers of the horses that precede the handsome Royal Crown Remedy wagon at Toronto and Western Fairs. To a Globe reporter, Mr. Weir said: "This is a most marvelous cure. I became pale as a corpse; my blood seemed to be turned to water. I had dizziness and a ringing noise in my head; my hands and feet were cold all the time, and my limbs were completely swollen up to the body. Some doctors called it consumption of the blood. I got so weak that I could not walk, and finally took to my bed." Mrs. Weir says: "All M. Weir has told you is true. At times he lay for days unconscious and unable to take nourishment of any kind, and was reduced to a mere skeleton of 84 pounds; and I fully believe that if we had been one day later in getting Williams' Royal Crown Remedy he would be in his grave to-day. So it may well be said 'Williams' Royal Crown Remedy saved John Weir's life. The best druggists keep Royal Crown Remedy, but if your druggist does not, remit direct to Isaac Williams Company, London, and they will send it to you by first express. The price at which Williams' Royal Crown Remedy is sold makes a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with any other medical treatment. 6 bottles for $5, from Isaac Williams Co., London, Ont. Clip this out and send to sick friend.

Serious Charge Against a Young Woman—Her Methods of Raising Money.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

There is a young woman, by name Annie Craik, collecting money in the name of the King's Daughters. She has no authority for doing so and is obtaining money under false pretenses. If she says she belongs to the order, it is false, as her name is not on our membership list. She may have found a cross that some one has lost. I warn the public for the third time through your columns not to give money to anyone collecting in the name of the King's Daughters unless they have a letter signed by my name as president of the city union and also by the leader of the circle that wishes to collect for a case of great need. Hoping the public will note this word of warning. Believe me, dear Mr. Editor, Yours sincerely,

ELIZABETH M. TILLEY,
President of the City Union of the King's Daughters and Sons.

P. S.—The girl Annie Craik lives on Adelaide street and carries a card about with these words on it, "The Lord loveth a cheerful giver." Anyone who gives money to her is aiding the lowest kind of swindling. She collected in the same way two years ago and I personally warned her not to do so. When I wrote to the papers at that time I spared her name, with the hope that she would reform, but it has had no effect upon her. E. T.

AFTER THE FOX.

The Master's First "At Home" at Glenmore—A Fox Chase—Broke His Arm.

Mr. Adam Beck, the new master of the London Hunt, was "at home" Saturday for the first time, and a stylish crowd from the city attended his reception at Glenmore. Refreshments were served and music was added to the charms of the surroundings. The regular run was livelier than usual, the hounds being given a live fox to chase instead of a trail of the seed bag, conveniently arranged over even ground and easy fences. Reynard set a lively pace through uncertain territory, and near Gough's farm landed his pursuers in a nasty swamp, from which they emerged, however, slightly disfigured, but still in full cry. The wary fox was finally run down, and Master Knox Niven secured the brush and Master Elliot Fraser the mask. Mr. George C. Gibbons was a close third. The mounts were: Mr. Beck (master), Master G. Gibbons, Major A. M. Smith, Major Denison, Mr. Piggott, Col. Dawson, Dr. Niven, Mr. G. C. Gibbons, Mr. Widder, W. Wilson, Mr. H. R. Abbott, W. T. Strong, Dr. G. H. Wilson, Mr. P. Smith, Master A. Brown, Col. Gartshore, Knox Niven and Elliot Fraser. Mr. W. T. Strong while riding to the kennels was thrown through his horse stumbling. Though suffering pain he joined in the run, and was surprised afterwards to find that his arm was broken.
