The Guelph Mercury says: "Doc Sippi brought a star pitcher with him by the name of Braham, and his ability was not overestimated by any means. The Leafs were able to hit him safely only on rare occasions, and, if the Alerts had put up a clean game behind him, the result might yet have been different. Braham is about the size of a "pint of cider," and as cool as a block of ice. He is a south-paw, and has a wonderful control of very elusive curves and drops. Bradford and McIlroy were the only two men on the team that could place him safely, and they have two hits apiece.

"There have been cleaner games of ball played this season in the Canadian League—games in which an error column was not so well filled on either side, but there never was a closer, more exciting contest. In fact, it was the intense "win or die" feeling on the part of both teams that was no doubt responsible for some of the errors. All the pent-up enthusiasm that the rooters have been waiting for an opportunity to let out went off with a bang yesterday. It was a desperate struggle, and it took ten keenly-contested innings to settle which team was to have the supremacy. At no stage of the proceedings did either side have a cinch on the game, and it was uncertain till McIlroy's big hit in the tenth sent the crowd away rejoicing. The "white blacksmith" was in his glory, and besides putting up a star game in the box, and doing half the hitting, he had no less than eight assists."

GUELPH DEFEATS HAMILTON.

About 1,500 people witnessed the ball game between the Maple Leafs, of Guelph, and the Hamilton team at Dundurn yesterday. Gallagher, the Guelph pitcher, was a Chinese puzzle to the Hamiltons, and contributed not a little to his team's victory, making a three-bagger, a two-bagger, and a single. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Guelph	7	12	1
Hamilton	5	10	4

Batteries—Gallagher and Roberts; McGinnis and Baker. Umpire, Chub Collins.

THE ORIENTS AT ST. THOMAS.

St. Thomas Times: "The most wearisome game of ball which has been played in this city for many a day was that at Atlantic Park Tuesday afternoon between the Y. M. C. A.'s and Orients, of London, when the former won by a score of 19 to 12. It was the rockiest kind of ball-playing, the game abounding in muffing, fumbling, and wild throwing. Indeed, it looked at times as if some of the players were not trying to play the game. The ball was hit freely, and there was lots of leather-chasing, and run-getting, but an almost total absence of clean ball-playing. Many got tired and went home long before the finish, and when the last man was out, and the game was ended, all were heartily glad.

FLYS.

The South London team and the Byron nine play a match at the waterworks on Monday.

Fifty Years Ago.

President Polk in the White House chair,
While in Lowell was Doctor Ayer;
Both were busy for human weal
One to govern and one to heal.
And, as a president's power of will
Sometimes depends on a liver-pill,
Mr. Polk took Ayer's Pills I trow
To his liver, 50 years ago.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills

were designed to supply a model purgative to people who had so long injured themselves with griping medicines. Being carefully prepared and their ingredients adjusted to the exact necessities of the bowels and liver, their popularity was instantaneous. That this popularity has been maintained is well marked in the medal awarded these pills at the World's Fair 1893.

50 Years of Cures.

Bicycle Costumes

Some of the Latest Conceits Adopted by the Fair Riders.

The Short Skirt and Norfolk Jacket the Predominating Attire.

The "Bloomers" Not in It—New and Comfortable Costumes.

London at present contains as large a number of cyclists in proportion to its population as any city in Canada, and nowhere are the people more enthusiastic in and interested in this invigorating and healthful exercise than here. The excellent taste displayed in the neat and jaunty costumes worn by our girls is worthy of special note, and cannot fail being duly admired.

Persons visiting this beautiful city at so favorable and pleasant a time of the year, and walking through Victoria Park, or down any of the principal streets, cannot fail to notice the beauty and variety of the bicycle costumes worn by London's fairest belles.

Some of the most noticeable ones are made of blue, green, gray or fawn, with short skirt and tight-fitting Norfolk jacket, made with four box plaits, and having gaiters to match, also a Tam-O'Shanter trimmed with a couple of quills at the side and made of the same material as the suit.

Another of the latest styles is the short skirt, worn with various kinds of plaid waists and trimmed with velvet to match the predominating color in the plaid, and small or large pearl buttons. Most of these waists are made blouse front, with velvet straps over the shoulders, on which the buttons are put, some in rows of threes on the bias and some on the straight. The sleeves are generally cut after the pattern styled "Bishop's sleeves," and are gathered at the wrist with a light cuff. With this suit, as with many of the others, the English walking hats are very often worn, sometimes felt and sometimes straw, and look very becoming and stylish with a white flowered veil.

Still another very pretty effect is found in the old-time Eaton jacket, which instead of being made long this year as usual, is cut short and belted in at the waist with a narrow belt slipped through at the two side seams and brought over the front. Very often on the skirts of these suits are three large pearl buttons down each front seam.

One of the newest styles of caps bought from friends across the line is a Tam O'Shanter made of dark red fine plaid, bound with black and having two black quills and a bow at the side.

There are several varieties of bicycle costumes worn during the intense heat of July and August. Dark skirts, accompanied by shirt waists and sailor hats, were almost universally worn, but with the cooler season come the more suitable costumes, having jackets and skirts of the same material. Among the latest are suits of green, blue, brown and gray (the former color promises to be most fashionable this fall), made with short skirt, Norfolk jacket and gaiters to match, always accompanied, of course, by some neat style of felt hat in the same shade. This forms a very becoming bicycle attire.

The blazer suit is also still worn, and with a becoming yest and Tam O'Shanter caught up at the side with quills, forms a very pleasing combination and gives the wearer a smart and attractive appearance.

Another style in vogue just now is a dark-colored skirt with a plaid waist, with which may be worn either hat or Tam O'Shanter

A few have adopted the bloomer costume, but it has not found favor in the hearts of London women, although considered by those who wear it to be a much safer and more convenient form of dress than any other.

Our gentlemen riders have truly the air of sports, as they go flying by with their light colored suits made with short coat and knickerbockers, with which they wear golf stockings, a negligee shirt and a peaked cap, and certainly give one the appearance of solid comfort.

BREACH OF PROMISE.

Hamilton, Ont., Sept. 3. — Ancaster people are quite interested in a suit brought by Mrs. Craig against Manny McPhillips, a well-known farmer, for $5,000 damages for breach of promise. For some years Mrs. Craig, who is an attractive widow, has been keeping house for the defendant, and she alleges that he promised to marry her on several occasions. She had confidence in him until she discovered that he was keeping company with a young woman living in the township.

MR. CHAMBERLAIN IN NEW YORK.

New York, Sept. 3.—Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, British Secretary of State for the Colonies, was a passenger on the Teutonic, which arrived yesterday. He said that his visit was of a purely personal nature, and was taken for the purpose of visiting Mrs. Chamberlain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Endicott, of Danvers, Mass. His visit had absolutely no political significance whatever, and will be a brief one. He intends returning home in about a fortnight.

RETALIATION ON CANADIAN BANKS.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 3. — Seattle banks will retaliate on Canadian banks for discounting the money of the United States. The matter had been discussed informally by the clearing houses, and final action will be taken at once. The Canadians have been making a discount of 10 per cent on American money, and the proposed action of the local banks, which will undoubtedly be taken, will be at a discount of 2 per cent on paper, while 50-cent pieces of the Queen's Dominion will be received for 40 cents, and 25-cent pieces for 20 cents. The bank will give ten days' notice to their customers of the new rule.

LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson Cameron writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs, and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice, I procured the medicine and less than half a bottle cured me; I certainly believed it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."

There's no help wanted from soap or anything else, when you use Pearline. Pearline and water—all alone by themselves—that's everything you need for the best, the easiest, the safest, the most economical washing and cleaning. What help can soap add to it? You might just as well get a horse to help a locomotive. Anything that soap can do, Pearline can do better—and can do a great deal more besides.

Send it Back. Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, be honest—send it back. 434

Bylaw Carried.

Sewerage Proposition Indorsed by 653 Majority.

The Vote 1,316 to 653—South London Almost Unanimous for It.

Not one-half of the 4,300 property and leaseholders of the city (300 of them non-resident) took the trouble to exercise their franchise yesterday on a question directly affecting their pockets to the extent of $150,000. The bylaw to raise this sum, of which Mayor Little and Dr. Cl. T. Campbell were the champions, was carried by a vote of two to one. There was no organized opposition to it, nor did its advocates use any influence except persuasive eloquence on the hustings. As expected, South London, where the need of better sewerage and drainage is the most felt, went almost unanimously "yea." In the fourth and fifth wards, where the most opposition was encountered, substantial though not overwhelming majorities were given. Only two subdivisions voted "nay." The vote was:
